By the time she reached her late twenties Eudora Welty 1909 2001 was launching a distinguished literary career She was also becoming a capable gardener under the tutelage of her mother Chestina Welty who designed their modest garden in Jackson Mississippi From the beginning Eudora wove images of southern flora and gardens into her writing yet few outside her personal circle knew that the images were drawn directly from her passionate connection to and abiding knowledge of her own garden Near the end of her life Welty still resided in her parents house but the garden and the friends who remembered it had all but vanished When a local garden designer offered to help bring it back Welty began remembering the flowers that had grown in what she called my mother s garden By the time Welty died that gardener Susan Haltom was leading a historic restoration When Welty s private papers were released several years after her death they confirmed that the writer had sought both inspiration and a creative outlet there This book contains many previously unpublished writings including literary passages and excerpts from Welty s private correspondence about the garden The authors of One Writer's Garden also draw connections between Welty s gardening and her writing They show how the garden echoed the prevailing style of Welty s mother s generation which in turn mirrored wider trends in American life Progressive era optimism a rising middle class prosperity new technology women s clubs garden clubs streetcar suburbs civic beautification conservation plant introductions and garden writing The authors illustrate this garden s history and the broader story of how American gardens evolved in the early twentieth century with images from contemporary garden literature seed catalogs and advertisements as well as unique historic photographs Noted landscape photographer Langdon Clay captures the restored garden through the seasons Garden, 1929 Magnolia Plantation and Gardens Derek Fell, 2009-04

Magnolia Plantation and Gardens located on the Ashley River near Charleston South Carolina is one of the world s last surviving nineteenth century romantic gardens It is where the largest and most ancient azalea and camellia collections were developed and where azaleas were first planted out of doors in a landscape setting The plantation also provides a unique experience for visitors Its swamp garden boardwalk allows visitors to enjoy birding all year round the nature train takes visitors on a long ride throughout the plantation a street of slave cabins has been meticulously restored to provide an excellent history tour of African American life and the house tour shows the nature of post Civil War life House & Garden, 1923 Gardens of Philadelphia & the Delaware Valley William M. Klein, 1995

Once mostly rolling hills and valleys covered with hardwood forest in the seventeenth century contemporary Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley now claim the largest concentration of many of the finest public and private gardens in the world William M Klein explores the broader attitudes and behaviors toward nature that have influenced this developmentt of colonial farms and gardens created for survival to the art of suburban gardens to nature conservatories and public parks Discover how in 300 years we have moved from fencing nature out to fencing nature in Out of the past examine the worm fence at Colonial Pennsylvania Plantations overgrown by weeds as it would have been during Colonial times zigzagging across the fields tenuously holding back the great forest that presses down Into the present consider the chain link fence at the John Heinz Wildlife Refuge at Tinicum that bounds a threatened wetland habitat from the intrusion of highways and reverberates to the sounds of traffic from I 95 and the Philadelphia International Airport Klein s eloquent and knowledgeable narrative include detailed portraits of forty four individual gardens all lustrously illustrated by noted garden photographer Derek Fell While considering a particular garden s historical and social influences Klein discusses the philosophy behind each garden its planner s goals and even personality and the garden s interaction with surrounding architecture This complete guide also includes each location s address phone number hours of operation events and featured plants flowers and trees Yet this book goes far beyond the usual guides in this search for answers to the perennial questions of how and why each generation struggles to define its place in nature As we approach the twenty first century the garden has become the metaphor for how we must begin to view all nature today tended space where we collect name nurture and share our love of plants Author note Formerly Director of the Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania Dr William M Klein Jr is Executive Director of the National Tropical Botanical Garden in Lawai Hawaii In 1993 he was presented with the American Horticultural Society s Professional Award and has been a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science since 1989 He has published many important writings on nature botany and landscape including his previous book The Vascular Flora of Pennsylvania Annotated Checklist and Atlas Derek Fell is a widely published garden photographer and the author of more than 50 garden books and garden calendars The Garden ,1894 Bulletin of the Garden Club of America ,1927
