Facing the Dragon Robert L. Moore, 2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life this book length essay attacks the related problems of human evil spiritual narcissism secularism and ritual and grandiosity Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect Along the way he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology spirituality and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives In recent decades this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism structuralism Jungianism deconstructionism the analysis of archaic imagery and myth the recovery of Gnostic texts and finally an openness to pluralism whether ethnic geographic religious or interpretive All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism greed and religious fanaticism read Facing the Dragon But be forewarned you may find some offshoots in your own garden homelessness brought him to explore the tension that lies between solitude and community Carl Jung raised by a pious father and a psychologically unbalanced mother was driven to understand the structure of the psyche including the male and female elements that exist in every human person Robert Jingen Guinn provides wise and compassionate portraits of these emblematic figures Each of them in his own way had to experience emptiness going beyond consciousness to discover his own personal truth whether that was rooted in Buddha nature God or the unconscious This going beyond became a path to encountering their own unique selves and a deeper sense of life BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved God Beyond Gender Gail Ramshaw,1995 The debate about God language has two opposing extremes One side maintains that biblical language and masculine pronouns must be retained The other argues that female imagery for God is preferable Now Gail Ramshaw presents a third position urging the inclusion of many images for God the correction of others and the total avoidance of any pronouns The Heart of History John Weir Perry,1987-07-01 This book is about the psychology of acute culture change based on the historical antecedents of such events It focuses on the spiritual process and the social circumstances of stressful turning points Appeal and Attitude Steven G. Smith,2005-11-16 In Appeal and Attitude Steven G Smith offers a multicultural view into issues at the heart of existentialism hermeneutics and the phenomenology of religion By looking closely at the concepts of appeal or what commands our attention and attitude or the quality of the attention we pay Smith probes into the core of religious ideals to answer questions such as why faith and rationality are compelling and how religious experience becomes meaningful Smith turns to philosophical and religious texts from Eastern and Western religious and philosophical traditions including Kant Hegel Heidegger Levinas Derrida Confucius and the Bhagavad Gita He also engages everyday objects such as stones birds boats and minnows to arrive at normative definitions of supreme appeal and sovereign attitude This book provides readers at all levels with a thoughtful and widely comparative window into idealism community responsibility piety faith and love
