Designing the French Interior Anca I. Lasc, Georgina Downey, Mark Taylor, 2015-10-22 Designing the French Interior traces France's central role in the development of the modern domestic interior from the pre-revolutionary period to the 1970s and addresses the importance of various media including drawings, prints, pattern books, illustrated magazines, department store catalogs, photographs, guidebooks, and films in representing and promoting French interior design to a wider audience. Contributors to this original volume identify and historicize the singularity of the modern French domestic interior as a generator of reproducible images, a site for display of both highly crafted and mass-produced objects, and the direct result of widely circulated imagery in its own right. This important volume enables an invaluable new understanding of the relationship between architecture, interior spaces, material cultures, mass media, and modernity. Le Monde de Michel Tremblay André Brochu, 1993 Vingt-cinq collaborateurs G. David, S. L. Pine, L. Mailhot, P. Popovic, etc. Etudes de pi ces tudes du cycle romanesque essais biobibliographie p 447-448 Selon l'auteur il s'agit de la première exploration en profondeur de l'écriture du prolifiquecrivain montréalais. Recommandé SDM. Your Private Sky Richard Buckminster Fuller, 2001 This title, which complements the volume Your Private Sky: The Art of Design Science (see page 44), gives an authentic insight into the development of Fuller's architectonic, technical, anthropological concepts. Fuller was the epitome of the poet as engineer, the thinker as designer, the artist as researcher. He left behind a voluminous quantity of writing, including texts of visionary importance, penetrating linguistic force, as well as of urgent topicality. The book documents various aspects of Fuller's widely respected texts. These testaments were intended to be shared with the whole world, or as Fuller coined it in 1950 with Spaceship Earth (3-7643-6072-0). La maison suspendue Paul Nelson, 1939 The Modern Steel House Neil Jackson, 2016-03-23 This book provides a comprehensive survey of Modern Movement houses constructed with steel frames. Arranged chronologically and thematically, it traces the development over the last seventy years of steel houses in Europe, Australia, and the United States, with special reference to London, Paris, Sydney, and Los Angeles, and to the work elsewhere of Mies van der Rohe, Philip Johnson, and Jean Prouvé. Examples of steel houses from around the world demonstrate that steel structures can provide a better quality of life within a cleaner, lighter home environment. Buried Astrolabe Craig Stewart Walker, 2001 Over the last two decades, Canadian drama has emerged as an important presence in international theatre. In The Buried Astrolabe, Craig Walker offers a critical introduction to contemporary Canadian playwriting, providing a context for the study of Canadian drama and showing how it developed from Western European philosophical, literary, and dramatic traditions. Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor,2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Canada and the Idea of North Sherrill E Grace,2002-04-15 Canada and the Idea of North examines the ways in which Canadians have defined themselves as a northern people in their literature art music drama history geography politics and popular culture From the Franklin Mystery to the comic book superheroine Nelvana Glenn Gould s documentaries the paintings of Lawren Harris and Molson beer ads the idea of the north has been central to the Canadian imagination Sherrill Grace argues that Canadians have always used ideas of Canada as North to promote a distinct national identity and national unity In a penultimate chapter The North Writes Back Grace presents newly emerging northern voices and shows how they view the long tradition of representing the North by southern activists artists and scholars With the recent creation of Nunavut increasing concern about northern ecosystems and social challenges and renewed attention to Canada's role as a circumpolar nation Canada and the Idea of North shows that nordicity still plays an urgent and central role in Canada at the start of the twenty first century The Play's the Thing Valerie Whiteson, Nava Horovitz, 1997-07-28 This text features selections from fourteen modern international plays excerpted for intermediate level ESL students Moving Target Carole-Ann Upton, 2014-07-22 Moving Target offers a rigorous exploration of the practice of translating for the theatre The twelve essays in the volume span a range of work from Eastern and Western Europe Canada and the United States For the first time this book draws together existing translation theory with contemporary practice to shed light on a hitherto neglected aspect of the production process How does the theatre translator mediate between source text performance text and target audience What happens when theatre is transposed from one culture to another What are the obstacles to theatre translation and what are the opportunities Central to the debate throughout is the role of the translator in creating not only a linguistic text but also a performance text as the contributors repeatedly demonstrate an illuminating sensibility to the demands and potential of theatre production Impacting upon areas of inter cultural theory as well as theatre studies and translation studies the result is a startling revelation of the joys as well as the frustrations of the dramatic art of the translator for performance Dramatic Licence Louise Ladouceur, 2012-05 Navigating through two languages and cultures Ladouceur studies translation strategies in the world of theatre Outside Belongings Elspeth Probyn, 2015-12-22 Outside Belongings argues against a psychological depth model of identity one in which individuals possess an intrinsic quality that guarantees authentic belonging Instead Probyn proposes a model of identity that takes into account the desires of individuals and groups of individuals to belong The main ideas she considers the outside the surface and belonging allow her to articulate in concrete terms her precise concerns about sexuality and nationality Identity and Community Irving Massey, 1994 In this book the author a Jewish Canadian from Montreal who has been an American academic for most of his career re-examines his cultural roots and connections The problem of Canada and Canadian identity lies at the heart of the book covering the personal the communal and political For the Gay Stage Drewey Wayne Gunn, 2017-05-21 Previous surveys of the gay theatrical repertoire have concentrated on plays produced on Broadway or in London's West End This comprehensive guide goes well beyond these earlier studies by introducing productions from Off Broadway from regional theaters in the U S and U K and from Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa Also included are Puerto Rican Indian and Filipino plays written in English as well as translations from other languages Well over half of the works discussed here appear for the first time in such a study Code-Choice and Identity Construction on Stage Sirkku Aaltonen, 2020-06-01 Code Choice and Identity Construction on Stage challenges the general assumption that language is only one of the codes employed in a theatrical performance Sirkku Aaltonen changes the perspective to the audience foregrounding the chosen language variety as a trigger for their reactions Theatre is the most public of arts closely interwoven with contemporary society and language is a crucial tool for establishing order In this book Aaltonen explores the ways in which chosen languages on stage can lead to rejection or tolerance in diglossic situations where one language is considered unequal to another Through a selection of carefully chosen case studies the socio political rather than artistic motivation behind code choice emerges By identifying common features of these contexts and the implications of theatre in the wider world this book sheds light on high versus low culture the role of translation and the significance of traditional and emerging theatrical conventions This intriguing study encompassing Ireland Scotland Quebec Finland and Egypt cleverly employs the perspective of familiarising the foreign and is invaluable reading for those interested in theatre and performance translation and the connection between language and society
