Sensitive Soul Michael A. Jawer,2020-08-04 Explores how emotion underlies personality triggers the development of non ordinary states and perceptions and connects all life Shows how the flow of our emotions shapes individual minds and personalities Reveals the significant role of emotion in PTSD alexithymia not knowing what one is feeling autism savantism synesthesia overlapping senses d j vu phantom pain migraines and extreme empathy Looks at the emotional lives of animals demonstrating how life threatening emergencies can trigger amazing sensitivities and abilities in them Emotion as it exists within and between people underpins personality spirituality and a range of extraordinary perceptions conditions and experiences These include d j vu phantom pain post traumatic stress disorder PTSD and extreme empathy where people instantaneously feel the physical or emotional pain of another Many gifted children those with synesthesia and people with autism not to mention highly sensitive people in general report forms of innate knowing and even paranormal experiences In this exploration of the role of emotion in non ordinary states and abilities Michael Jawer shows how the flow of our emotions and those of the people around us greatly influences the development of exceptional capacities and sensitivities Drawing on a range of scientific studies Jawer explores how 5 remarkable kinds of people individuals with autism synesthesia savantism child prodigies and children who remember past lives are linked through the biology of emotion and how a hidden emotional intensity underlies both autism and anomalous perception He examines the psychological concept of thin and thick boundaries and how those with thin boundaries those who are more environmentally sensitive have a greater predisposition toward empathy synesthesia psi abilities and extraordinary states of perception Sharing extraordinary examples the author explores how strong emotion may endure through time and space possibly even after death He also looks at the emotional lives of animals our soulful connections with them and how life threatening emergencies can trigger amazing sensitivities and abilities in our fellow creatures Revealing the unseen role of emotion in mind and personality Jawer shows that emotion is the binding force that connects us with one another with all of life and with nature itself Health Psychology Mel Reed & Bev Lloyd, 2018-12-15 Health psychology is the study of psychological and behavioral processes in health illness and healthcare It is concerned with understanding how psychological behavioral and cultural factors contribute to physical health and illness Psychological factors can affect health directly Health Psychology is concerned with understanding how biology behavior and social context influence health and illness Health psychologists work alongside other medical professionals in clinical settings work on behaviour change in public health promotion teach at universities and conduct research For example chronically occurring environmental stressors affecting the hypothalamic pituitary adrenal axis cumulatively can harm health Health psychology also concerns itself with bettering the lives of individuals with terminal illness When there is little hope of recovery health psychologist therapists can improve the quality of life of the patient by helping the patient recover at least some of his or her psychological well being Health psychologists are also concerned with providing therapeutic services for the bereaved The theoretical and conceptual input of the book in the health areas will prove quite beneficial for students and researchers whereas the ideas and research questions raised in the book will surely provoke the scientists for fulfilling heuristic function Neptune and the Final Phase of the Piscean Age Sioux Rose, 2004-10-13

This volume functions as two books in one An astrologer's reference it delineates Neptune's conjunctions with planets from the birth chart Additionally since the astrologer is trained to step outside the temporal context to understand the magnitude of stories inlaid into the rhythm structures of time its perspective is valuable as mankind faces a chaotic transition The ancient Greeks personified the planetary personae through myth Neptune the deceiver presides over the final phase of the Piscean Age as deception delusion and duplicity threaten the great verities How did we get here Mankind evidences remarkable technological expertise but have matters improved for the vast majority Illusions born of past traditions hold minds hostage and pit tribe against tribe on the basis of divisive belief systems Pisces is the zodiac position where the circle meets itself and differences dissolve Symbolized by two fish it suggests twin perceptual portals analogous to both brain hemispheres Two complementary oars are required to navigate our shared vessel progressively otherwise we circle endlessly and history repeats Right brain sentience invokes what is missing the sense of inherent unity among all living beings Mankind can no longer afford the asymmetric worldview that undermines the great balance we must now endeavor to restore

Big Mother Jasun Horsley, 2023-10-31 A bold examination of artificial intelligence consciousness technology and the human urge to return to the womb The thesis of Big Mother begins with the premise that our disembodiment as a species is being engineered and that at the same time we are engineering it through technology It proposes that the primary driving force of human civilization is the desire to create through technology a replica of the mother's body and then disappear into it Taking us into the uncanny valley where neurodiversity linguistics consciousness technology demonology Rudolf Steiner Philip K Dick Norman Bates Ted Bundy transgenderism liquid modernity identity politics the surveillance state virtual reality

transhumanism Satanism medical totalitarianism and a new world religion of scientism collide Big Mother explores the technologically assembled and technocratically imposed architecture of illusion in which the modern human being is increasingly lost inside and points the way back to our original soul natures

Care to Dare George Kohlrieser, Susan Goldsworthy, Duncan Coombe, 2012-05-29 Have you ever been led by someone who cared for you like family and dared you to achieve more than you ever thought possible for yourself your organization and even society Award winning author of Hostage at the Table George Kohlrieser along with his co authors Susan Goldsworthy and Duncan Coombe explain how becoming a secure base leader releases extraordinary potential in others Part of the Warren Bennis leadership series Care to Dare shows you how to become a Secure Base Leader so that you release your followers from the fears that get in the way of their performance It shows you how you can unleash astonishing potential by building the trust delivering the change and inspiring the focus that underpins sustainable high performance From extensive interviews with executives from all over the world as well as from surveys with more than a thousand executives the book reveals the nine characteristics that Secure Base Leaders display on a daily basis The research shows that a primary difference between a successful leader and a failed leader is the presence or absence of secure bases in his or her life Care to Dare will take you on a journey where you will discover your own secure bases past and present and determine how you can be a secure base for other people in your life at work and at home The Final Empire Wm. H. Kötke, 2007-11 In spite of its tough message there is much compassion and humanity in The Final Empire Right away as you begin to read this work you sense increasingly the grand perspective in Kötke's words He is not speaking of anarchy He is offering vital common sense It's just that his meaning is so unavoidably political And so much against what we have been taught all our lives The materialistic values of civilization teach us that the accumulation of wealth is progress The material wealth of the civilization is derived from the death of the earth the soils the forests the fish stocks the free resources of flora and fauna The ultimate end of this is for all human species to live in giant parasitical cities of cement and metal while surrounded by deserts of exhausted soils The simple polar opposites are the richness and wealth of the natural life of earth versus the material wealth of people living out their lives in artificial environments This amounts to a direct challenge to humankind A demand for radical change A re-envisioning of our part in the community of life and the precepts of individuality And Mr Kötke provides a strong argument for this case He traces the environmental scars of civilization through the ages Empire after empire desertification of the top soil winds its way around the globe in an erosive helix from China to India to Mesopotamia to Italy to North America As radical as it may seem at first glance The Final Empire is a necessary and sensible primer for the recovery of the planet It blends a critical statistical analysis of our deteriorating environment with a positivism of hope for a post empire age and a new whole human relation to the living community of Earth Dan Armstrong Author of the Novels Prairie Fire and Taming the Dragon The Knowing Body Louise Steinman, 1995-11-29 Steinman's book really stands alone among performance art books While there are many that document what particular artists are doing this one offers a way in for a person who wants to perform or know more about how performance artists work Must reading for anyone interested in performance art it will also be fascinating to those in theatre playwriting visual arts and performance of any sort
