Lost Time Cafe:

Amirosian Nights D. R. Ransdell, 2002 The Greek island of Amiros offered everything Rachel wanted for her vacation lovely beaches leisurely afternoons at the seaside cafe and evenings of bouzouki music at the local taverna When a lucky accident lands her a job in a bouzouki band she finds herself working among the locals learning from them struggling to communicate with them loving them and finding out a lot about herself The foreign locale and locals provide the inspiration for romance and personal discovery triggered by music language and culture

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels
