Prem Rawat and Counterculture Ron Geaves,2019-12-12 Ron Geaves demonstrates how the convergence of Prem Rawat formerly known as Guru Maharaj Ji and Glastonbury Fayre in 1971 was a key event in understanding the jigsaw that came to be known as New Age spirituality The book charts the discovery of Prem Rawat in India in 1969 by a small number of British and North American hippies and explores how his arrival in Britain in June 1971 as well as his speech from the pyramid stage at the Fayre at just 13 years old escalated his activities to make him one of the key influencers of 1970s counterculture spirituality. Both Glastonbury and Prem Rawat have gone on to re-emerge in significantly different identities to the ones presented in 1971. The meeting between the two demonstrates how alternative spiritualities were being formed in the 1960s and how some strands went on to develop into the New Age counterculture that eventually permeated mainstream cultures in Britain and the USA.

The Ethnographer's Magic and Other Essays in the History of Anthropology George W. Stocking, 1992

George Stocking has been widely recognized as the premier historian of anthropology ever since the publication of his first volume of essays Race, Culture and Evolution in 1968. As editor of several publications including the highly acclaimed History of Anthropology series, he has led the movement to establish the history of anthropology as a recognized research specialization. In addition to the study of Victorian Anthropology, his work includes numerous essays covering a wide range of anthropological topics. The eight essays collected in The Ethnographer's Magic consider the emergence of anthropology since the late nineteenth century as an academic discipline grounded in systematic fieldwork. Drawing extensively on unpublished manuscript materials, the essays focus primarily on Franz Boas and Bronislaw Malinowski, the leading figures in the American and the British academic fieldwork traditions. According to George Marcus of Rice University, the essays represent the most informative and insightful writings on Malinowski and Boas and their legacies that are yet available. Beyond their biographical material, the essays here touch upon major themes in the history of anthropology: its powerfully mythic aspect and persistent strain of romantic primitivism; the contradictions of its relationship to the larger sociopolitical sphere; its problematic integration of a variety of natural scientific and humanistic inquiries; and the tension between its scientific aspirations and its subjectively acquired data. To provide an overview against which to read the other essays, Stocking has also included a sketch of the history of anthropology from the ancient Greeks to the present. For this collection, Stocking has written prefatory commentaries for each of the essays as well as two more extended contextualizing pieces. An introductory essay, Retrospective/Prescriptive Reflections, places the volume in autobiographical and historiographical context; the Afterword/Postscriptive/Prospective Reflections reconsiders major themes of the essays in relation to the recent past and present situation of academic anthropology.

The New Age in the Modern West Nicholas Campion, 2015-11-19

New Age culture is generally regarded as a modern manifestation of Western millenarianism, a concept built around the expectation of an imminent historical crisis followed by the inauguration of a golden age which occupies a key place in the history of Western ideas. The New Age in the Modern West argues that New Age culture is part of a family of ideas including utopianism which construct alternative futures and drive revolutionary change. Nicholas Campion traces New Age ideas back to ancient cosmology and questions the concepts of the Enlightenment and the theory of progress. He considers the contributions of the key figures of the 18th century, the legacy of the astronomer Isaac Newton and the Swedish visionary

Emanuel Swedenborg as well as the theosophist H P Blavatsky the psychologist C G Jung and the writer and artist Jose Arguelles He also pays particular attention to the beat writers of the 1950s the counterculture of the 1960s concepts of the Aquarian Age and prophecies of the end of the Maya Calendar in 2012 Lastly he examines neoconservatism as both a reaction against the 1960s and as a utopian phenomenon The New Age in the Modern West is an important book for anyone interested in countercultural and revolutionary ideas in the modern West
