Nutritional Herbology Volume II Mark Pedersen, 1989 The Earthwise Herbal, Volume I Matthew Wood, 2011-07-05

The first part in a comprehensive two volume guide on the use of medicinal plants in Western herbal medicine from an author who has almost forty years of clinical experience The first in a two volume set The Earthwise Herbal profiles Old World plants volume two will treat American plants Organized alphabetically the book encompasses all the major and many of the secondary herbs of traditional and modern Western herbalism Author Matthew Wood describes characteristic symptoms and conditions in which each plant has proved useful in the clinic often illustrated with appropriate case histories He also takes a historical view based on his extensive study of ancient and traditional herbal literature Written in an easy engaging non technical style The Earthwise Herbal offers insight into the logic of the plant how it works in what areas of the body it works how it has been used in the past what its pharmacological constituents indicate about its use and how all these different factors hang together to produce a portrait of the plant as a whole entity Ideal for beginners serious students or advanced practitioners The Earthwise Herbal is also useful for homeopaths and flower essence practitioners as it bridges these fields in its treatment of herbal medicines

Alternative Healthcare Jack Raso, 2013-12-05 Raso examines the philosophical underpinnings of alternative medicine as well as hands on healing Qigong and faith healing He shows that whatever the specific philosophy the common denominator is a rejection of the scientific approach of modern medicine in favor of a belief in paranormal forces that influence the well being of mind and body The final section is a firsthand account of Raso s many revealing visits to various alternative healthcare practitioners The book concludes with an encyclopedic glossary of alternative healthcare terminology
