Television Cities Charlotte Brunsdon,2018-01-19 In Television Cities Charlotte Brunsdon traces television's representations of metropolitan spaces to show how they reflect the medium's history and evolution thereby challenging the prevalent assumptions about television as quintessentially suburban. Brunsdon shows how the BBC's presentation of 1960s Paris in the detective series Maigret signals British culture's engagement with twentieth century modernity and continental Europe while various portrayals of London ranging from Dickens adaptations to the 1950s nostalgia of Call the Midwife demonstrate Britain's complicated transition from Victorian metropole to postcolonial social democracy Finally an analysis of The Wire s acclaimed examination of Baltimore marks the profound shifts in the ways television is now made and consumed Illuminating the myriad factors that make television cities Brunsdon complicates our understanding of how television shapes perceptions of urban spaces both familiar and unknown Famous Movie Detectives II Michael R. Pitts,1991-04 Pitts looks at the celluloid careers of more than three dozen sleuths including Arsene Lupin Hercule Poirot Mike Hammer Miss Jane Marple Perry Mason Philip Marlowe The Shadow Sherlock Holmes and The Whistler and a number of screen gumshoes with brief movie careers and TV detectives Each chapter highlights a different detective covering the character s films the performers who played him or her the character s image in other media stage radio television recordings etc plus a detailed filmography and a bibliography of the fictional works about each detective With additions and corrections to the base volume and scores of photographs
