Brian Raftery, 2020-03-31 From a veteran culture writer and modern movie expert a celebration and analysis of the movies of 1999 a terrifically fun snapshot of American film culture on the brink of the Millennium An absolute must for any movie lover or pop culture nut Gillian Flynn In 1999 Hollywood as we know it exploded Fight Club The Matrix Office Space Election The Blair Witch Project The Sixth Sense Being John Malkovich Star Wars: The Phantom Menace American Beauty The Virgin Suicides Boys Don't Cry The Best Man Three Kings Magnolia Those are just some of the landmark titles released in a dizzying movie year one in which a group of daring filmmakers and performers pushed cinema to new limits and took audiences along for the ride Freed from the restraints of budget technology or even taste they produced a slew of classics that took on every topic imaginable from sex to violence to the end of the world The result was a highly unruly deeply influential set of films that would not only change filmmaking but also give us our first glimpse of the coming twenty first century It was a watershed moment that also produced The Sopranos Apple's iPod Wi-Fi and Netflix's unlimited DVD rentals A spirited celebration of the year's movies

The Lost Woods H. William Rice, 2014-04-21 A collection that follows the lives of two families who own land and hunt in rural South Carolina The Lost Woods is a collection of fifteen short stories most of them set in and around the fictional small town of Sledge South Carolina The events narrated in the stories begin in the 1930s and continue to the present day The stories aren't t accounts of hunting methods or legends of trophy kills they are serious stories about hunting that are similar in style to William Faulkner's Go Down Moses. The collection traces the evolution of two families the Whites and the Chapmans as well as the changes in hunting and land use of the past eighty years. Some of these stories are narrated in third person others are told by a wide range of characters from grown men and women to children but only from one perspective that of the hunter. As they walk the woods in search of turkeys deer or raccoons these characters seek something more than food. They seek a lost connection to some part of themselves. The title The Lost Woods is adapted from Cherokee myths and stories wherein people must return again and again to the woods to find animals that were lost. Thereby we find not only food but who we are. Through these stories Rice reminds us that hunting is inextricably entwined with identity. As one of the oldest rituals that we as a species know it reflects both our nobility and our depravity. Through it we return again and again to find the lost woods inside ourselves.
