Media The Second God:

Media, the Second God Tony Schwartz,1983 Examines the media s increasing influence in medicine education business politics and daily life Selling Electronic Media Ed Shane,1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Democracy Owners' Manual Jim Shultz,2002 The Democracy Owners Manual is a unique hands on guide for people who want to change public policy at the local state or national level A combination of policy and advocacy basics the book offers a clear presentation of the issues and debates activists are likely to encounter as well as a lucid example rich guide to effective strategies and actions Fast Media, Media Fast Thomas W. Cooper Ph. D.,Thomas William Cooper,2011 Media overload threatens quality of life relationships and intellectual and social development of children The author is a modern day Thoreau living for a month in a media less Walden and has become an advocate for media responsibility He shares his experiences providing a guide on how to prepare experiment and learn during a media fast or diet or blackout He describes communities that are no media pockets of society such as the Old Order Amish who ban all electronic media Readers learn how to find personal balance by stepping outside the media maelstrom Manual on Preaching Milton Crum,1988 The Radio Station John Allen Hendricks,Bruce Mims,2018-05-01 The Radio Station offers a concise and insightful guide to all aspects of radio broadcasting streaming and podcasting This book s tenth edition continues its long tradition of guiding readers to a solid understanding of who does what when and why in a professionally managed station This new edition explains what radio in America has been where it is today and where it is going covering the basics of how programming is produced financed delivered and promoted via terrestrial and satellite broadcasting streaming and podcasting John Allen Hendricks and Bruce Mims examine radio and its future within a framework of existing and emerging technologies The companion website is new revised with content for instructors including an instructors manual and test questions Students will discover an expanded library of audio interviews with leading industry professionals in addition to practice quizzes and links to additional resources Television ',Critical Viewing Skills', Education James A. Brown,2013-01-11 Representing a significant survey and evaluation of major media literacy projects in the U S and selected countries throughout the world this book covers all aspects of critical viewing skills It provides comprehensive theoretical and historical background about the field the criteria for its evaluation and various structured programs including the CVS projects and programs sponsored by school districts individuals non governmental national organizations and private companies The book can serve as a guide for curriculum planners as well as teachers in the classroom and adult workshops and also parents and individual adult viewers in applying the best match of theories practices readings and specific exercises to monitor and enhance television s role Rhetorical Memory and Delivery John Frederick Reynolds,2013-11-05 Why has classical rhetoric been a subject of such growing interest for the past ten years Because the most exciting work in classical rhetoric has asked us to rethink classical concepts in modern terms What s been missing at least in book length form is a scholarly rethinking of rhetorical memory and delivery As many scholars have been noting in their work for some time now three of five classical issues invention arrangement and style have dominated rhetorical studies while the other two memory and delivery have largely been misunderstood or ignored Re examined in light of recent research on orality literacy and electronic technology rhetorical memory and delivery issues can become not only central to the field but also key to the continued interest in classical rhetoric Bringing together national scholars from a variety of related disciplines in which rhetorical memory and delivery issues matter this collection is the only volume that examines classical and contemporary interpretations of rhetorical memory and delivery in depth and detail Religion vs. Television Jay Newman, 1996-08-20

The subject of competition between religion and television has if only indirectly received considerable attention particularly from religionists disturbed by the threat posed by television programming to traditional religious beliefs values and attitudes This detailed study considers the competing cultural forces of television and religion from a wider and more theoretical perspective Newman examines the major forms of competition and the various motives and strategies of the people and groups involved His philosophical approach allows us to see that the most important aspect of competition between television and religion is their rivalry as cultural forces In this rivalry religion continues to have a profound influence on the shaping of television just as it has always had on all newly developing forms of culture More Than A Movie Miguel

Valenti, 2018-04-24 In More Than a Movie producer and entertainment attorney F Miguel Valenti presents a compelling argument for the creative community to consider the consequences of its products from movies to TV to the Internet Valenti refrains from attacking the industries in which he himself works but argues for reflection on the part of those who create media More Than a Movie takes a pioneering first step toward outlining the issues in an insider fashion and provides the tools to make ethical decisions about creating for the big and small screens Edited by veteran media writer Les Brown and media consultant Laurie Trotta More Than a Movie is written to stimulate debate in professional and academic arenas and for the enjoyment of everyone who loves entertainment The book contains a foreword by noted author and director Peter Bogdanovich and commentary from producers Christine Vachon and David Brown Mediascope a Studio City California based media policy organization commissioned the book upon discovering that ethical discussions seldom occur in film and television schools although they are staples for studying law medicine business and journalism Issues range from ethnic and gender stereotyping to excessive and gratuitous violence It s not about censorship it s about having a responsibility for what we do says author Valenti no relation to MPAA s Jack Valenti The book outlines how we are helping to shape societal values and individual behavior with the artistic choices we make A team of writers from across the nation offer essays Neil Hickey editor Columbia Journalism Review Annette Insdorf Columbia University Ted Pease professor and columnist Jack Pitman Variety Martin Koughan Emmy Award winning documentarian The essays in More Than a Movie are interspersed with stories of actual ethical dilemmas told by noted screenwriters directors and other practitioners in interviews by Manhattan writer

Laura Blum Teleliteracy David Bianculli, 2000-07-01 The phenomena of television is examined from the historical context and television as an art form to television in various aspects of modern society such as TV in the classroom and on the battlefield Watching What We Watch Walter T. Davis, Jr., Teresa Blythe, Gary Dreibelbis, Mark Scalese, Elizabeth Winslea, 2001-01-01 Offers counsel on how to address messages of popular culture as reflected on television today explaining how to view programs in light of faith values and belief systems as a means of identifying appropriate broadcasts Original

The Future of the Mass Audience W. Russell Neuman, 1991-11-29 This book focuses on how the changing technology and economics of the mass media in post industrial society will influence public communication A Citizen's Guide to Politics in America Barry R. Rubin, 2000-06-15 Designed as an antidote for civic apathy and disillusionment this guide takes the reader through the process of successful political action for change from the germ of an idea to finding allies getting the word out and building support to effect the desired result Ethics in Human Communication Richard L. Johannesen, Kathleen S. Valde, Karen E. Whedbee, 2008-01-09 Broad in scope yet precise in exposition the Sixth Edition of this highly acclaimed ethics text has been infused with new insights and updated material Richard Johannesen and new coauthors Kathleen Valde and Karen Whedbee provide a thorough comprehensive overview of philosophical perspectives and communication contexts pinpointing and explicating ethical issues unique to human communication Chief among the authors objectives are to provide classic and contemporary perspectives for making ethical judgments about human communication sensitize communication participants to essential ethical issues in the human communication process illuminate complexities and challenges involved in making evaluations of communication ethics and offer ideas for becoming more discerning evaluators of others communication Provocative questions and illustrative case studies stimulate reflexive thinking and aid readers in developing their own approach to communication ethics A comprehensive list of resources spotlights books scholarly articles videos and Web sites useful for further research or personal exploration FAQs About Reality: Chris Langan's Social Media Posts, Book 1: Quora Christopher Michael Langan, 2021-01-31 FAQs About Reality contains all of Christopher Langan s answers to questions posted on Quora during the years he was active 2016 2019 Langan was banned from Quora for his conservative worldview and uncompromising debate style Although Langan never broke Quora s rules or violated its terms of service he was summarily deplatformed without warning All of his posts were deleted or orphaned With the help of members of the Mega Foundation and CTMU Community the majority of his work on Quora was preserved in this volume The Age of Sex Crime Jane Caputi, 1987 The sexualized serial murder of women by men is the subject of this provocative book Jane Caputi argues that the sensationalized murders by men such as Jack the Ripper Son of Sam Hillside Strangler and the Yorkshire Ripper represent a contemporary genre of sexually political crimes The awful deeds function as a form of patriarchal terrorism disappearing women at a rate of some four thousand annually in the United States alone Caputi asks us not only to name the phenomenon of sexually political murder but to recognize sex crime in all of its various interconnecting manifestations Dick Tracy and American Culture Garyn G. Roberts, 2003-09-11 In October 1931 Dick Tracy made his debut on the pages of the Detroit Mirror Since then America's most famous crime fighter has tangled with a variety of protagonists from locations as diverse as the inner city and outer space all the time maintaining the moral high ground while reflecting American popular culture Through extensive research and interviews with Chester Gould the creator of Dick Tracy his assistants Dick Locher the current artist Max Allan Collins who scripted the stories for more than 15 years and many others associated with the strip Dick Tracy as a cultural icon emerges The strips use of both innovative and established police methods and the true to life portrayals of Tracy's family and fellow cops are detailed The artists behind the strip are fully revealed and Dick Tracy paraphernalia and the 1990 movie Dick Tracy are discussed Dick Tracy's appearances in other media books comics radio movie serials B movies television dramas and animated cartoons are fully covered Political Communication Ethics Robert E. Denton Jr., 2000-05-30 This essay collection examines ethical concerns related to the traditional areas of political communication including campaigns media discourse and advertising as well as new technologies including the Internet In total the collection provides one of the few volumes to examine political ethics from an academic perspective rather than from a moralistic or rule orientation Bruce Gronbeck provides an assessment of presidential campaigns arguing that ethical judgments of citizens are based on candidates actions and motives character and competence Ronald Lee explores the ethics of campaign discourse and he charts the relationship between presidential candidates projection of civic virtue and the political arrangements that dictate the course of the campaign itself Steven Goldzwig and Patricia Sullivan examine what happens to discourse when the divide between the haves and have nots translates into a local community disconnected from virtual politics The nature types and impact of the growing use of hate speech in contemporary politics is explored by Rita Whillock while Robert Denton investigates television as an instrument of governing and its impact on the nature of democracy Gary Woodward looks at the ethics of political journalism and Lynda Lee Kaid analyzes the ethical issues raised by political advertising in all forms Clifford Jones looks at the impact of campaign finance rules on campaign communication strategy Gary Selnow explores the ethics of politics on the Internet and Robert Denton concludes by examining the relationship between constitutional authority and public morality An important text for students as well as scholars investigating contemporary American politics The Health of Nations ,2004-09 This book presents insights and observations on the current emotional and intellectual status between civilizations in the East and West that led the author to believe that an East West confrontation producing World War III of the nuclear kind is very likely but avoidable With an uncanny ability to process information from often eclectic sources and to recognize startling patterns of thought and activity Iskandar I Khan examines causes of conflict history of religious law international business superiority over nations and the ever urgent need to begin the potentially lengthy process of establishing peace in today's unstable and dangerous world Along the way he makes an appeal to America's baby boomers Jewish leaders and engineers of the world to participate in this process while also discussing his own actions undertaken on behalf of this noble effort Divided into five parts the final part presents rational solutions and suggestions for America as a world leader and tells us how we can bring positive changes to our own political and economic system A dynamic insightful and thought provoking read
