Lord Kitchener!

Photograph of Horatio Herbert Kitchener, 1st Earl Kitchener

Field Marshal Horatio Herbert Kitchener, 1st Earl Kitchener, was a senior British Army officer and colonial administrator of Irish origin. Kitchener rose to prominence due to his participation in the Second Boer War, a conflict fought between the British Empire and the two Boer Republics over the Empire's influence in Southern Africa, and his pivotal role in the early stages of the First World War. Kitchener made a critical contribution to the eventual Allied victory by anticipating a long war and creating Britain's first mass army. Still, the expanding nature of the conflict burdened him with an overwhelming workload that undermined his performance as Secretary of State for War.

Lord Kitchener The Story Of His Life:

Lord Kitchener. The Story of His Life, 1916 Lord Kitchener Donald Alexander Mackenzie, 1916 Lord Kitchener Donald A. Mackenzie, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Lord Kitchener The Story of His Life and Work The life of Kitchener is embraced in an epoch of European history which the Great World War brings to a close He belongs to history a French poet has declared he entered it while still alive there to remain for ever His baptism of fire was received in the Franco Prussian War and it was directly due to the Russo Turkish War which resulted in the setting up of independent states in the Balkans where the political influences of Austria and Russia were for a generation to quiver in the balance that his genius for organization and administration was given a chance of development especially in Cyprus and Asia Minor In Egypt too Kitchener figures in a distinct historical epoch He entered that country in a military capacity immediately after the bombardment of Alexandria of which he was an eyewitness he took part in the stamping out of the Arabi Pasha rebellion he assisted in the training and organization of the new native army of which he became in time the Sirdar he was associated with Gordon the hero of Khartoum and as a soldier and administrator he realized Gordon's ambition by reclaiming the Sudan from barbarism After a brief but brilliant period of service as British Agent in Egypt he took part as a member of the British Government in shaping the policy that finally freed Egypt from the thralldom of Turkey and ushered in a new age in the history of the ancient land of the Pharaohs Had Kitchener's services been confined to Egypt alone they would have ensured his undying reputation as a great soldier and great administrator With the progress of time however they became more universal About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Lord Kitchener: the Story of His Life and Work, Etc Donald Alexander MACKENZIE (Archaeologist.), 1916 Lord Kitchener Horace George Groser, 1901 Lord Kitchener Horace G. Life of Lord Kitchener Sir George Arthur,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1920 edition Excerpt CHAPTER XIV Kitchener s delicate duty during the latter months of 1884 was to keep up communication with Gordon whose rather fretful messages more than excusable under the strain and sense of desolation made difficulties a little more difficult Gordon for instance curiously failed to make allowance for the risks and chances to which the messengers and missives were exposed Thus September 24 he complains that the only messengers who ever reach him are his own whom he had sent out from Khartum that the British officers seem to grudge the least expense in giving him information or else that they think it of no importance He wonders that men like Kitchener should not have more brains than to write merely I hope you are well or ask silly questions such as Kitchener s to Stewart What can I do for you 1 He is vexed that Kitchener l The reference was of course to personal necessities and comforts Kitchener in after years told his nephew how he managed to send a message to Gordon asking what he wanted meaning sponge tooth brush and so on The answer he received was a long tirade against the Government asking for troops Eventually Kitchener got a parcel of necessities through to him carefully wrapped up in the latest papers Gordon missing this fact threw away the wrapping complained of getting no news and looked upon it as a piece of luck when a servant came to him two days later with the papers They are like gold he wrote and gave us far more information than any of the letters Did K send them by accident or on purpose Chaf xiy RELATIONS WITH GORDON 103 while announcing the approaching Expedition omitted to say by what route it was coming Kitchener as a matter of fact scraped up every

Life of Lord Kitchener, Vol. 1 of 3 (Classic Reprint) Sir George Arthur,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Life of Lord Kitchener Vol 1 of 3 I would ask the indulgence of the public who may regret that the story of Lord Kitchener s life should not have been entrusted to a biographer of experience for shortcomings which may mar this book My sincere thanks are due to many friends who have lent me letters and excellent advice and I am under a special debt of gratitude to Major General Lord Edward Gleichen and Major General Sir Frederick Maurice for valuable help in describing operations in Egypt and the Sudan and in the Great War I would also record my thanks for the facilities offered me by Sir Reginald Brade the Secretary of the War Office whose own untiring efforts to lighten Lord
