offer a comprehensive study of the consonantal Ugaritic as well as the syllabic Akkadian incantation and anti witchcraft texts from Ras Shamra as a unified corpus These texts dealing with impending dangers mainly snakebites and witchcraft attacks are placed in the context of Ancient Near Eastern magic literature A discussion of general topics including magic and religion the Ugaritic gods of magic and the definition of incantation is followed by a new collation and translation of the Akkadian texts as well as new photographic material for both series The main focus of this book is the close reading of the consonantal texts in the context of the much larger and better analyzed corpus of Akkadian magic literature
