Notions of Otherness Mark Axelrod-Sokolov, 2019-04-30 One can approach the notion of otherness or alterity in various ways politically aesthetically ethically culturally religiously and sexually Writing in Saylor.org Lilia Melani defined the other as an individual who is perceived by the group as not belonging as being different in some fundamental way Any stranger becomes the Other The Other in a society may have few or no legal rights may be characterized as less intelligent or as immoral and may even be regarded as sub-human The collection of essays Notions of Otherness addresses many of these approaches as ways of interrogating how varied yet how similar they are in relation to the individual literary texts

Burning Man Frances Wilson, 2025-08-22 Shortlisted for the James Tait Black Prize An electrifying revelatory new biography of D.H. Lawrence with a focus on his difficult middle years Never trust the teller wrote D.H. Lawrence trust the tale Everyone who knew him told stories about Lawrence and Lawrence told stories about everyone he knew He also told stories about himself again and again a pioneer of autofiction no writer before Lawrence had made so permeable the border between life and literature In Burning Man: The Trials of D.H. Lawrence acclaimed biographer Frances Wilson tells a new story about the author focusing on his decade of superhuman writing and travel between 1915 when The Rainbow was suppressed following an obscenity trial and 1925 when he was diagnosed with tuberculosis Taking after Lawrence's own literary model Dante and adopting the structure of The Divine Comedy Burning Man is a distinctly Lawrentian book one that pursues Lawrence around the globe and reflects his life of wild allegory Eschewing the confines of traditional biography it offers a triptych of lesser-known episodes drawn from lesser-known sources including tales of Lawrence as told by his friends in letters memoirs and diaries Focusing on three turning points in Lawrence's pilgrimage his crises in Cornwall Italy and New Mexico and three central adversaries his wife Frieda the writer Maurice Magnus and his patron Mabel Dodge Luhan Wilson uncovers a lesser-known Lawrence both as a writer and as a man Strikingly original superbly researched and always revelatory Burning Man is a marvel of iconoclastic biography With flair and focus Wilson unleashes a distinct perspective on one of history's most beloved and infamous writers

Boarding the Ship of Death Samuel A. Eisenstein, 2018-11-05 No detailed description available for Boarding the Ship of Death Lawrence, Greene and Lowry Douglas W. Veitch, 2006-01-01

When writers go on journeys it is as often to explore the terra incognita of their own selves as to establish the identities of strange lands in the case of many English novelists between the great wars it was certainly true as Douglas Veitch remarks in the study I am introducing that their work even as it essayed the exotic cast an eye homeward and inward and that they roamed the world seeking surcease from a prevailing malaise which doubted the values of Western Civilization Mr Veitch has taken this vital element in the three novels The Plumed Serpent The Power and the Glory and Under The Volcano and has used it not merely to examine these works themselves but also to sketch out the ambivalent role which landscape plays in all fiction as omnipresent background but also as a rich source of symbols and images reflecting the human drama which a book develops He has as he more than once makes clear done more than read all the relevant literature he has himself travelled to Mexico in order to see and experience the extraordinary terrain and as I can vouch on the basis of my own knowledge of that infinitely attractive and repellent country he used his senses well while he was there from the Introduction by George Woodcock

Revolution and Ideology John A. Britton, 2021-09-15 Mexico and the United States share a border of more than 2 000 miles and their histories and interests have often intertwined The Mexican Revolution which began in 1910 and continued in one form or another for the next thirty years was keenly observed by U S citizens especially those directly involved in Mexico through property ownership investment missionary work tourism journalism and education It differed from many other revolutions in this century in that Marxist Leninist theory was only one of many radical and reformist influences Historian John A Britton examines contemporary accounts written by Americans commenting on social upheaval south of the border radical writers John Reed Anita Brenner and Carlton Beals novelists Katherine Anne Porter and D H Lawrence social critics Stuart Chase and Waldo Frank and banker diplomat Dwight Morrow to mention a few Their writings constitute a valuable body of information and opinion concerning a revolution that offers important parallels with liberation movements throughout the world today Britton s sources also shed light on the many contradictions and complexities inherent in the relationship between the United States and Mexico

Grazia Deledda's Painterly Aesthetic Angela Guiso, Virginia A. Picchietti, 2025-02-15 Central to Grazia Deledda s narrative worlds are the relationships between her characters and the vast landscapes in which they move and act The writer translates and represents her characters her characters emotions and her natural and urban landscapes with a vocabulary that is often related to the visual arts However although her descriptions contain the gradations of Modernist painting beginning with Impressionism no book length study and with diverse perspectives has thus far investigated Deledda s relationship with the visual arts and the resulting painterly aesthetic of her multicolored narratives In this sense Grazia Deledda s Painterly Aesthetic provides an articulated literary panorama of Deledda s novels and short stories through a discourse that is situated between literature and pictorial art Inspired by these two cardinal points the analyses are undertaken by contributors who have a profound awareness of an epochal change and work in different disciplines One year from the centenary of her receipt of the Nobel Prize the contributors investigate the connections consonances and differences between Grazia Deledda's oeuvre and other works inside this panorama to verify a possible unity of purpose At the same time they seek to ascertain whether these connections can corroborate and exalt the choices that the Sardinian writer made to free herself from the constraints of a hostile environment
