Velleman,Jim Orford,Abhijit Nadkarni,Marcela Tiburcio,2025-05-06 This Open Access book sheds new light on the wide range of Affected Family Members experiences At a conservative estimate there are at least 100 million adults across the globe who are affected by their relatives addiction problems These Affected Family Members AFMs experience multiple stresses coping dilemmas and a lack of information and support and are at heightened risk for ill health The results are very costly both from the personal and from the public services point of view The volume elaborates on the barriers to providing effective help including political neglect under representation in both policy and service delivery models the lack of involvement and encouragement from health and social care professionals the stigmatisation and bias as barriers to care and the range of evidence based interventions It also explores the similarities and differences of all of these areas depending on the type of addiction problem that the family is affected by alcohol illicit drugs gambling etc While covering the more commonly reported work in high income countries the contributions put strong emphasis on the experience of AFMs in low and middle income countries Given its truly global approach the book will be a key resource for practitioners policymakers and researchers alike Hope for Alcoholics, Addicts, Inmates (and Those Who Love Them) Gary L.,2012-12

When author Gary L began his recovery journey from alcoholism at age thirty one he was emotionally mentally and spiritually bankrupt and had been contemplating suicide for about a year He had everything to live for but was unable to see it Hopelessness and despair were dark clouds over his life Early one morning while in a drunken stupor he cried out to the God he d turned his back on at age ten Gary said later Early in recovery I discovered that God had never turned his back on me In Hope for Alcoholics Addicts Inmates and Those Who Love Them Gary through a series of letters to a prison inmate shares his story of recovery and a renewed relationship with God Gary s daily letters to Matt describe the journey out of the darkness into a life he never thought possible The writings interpret translate and synthesize the pain disillusion anger and rebellion of his own early life into a present tense testimony of praise glory and gratitude to God Hope for Alcoholics Addicts Inmates and Those Who Love Them discusses Gary's experience with the Twelve Steps of AA and how they have influenced his life. Accented with scriptural passages it shares discoveries he made about himself, God, and life. WHEATFIELD SOULS W

Mckittrick, 2024-12-17 In the 1960s small town chaos hits the Saskatchewan community of Adamsville when one of the fifteen year old tough guys suddenly vanishes and leaves a seventeen year mystery later taken on by an aggressive but corrupt detective. Two intelligent, bullied and fed up teenagers with a dying alcoholic for a mentor take control of the ills plaguing their age group in their community. Teenage boomers love and loyalty rule between the two victims of repeated verbal and sexual abuse. Every brand of crazy runs riots in the adult lives of Randy Johnsen, the farm boy with a destructive love of alcohol, and Brenda Croswell, the girl from across the tracks. Inspired by a collection of true events, the author hopes to offer a look into the often thought glorious post war years in the backcountry of nearly anywhere. Teens Under the Influence

Katherine Ketcham, Nicholas A. Pace, M.D., 2008-11-26 Across the United States in small towns and major cities in suburbs and slums in public and private schools, thousands of kids are experimenting with drugs. Many of them will become addicts, some will die. The first and only book to focus entirely on adolescent alcohol and other drug use, Teens Under the Influence addresses the immediate dangers that threaten these kids, exploring the short and long term effects of their addiction and giving parents solid, sensitive, practical advice to combat this growing epidemic. Knowledge is the key to defeating drug addictions, and that is what this comprehensive, timely new book provides. Full of candid, true stories from adolescent drug users, with facts based on the most recent scientific research, Teens Under the Influence tells you exactly what you need to know to deal with your child's problem, covering such important topics as: The common myths and misconceptions about drug addiction; The crucial differences between adult and adolescent dependency; The reasons kids get hooked; The stages of adolescent addiction; The different kinds of drugs kids use and combine; Various treatment options and how to choose the best treatment for your child; Strategies for handling relapses. Teens Under the Influence offers practical help that may save your child's life. It may save the life of a friend. And it may save your own. Not As Prescribed Harry Haroutunian, 2016-04-19

The leading clinical expert on substance misuse and abuse, Dr. Harry Haroutunian of the Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation provides caregivers and loved ones with vital information needed to understand and address addiction issues in older adults. Drug and alcohol problems are booming in older adults. Dramatic lifestyle changes along with growing health problems have led many to turn to alcohol, prescription painkillers, and marijuana to medicate their physical and psychological pain. You may think Dad is just enjoying cocktails and retirement, or Mom still has pain and needs her pills. Maybe so, but consider that an estimated 17 percent of people age sixty and older struggle with misuse of alcohol and prescription drugs alone. Older adults are now hospitalized as often for alcohol-related problems as they are for heart attacks. In this book, Dr. Haroutunian, physician director of the Professionals Program at the Betty Ford Center, provides you with the information needed to understand the dynamics of addiction in older adults. You'll learn to clearly distinguish between the signs of aging and the signs of addiction.
