Magnum Cinema:

Cinema Graham Tarrant, 2015-08-13 Have you ever wondered what year Alfred Hitchcock released his first film which film made the biggest box office loss of all time or who were the first actors to receive separate Oscars for playing the same role This fascinating miscellany contains the answers to these questions and more Packed with profiles of the heroes and villains of film explorations of genre statistics and infographics Cinema is perfect for any movie buff who loves the storytelling magic of the silver screen

The Cinema of John Milius Alfio Leotta, 2018-12-06 This book is devoted to the critical study of the cinema of John Milius filling a major gap in the literature by combining the examination of the artistic historical and cultural significance of Milius work with an in depth analysis of his films Although most contemporary film viewers have forgotten him John Milius has been one of the most influential and controversial film makers in the history of American cinema Along with the likes of George Lucas Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese Milius was a central figure of the so called New Hollywood Milius who gained an Academy Award nomination as screenwriter for Apocalypse Now 1979 reached the apex of his directorial career in the 1980s with films such as Conan the Barbarian 1982 and Red Dawn 1984 More recently he was involved in a series of innovative projects such as the creation of the HBO series Rome 2005 2007 and the invention of the Ultimate Fighting Championship

The Cinema of Stephen Chow Gary Bettinson, Vivian P.Y. Lee, 2024-09-05 An in depth exploration of the stardom and authorship of Stephen Chow Sing chi one of Hong Kong cinema s most enduringly popular stars and among its most commercially successful directors In the West Stephen Chow is renowned as the ground breaking director and star of global blockbusters such as Kung Fu Hustle 2004 and Shaolin Soccer 2001 Among Hong Kong audiences Chow is celebrated as the leading purveyor of local comedy popularising the so called mo lei tau gibberish brand of Cantonese vernacular humour and cultivating a style of madcap comedy that often masks a trenchant social commentary This volume approaches Chow from a diverse range of critical perspectives Each of the essays written by a host of renowned international scholars offers compelling new interpretations of familiar hits such as From Beijing with Love 1994 and Journey to the West 2013 The detailed case studies of seminal local and global movies provide overdue critical attention to Chow s filmmaking highlighting the aesthetic power economic significance and cultural impact of his films in both domestic and global markets

A History of Italian Cinema Peter Bondanella, Federico Pacchioni, 2017-10-19 A History of Italian Cinema 2nd edition is the much anticipated update from the author of the bestselling Italian Cinema which has been published in four landmark editions and will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2018 Building upon decades of research Peter Bondanella and Federico Pacchioni reorganize the current History in order to keep the book fresh and responsive not only to the actual films being created in Italy in the twenty first century but also to the rapidly changing priorities of Italian film studies and film scholars The new edition brings the definitive history of the subject from the birth of cinema to the present day up to date with a revised filmography as well as more focused attention on the melodrama the crime film and the historical drama The book is expanded to include a new generation of directors as well as to highlight themes such as gender issues immigration and media politics Accessible comprehensive and heavily illustrated throughout this is an essential purchase for any fan of Italian film A Medium Seen Otherwise Roger Hallas,2023 Through a new look at how political historical and art documentaries engage with photographic images objects and archives A Medium Seen Otherwise argues that film allows us to better understand what people do with analog and digital photographs as material objects that enable social and political relations through multisensory experience Moreover as a time based medium with sound film can bring the event of photography into fuller view demonstrating how no single participant in it photographer subject camera photograph or viewer has sovereignty over its affect meaning or value The book thus explores the ways in which the innovative incorporation of photography into documentary film permits us to see both of these media otherwise Photographs whether professional or vernacular are conventionally understood to furnish documentaries with indexical evidence and visual illustration of history yet the spatio temporal and aural dimensions of film permit documentaries to illuminate photography s wider capacities beyond the merely representational Combining new critical perspectives on well known documentary filmmakers and photographers Agn s Varda Rithy Panh Edward Burtynsky Malick Sidib Vivian Maier JR Ken Burns Errol Morris and Akram Zaatari with analyses of lesser known but important documentaries author Roger Hallas investigates a global range of documentary and vernacular photographic contexts including Lebanon Palestine Mali Congo Cambodia Ireland Spain Mexico Chile Canada and the US While authorship and representation remain common rhetorical frameworks for documentaries about photography A Medium Seen Otherwise offers a compelling account of how the intermediality between documentary film and photography can posit far more expansive conceptions of both media A companion website shows clips of films discussed in the book

The Cinema of Clint Eastwood David Sterritt,2014-11-25 He became a movie star playing The Man With No Name and today his name is known around the world Measured by longevity productivity and profits Clint Eastwood is the most successful actor director producer in American film history This book examines the major elements of his career focusing primarily on his work as a director but also exploring the evolution of his acting style his long association with screen violence his interest in jazz and the political views sometimes hotly controversial reflected in his films and public statements Especially fascinating is the pivotal question that divides critics and moviegoers to this day is Eastwood a capable director with a photogenic face a modest acting talent and a flair for marketing his image Or is he a true cinematic auteur with a distinctive vision of America s history traditions and values From A Fistful of Dollars and Dirty Harry to Million Dollar Baby and beyond The Cinema of Clint Eastwood takes a close up look at one of the screen s most influential and charismatic stars To-day's Cinema News and Property Gazette ,1915

Fear City Cinema Roger A. Salerno,2022-04-12 This book studies a grouping of films set in New York City between 1965 and 1995 reflecting a town besieged by rampant criminality social distress and physical decay Fear City is a term the NYPD used to label New York as a frightening environment incapable of securing the safety of its residents This book not only deals with the social problems evident in New York during this period but also provides a study of how independent filmmakers were able to capture unsettling urban imagery capitalizing on feelings of paranoia and dread The author explores how the tone of these films reflects upon the anti urbanism that led to the War on Crime the mass exodus of working class people from the city and mass incarceration of young Black men

Contemporary American Cinema Linda Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006-05-16 One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial technological and ideological features of contemporary U S cinema Diane Negra University of East Anglia UK Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present Readers will find it lively and provocative Chuck Maland University of Tennessee USA Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms Lee Grieveson University College London UK Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject Designed especially for courses in cinema studies and film studies cultural studies and American studies Contemporary American Cinema features a glossary of key terms fully referenced resources and suggestions for further reading questions for class discussion and a comprehensive filmography Individual chapters include The decline of the studio system The rise of American new wave cinema The history of the blockbuster The parallel histories of independent and underground film Black cinema from blaxploitation to the 1990s Changing audiences The effects of new technology Comprehensive overview of US documentary from 1960 to the present

Contributors include Stephen Prince Steve Neale Susan Jeffords Yvonne Tasker Barbara Klinger Jim Hillier Peter Kramer Mark Shiel Sheldon Hall Eithne Quinn Michele Aaron Jonathan Munby Mahatma Gandhi in Cinema Narendra Kaushik, 2020-04-16 This book analyses 100 years of Hindi cinema India's principal film industry to explore how much space it has given to Mahatma Gandhi the most prominent leader of the Indian struggle for freedom and his principles It compares films on Gandhi with the written literature on him and juxtaposes the celluloid Gandhi with the man who walked on the earth ever in flesh and blood From his childhood through his legal practice in South Africa to his non violent struggle against the British Empire in India the book covers all major events of his life and their portrayal on the silver screen Fifty Contemporary Film Directors Yvonne Tasker, 2010-10-04 This book provides an accessible overview of each director's contribution to cinema incorporating a discussion of their career major works and impact Citizen Sarris, American Film Critic Emanuel Levy, 2001 This collection of essays pays tribute to Andrew Sarris the most influential film critic in American film history A noted film personality Sarris occupies a unique position walking the line between popular journalism and more academic scholarship He began his career in the 1950s with a passion for film and an eloquent style of prose that led him to become a prominent voice in the film world As a writer and editor for the Village Voice at its prime Sarris reached and educated a whole generation of readers and became respected by academics and critics all over the world The thirty eight essays assembled here and arranged according to major themes demonstrate the amazing impact Sarris has had on every aspect of the film world fellow critics filmmakers readers and American popular culture Contributors include noted critics Leonard Maltin and Molly Haskell film scholars David Bordwell and James Naremore and directors Martin Scorsese Robert Benton and John Sayles Hong Kong Society Stephen WK Chiu, Kaxton YK Siu, 2022-02-23 This book borrows the concept of high definition from digital broadcasting to highlight our unique approach to Hong Kong society which gives a sharper image than analyses It intends to highlight contrasts with many common and taken for granted stories myths and representations of Hong Kong which often presented with a low level of detail lacking proper connections between grounded personal experiences and the macro social context With chapters covering various salient dimensions of Hong Kong's society including migration economy inequality identity and social movements our high definition approach presents images with high enough resolution to match multiple layers of experiences from walks of life of Hong Kong people contributing to an understanding of how global transformation impacts local people's experiences as well as Hong Kong's significance in the regional and global system Enter the Babylon System Rodrigo Bascunan, Christian Pearce, 2010-06-18 A docu style investigation of our fascination with the gun from the perspective of the hip hop generation The 2003 shooting death of Toronto community centre worker Kempton Howard put the spotlight on hip hop's fixation with guns Media and police soon blamed rap music and its tales of gang life on bullet ridden US streets for the rising use of firearms in Canadian crime Were these songs artful accounts of a terrible truth or a self fulfilling prophecy Rodrigo Bascunan and Christian Pearce have interviewed many of the major players in the hip hop world As publishers of an award winning magazine of urban culture they d watched rap music become a scapegoat for society s much older and widely spread fascination with guns What follows is their international adventure to deconstruct modern gun culture in all its manifestations Bascunan and Pearce seek out hip hop artists illegal gun runners firearms aficionados and manufacturers museum curators academics politicians video game creators activists victims of gun violence and the family and friends left behind Somewhere between Fast Food Nation No Logo and a Michael Moore documentary featuring sly sidebar material and original artwork Enter the Babylon System is part outrageous journalistic pursuit and part passionate cri de coeur for sanity in the face of a society s obsession Cinema Journal ,1985

Blood Money Richard Nowell,2010-12-23 Scholars have consistently applied psychoanalytic models to representations of gender in early teen slasher films such as Black Christmas 1974 Halloween 1978 and Friday the 13th 1980 in order to claim that these were formulaic excessively violent exploitation films fashioned to satisfy the misogynist fantasies of teenage boys and grind house patrons However by examining the commercial logic strategies and objectives of the American and Canadian independents that produced the films and the companies that distributed them in the US Blood Money demonstrates that filmmakers and marketers actually went to extraordinary lengths to make early teen slashers attractive to female youth to minimize displays of violence gore and suffering and to invite comparisons to a wide range of post classical Hollywood s biggest hits including Love Story 1970 The Exorcist 1973 Saturday Night Fever 1977 Grease and Animal House both 1978 Blood Money is a remarkable piece of scholarship that highlights the many forces that helped establish the teen slasher as a key component of the North American film industry s repertoire of youth market product

Muslim Identity in Hindi Cinema Mohammad Asim Siddiqui,2025-02-04 This book examines the representation of Muslim identity in Hindi films by focusing on different aspects of Muslim identity historical cultural and linguistic and their realisation in cinematic form The book assesses the changing perceptions of Muslim identity beginning from the historical films of the 1940s to the more recent films which often address the current stereotypical notions of Muslim identity in the post 9 11 world and in particular analyses films which treat the problematic of global Muslim identity It argues that genre language and various sign systems create understandings and mediate notions of identity Offering a close reading of films belonging to different genres Muslim social action thriller gangster biopic and many others the book interrogates concepts of social diversity tokenism marginality and their reflection and consolidation in Hindi films It critically looks at the representation of Muslim women characters and the politics of interfaith romances in many films The book also reads many films which probe Partition violence communal riots and the international discourse on terror It also touches on the evolution of the language of Hindi films and its role in creating a lingua franca uniting diverse and variegated groups of people in India Drawing insights from new critical close reading deconstruction semiotic and discourse analysis the book also offers a close reading of a few films in each chapter which offer important insights into Hindi cinema This book offers a unique and comprehensive analysis of the political and representational aspects of Hindi cinema portrayal of Muslims in popular arts and the debates and politics over the use of Hindustani in India and its identification with religious and communitarian identity It will be of interest to researchers studying world cinema Hindi cinema sociology and Asian studies Educational Films,1973 Rene Burri Photographs Hans-Michael Koetzle,2007-06-26 The first career retrospective of Rene Burri one of the world s greatest living photographers is now available in paperback Known the world over for his iconic images of Che Guevara and Bras lia Burri s remarkable and adventurous work is brought together in this career spanning collection More than a photography monograph this is also a history book of the major political events and key personalities of the twentieth century seen through the eyes of one man The photographs range through Europe to the Middle East Vietnam Cuba and beyond and portray political and artistic figures like Che Guevara Winston Churchill Picasso and Le Corbusier The culmination of several years of scholarly research by the distinguished writer Hans Michael Koetzle this book reveals Burri s important contribution to reportage photography and forms a fascinating personal account of the history politics and culture of the twentieth century Improving the Performance of Sponsorship Ardi Kolah,2015-06-12 Without a doubt sponsorship is one of the most powerful promotional tools we have in the business of brand creation brand recognition and ultimately increasing sales Moreover brokering sponsors is a significant business in and of itself something we often overlook Considering sponsorship is a 50 billion a year market and growing marketers and students of business ignore its potential at the risk of missing hugely lucrative opportunities To fail to understand sponsorship is to fail to understand marketing If you re looking for an introduction to this topic most books available only address sports sponsorship the largest section of the market perhaps but by no means the only one Kolah s Improving the Performance of Sponsorship is a guide that examines all types of sponsorship clearly explaining and defining its mechanics advising on how to select the right properties how to sell sponsorship ethical issues measurement and key legal principles This book is all keen marketers will need for a thorough understanding of how sponsorship works
