Escribir la catalanidad Stewart King, 2005 This study explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia and rejects the exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan ness This study charting the construction of a Catalan identity from the nineteenth century cultural renaissance until the present day explores the interaction of language culture and identity in contemporary Catalonia Drawing on postcolonial and multicultural literary theories it argues that Castilian and Catalan language narratives are expressions of the same culture Through detailed analyses of texts by Terenci Moix Francisco Candel Ignasi Riera Montserrat Roig Juan Mars Ramon Pallic and Manuel V zquez Montalb n among others the author demonstrates that such writers share similar preoccupations and points of view and also engage in a complex literary and cultural dialogue that cuts across the established linguistic divisions that characterise cultural politics in Catalonia The Catalan literary establishment s exclusion of Castilian as a language capable of expressing Catalan ness is challenged and the author proposes redefining traditional understandings of Catalan literature to take into account texts produced by all members of Catalan society Stewart King is a lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Monash University Australia

VV., 2013-09-11 T00:00:00+02:00 The starting point for this research is the ascertainment of a major change in the spirituality paradigm of the last centuries of the European Middle Ages which since the 13th century results in a new and final interpretation focused on pauperistic evangelical and apostolic ideals of the religious phenomenon This symbolic revolution which completely changed parameters and involved both men and women entailed an intense urbanisation and feminisation of spirituality Within that general framework the pages of this book attempt at investigating the penetration evolution and changes of the new forms of female monastic and religious life in a delimited space and time the kingdoms of the Iberian Peninsula during the period from the 13th to the 16th century trying to establish the connection between those new spaces of female spirituality and the strategies wishes and potentialities of the women who promoted their creation strengthening or reform

The Sodality of Our Lady Elder Mullan, 1912 Structures of Reform: The Mercedarian Order in the Spanish Golden Age Bruce Taylor, 2021-10-01 During the sixteenth and the seventeenth centuries the Mercedarian Order of friars founded in the 1220s underwent a period of reform from which it emerged utterly transformed This study sets out to examine not only the context of that reform the policies of the crown and the papacy the condition of Catalonia and Spain at large the circumstances prevailing within the Order and the dialogue with its past but also to grasp the essence of monastic reform itself against this diverse background The imposition of other than purely religious criteria onto the reform agenda alerts us to the deeper implications of monastic change in Early Modern Europe For the Mercedarians the result by 1650 was a wholly new Order the evolution of this process by turns calculated and unexpected is here explored Record of American and Foreign Shipping ,1885 Europe Michael Zils,2015-07-24 No detailed description available for Europe Urbicide Fernando Carrión Mena,Paulina Cepeda Pico,2023-03-23 This book uses the reflection of academics specialized in the urban area of Latin America Europe and the United States to initiate a comparative debate of the different dynamics in which Urbicidio expresses itself The field or focal point of analysis that this publication approaches is the city but under a new critical perspective of inverse methodology to that has been traditional used It is about understanding the structural causes of self destruction to finally thinking better and then going from pessimism to optimism It is a deep look at the city from an unconventional entrance because it is about knowing and analyzing what the city loses by the action deployed by own urbanites both in the field of its production and in the field of its consumption This suppose that the city does not have an ascending linear sequential evolution in its development but neither in each of its parts in the improvement process showing the face that commonly not seen but others live The category used for this purpose is that of Urbicidio or the death of the city which contributes theoretically and methodologically to the knowledge of the city as well as to the design of urban policies that neutralize it In addition it is worth mentioning that the book has an inclusive view of the authors For this reason gender parity territorial representation and the presence of age groups have been sought Iberian Books Volumes II & III / Libros Ibéricos Volúmenes II y III (2 vols) Alexander Samuel Wilkinson,Alejandra Ulla Lorenzo,2015-10-05 Iberian Books II III presents an indispensable foundational listing of everything known to have been published in Spain Portugal and the New World or of items printed in Spanish or Portuguese elsewhere during the first half of the seventeenth century Drawing on library catalogues specialist bibliographies and studies as well as auction catalogue records Iberian Books lists 45 000 items and the locations of some 215 000 copies surviving in 1 800 collections worldwide These volumes offer a powerful research tool which will appeal to researchers librarians and to the book selling and collecting communities They will prove invaluable to anyone with a research interest in the literature history and culture of the Iberian Peninsula in the early modern age This set supplements Iberian Books which logs the Iberian print production up to 1601 Los dos vol menes de Iberian Books II III ofrecen un registro pionero de todos los impresos publicados en España Portugal y el Nuevo Mundo o en español o portugués en otros lugares entre 1601 y 1650 A partir del trabajo realizado en bibliotecas la revisión de bibliografías especializadas y de catálogos de casas de subastas Iberian Books recoge 45 000 impresos conservados en 215 000 ejemplares preservados en 1 800 colecciones de todo el mundo Estos volúmenes ofrecen una herramienta de investigación de gran utilidad para investigadores bibliotecarios libreros y coleccionistas Los dos volúmenes resultarán de enorme valor a todo aquel investigador interesado en la literatura la historia y la cultura de la Península Ibérica de la Edad Moderna Orígenes de la Novela Marcelino Menéndez y Pelayo,1915 Studies of the Spanish
