Companion to Herman Melville Wyn Kelley, 2015-06-24 In a series of 35 original essays this companion demonstrates the relevance of Melville's works in the twenty-first century. Presents 35 original essays by scholars from around the world representing a range of different approaches to Melville. Considers Melville in a global context and looks at the impact of global economies and technologies on the way people read Melville. Takes account of the latest and most sophisticated scholarship including postcolonial and feminist perspectives. Locates Melville in his cultural milieu, revising our views of his politics on race, gender, and democracy. Reveals Melville as a more contemporary writer than his critics have sometimes assumed.

Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books Doris Gebel, United States Board on Books for Young People, 2006-05-25 This annotated bibliography, organized geographically by world region and country, describing nearly 700 books representing 73 countries, is a valuable resource for librarians, teachers, and anyone else seeking to promote international understanding through children's literature. It is the third volume sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People. The first, Carl M. Tomlinson's Children's Books from Other Countries (1998), is a compendium of international children's literature with annotations of both in and out of print books published between 1950 and 1996. Susan Stan's The World Through Children's Books (2002) was the second, and it included books published between the years 1997 and 2000. Crossing Boundaries includes international children's books published between 2000 and 2004, as well as selected American books set in countries other than the United States. Editor Doris Gebel has compiled an important tool for providing stories that will help children understand our differences while simultaneously demonstrating our common humanity.
