Generations of Lucky Devils and Unlucky Dogs Henk A. Becker, 2015-06-17 Silver grey manpower is a gold mine to society One by one the baby boom cohorts will reach the age of 65 starting from 2010 They are large cohorts relatively well educated and healthy with considerable pension and health care rights In short they are lucky devils As a result of ageing cohorts that were born in 1985 onwards and that enter the labour market as from approximately 2010 will be required to pay many additional taxes during the course of their entire working life spanning more than forty years They are in short unlucky dogs Redistribution of joys and burdens could trigger conflicts between generations A better solution is to identify and deploy society's hidden resources Taking this issue as a basis the book in hand explores strategies that enable senior citizens and young people to give meaning to solidarity among generations for a start in 2012 as the European Year for Active Ageing but also as part of Europe 2020 the European Commission's 2010 2020 strategy With these two strategies journalists and television producers will swing into action In secondary and higher education as well as in universities more papers on life courses and patterns of generations will be written than ever before Senior citizens unions but actually all social organizations will organize lectures Educated laymen will wish to go deeply into this issue Henk A Becker 1933 is Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Utrecht University in the Netherlands He has worked on a research project focusing on generations since 1985

Channel No one on Wall Street has done a better job of spotting investment trends than Dr Bob No one Lawrence Kudlow Host of CNBC s Kudlow Company In a no nonsense easy to understand style Investment Megatrends steps back from the day to day mania of the markets and explains how major shifts in our culture offer huge money making opportunities Dr Bob is tops at showing the big picture to the small investor Brenda Buttner Host Bulls Bears Fox News Channel The author s proceeds from this book are being donated to R I S E an international forum that promotes understanding of the global investment industry For more information on R I S E see inside The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo,2006 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development Values in Western Societies Ruud de
