Drawing Fire Benjamin Pogrund, 2023-06-14 Benjamin Pogrund who spent 26 years as a journalist in South Africa investigating apartheid and who has been living in Israel for the past 15 years investigates the accusation that Israel is practicing apartheid and the motives of those who make it His study is founded on a belief in Israel combined with frank criticism to provide a balanced view of Israel's strengths and problems To understand Israel today one must first look at the past and so the book first outlines key foundational events to explain current attitudes It then explores the contradictions found in the region including discrimination against Israeli Arabs and among Jews before concluding that it is wrong to affix the apartheid label to Israel inside the Green Line of 1948-1967 It also deconstructs the criticisms of Israel and the boycott movement before arguing for two states Israeli and Palestinian as the only way forward for Jews and Arabs This detailed and balanced study offers a unique comparison between South Africa and Israel

Rural Depopulation in England and Wales, 1851-1951 John Saville, 2013-10-08 First Published in 1998 This book aims to accommodate for the little attention paid to the needs of the people living in rural Britain The author argues that there has hardly been an attempt to describe the impact of new machines and of new wage levels on farm and village The title sets out to answer two key questions can the traditional pattern of settlement survive and has depopulation in the truly rural areas gone so far as to undermine the viability of the small villages and hamlets
