Kabbalah and Meditation for the Nations Yitshak Ginzburg,2007 Ours is the first generation in modern times to understand the truly universal human condition and to seek to bring all peoples of the earth together in peace and harmony We are the first generation to truly understand that we are faced with the challenge of either inhabiting our planet harmoniously or not inhabiting it at all Filling our future is the fundamentalism that threatens to pit one religion against another But our different relationships and understandings of G d should not be the reason for conflict but the source of goodwill in building our relationships with one another and our ability to understand others The covenant with the Jewish people was not the first made between the Almighty and mankind Before the revelation at Mt Sinai G d commanded Adam and then made a covenant with Noah giving them the guidelines for the universal religion of mankind The most well known part of this covenant is the seven universal commandments or the Seven Noahide Laws For this reason Judaism and Jews do not proselytize but rather seek to guide the nations of the world in developing their own relationship with the Almighty and implementing these potentially unifying laws of basic human nature This book offers you a glimpse into the tremendous mystical power and meaning of G d s covenant with humanity and the Seven Noahide Laws as explained in Kabbalah It focuses on their spiritual and inner dimensions and inspires a deeper look at our best hope for achieving world peace and a better future for all beings
