PORTRAITS DE L'AMÉRIQUE

Portrait of a Native American

Portrait of a Native American, 1981. Bronze, 100 x 100 x 100 cm. Collection of the artist.

Portrait of a Native American, 1981. Bronze, 100 x 100 x 100 cm. Collection of the artist. The sculpture is a powerful statement on the Native American experience, particularly the issue of identity and the struggle for recognition. Serrano's work is characterized by its bold, expressive forms and its exploration of social and political issues. This particular piece, a bronze sculpture of a Native American figure, is a testament to the artist's commitment to addressing these themes in his art. The figure is depicted in a dynamic, almost dancing pose, which contrasts with the traditional, often static representations of Native Americans in art. This work, like many of Serrano's others, challenges the viewer to confront the complexities of race, culture, and identity in America.
