Touring the Antebellum South with an English Opera Company Michael Burden, 2020-10-21 The diary of Anton Reiff Jr c 1830 1916 is one of only a handful of primary sources to offer a firsthand account of antebellum riverboat travel in the American South The Pyne and Harrison Opera Troupe a company run by English sisters Susan and Louisa Pyne and their business partner tenor William Harrison hired Reiff then freelancing in New York to serve as musical director and conductor for the company s American itinerary The grueling tour began in November 1855 in Boston and then proceeded to New York Philadelphia Baltimore Pittsburgh and Cincinnati where after a three week engagement the company boarded a paddle steamer bound for New Orleans It was at that point that Reiff started to keep his diary Diligently transcribed and annotated by Michael Burden Reiff s diary presents an extraordinarily rare view of life with a foreign opera company as it traveled the country by river and rail Surprisingly Reiff comments little on the Pyne Harrison performances themselves although he does visit the theaters in the river towns including New Orleans where he spends evenings both at the French Opera and at the Gaiety Instead Reiff focuses his attention on other passengers on the mechanics of the journey on the landscape and on events he encounters including the 1856 Mardi Gras and the unveiling of the statue of Andrew Jackson in New Orleans s Jackson Square Reiff is clearly captivated by the river towns and their residents including the enslaved whom he encountered whenever the boat tied up Running throughout the journal is a thread of anxiety for apart from the typical dangers of a river trip the winter of 1855 1856 was one of the coldest of the century and the steamer had difficulties with river ice Historians have used Reiff s journal as source material but until now the entire text which is archived in Louisiana State University s Special Collections in Hill Memorial Library has only been available in its original state As a primary source the published journal will have broad appeal to historians and other readers interested in antebellum riverboat travel highbrow entertainment and the people and places of the South Hazard's United States Commercial and Statistical Register Samuel Hazard, 1840 The Forgotten Trail to Appomattox Randy Denmon, 2018-09-01 Of the forty five Civil War Battles that the National Park Service lists as Decisive only about half have been preserved by the Park Service The Federal Government s preservation efforts have made tiny out of the way places that shouldn t be known outside the county in which they are located into sacred names in the American psyche Chancellorsville Gettysburg Petersburg Manassas Antietam Spotsylvania and Shiloh Many of the other battles no less important weren't so lucky in the allotment of federal dollars Some of these other battlefields have been lost to time or neglect or urbanization but just as many have been preserved by states local governments or preservation organizations These are the battlefields along with other landmarks that Randy Denmon explores in The Forgotten Trail to Appomattox It is part military history part travelogue and part personal insight in the spirit of Bill Bryson's books such as A Walk in the Woods it is both informative and entertaining Let Freedom Swing Howard Reich, 2010-09-30 Let Freedom Swing is a wonderful title for a book and the contents also swing Marian McPartland
