Frelow, 1989 This book presents an approach to learning that builds on trust and personal regard It is based on the experiences of a second grade teacher and relates anecdotal experiences Chapter I discusses beginning the transference of power pre planning for the school year and creating an environment Chapter II discusses building trust focusing on making the learners ready to learn getting to know them listening learning to make choices and problem solving Chapter III discusses sharing feelings and presents a day by day account of a week long event that affected and inspired a whole class Chapter IV discusses discovering interests and developing the theme This chapter focuses on recognizing interests brainstorming refining interests developing projects identifying resources and choosing the theme Chapter V focuses on tying together the thinking skills including naming and developing thinking skills through theme activities Chapter VI describes covering the curriculum as it relates to the theme and relating the projects to specific curriculum areas Chapter VII discusses becoming a lifetime learner An appendix presents a yearly guide for using helpful ideas with a class It follows a chronological sequence beginning with what to do during the summer moving through the first week of school within the first few weeks of school as the year continues and ending with the closing weeks of school Sample charts for recordkeeping are included ABL Resources in Education ,1997 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000

The SAGE Handbook of Youth Work Practice Pam Alldred, Fin Cullen, Kathy Edwards, Dana Fusco, 2018-07-02 The SAGE Handbook of Youth Work Practice showcases the value of professional work with young people as it is practiced in diverse forms in locations around the world The editors have brought together an international team of contributors who reflect the wide range of approaches that identify as youth work and the even wider range of approaches that identify variously as community work or community development work with young people youth programmes and work with young people within care development and informal education frameworks The Handbook is structured to explore histories current practice and future directions Part One Youth Work and Approaches to Professional Work with Young People Part Two Professional Work With Young People Projects and Practices to Inspire Part Three Values and Ethics in Work with Young People Part Four Current Challenges and Hopes for the Future Screen Stories and Moral Understanding Carl Plantinga, 2023 The stories we tell and show in whatever medium play varied roles in human cultures One such role is to contribute to moral understanding Moral understanding goes beyond moral knowledge it is a complex cognitive achievement that may consist of one or more of the following the ability to understand why to ask the right questions categorization the application of models to specific incidents or the capacity to make connections between morally charged situations that have a common underlying meaning While the disciplines of communication psychology philosophy and film and media studies have all made significant scholarly progress on this issue they make different grounding assumptions and use different terminologies Screen Stories and Moral Understanding approaches the topic from an interdisciplinary perspective and explores the conditions under which stories we view on screens movies streamed series and television can lead to moral understanding in viewers In five sections this book explores the nature of moral understanding in relation to screen stories the means by which moving image fictions can transfer knowledge to and cultivate perspectives in viewers the role of affect in generating moral understanding the viewer's engagement with characters and what we do with screen stories after viewing them Understanding Games and Game Cultures Ingrid Richardson, Larissa Hjorth, Hugh Davies, 2021-03-24

Digital games are one of the most significant media interfaces of contemporary life Games today interweave with the social economic material and political complexities of living in a digital age But who makes games who plays them and what how and where do we play This book explores the ways in which games and game cultures can be understood It investigates the sites genres platforms interfaces and contexts for games and gameplay offering a critical overview of the breadth of contemporary game studies It is an essential companion for students looking to understand games and games cultures in our increasingly playful and gamified digital society Transforming our World Through Design, Diversity and Education Gerald Craddock, Cormac Doran, Larry McNutt, Dónal Rice, 2018-10-15 Good design is enabling and each and every one of us is a designer Universal Design is widely recognized an important concept that should be incorporated in all person centred policies The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD clearly stipulates that the most effective way of delivering on the promise of an inclusive society is through a Universal Design approach Sitting at the intersection of the fields of Higher Education and Universal Design this book presents papers delivered at the Universal Design and Higher Education in Transformation Congress UDHEIT2018 held in Dublin Ireland from 30 October to 2 November 2018 This event brings together key experts from industry education and government and non government organization sectors to share experiences and knowledge with all participants The 86 papers included here are grouped under 17 headings or themes ranging from education and digital learning through healthcare to engagement with industry and urban design Celebrating and integrating all that is good in design diversity and education this book will be a valuable resource for all those interested in the inspiring and empowering developments in both Universal Design and higher education
