Handbook of Curriculum Theory, Research, and Practice Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan Jagger, 2024-02-22 This Handbook paints a portrait of what the international field of curriculum entails in theory research and practice It represents the field accurately and comprehensively by preserving the individual voices of curriculum theorist researchers and practitioners in relation to the ideas rules and principles that have evolved out of the history of curriculum as theory research and practice dealing with specific and general issues Due to its approach to both specific and general curriculum issues the chapters in this volume vary with respect to scope Some engage the purposes and politics of schooling in general Others focus on particular topics such as evaluation the use of instructional objectives or curriculum integration They illustrate recurrent themes and historical antecedents and the curricular debates arising from and grounded in epistemological traditions Furthermore the issues raised in the handbook cut across a variety of subject areas and levels of education and how curricular research and practice have developed over time This includes the epistemological foundations of dominant ideas in the field around theory research and practice that have led to marginalization based on race class gender sexuality ethnicity age religion and ability The book argues that basic curriculum issues extend well beyond schooling to include the concerns of anyone interested in how people come to acquire the knowledge skills and values that they do in relation to subjectivity and experience

The Community of the Weak

Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Reflective Teaching In The Postmodern World Parker, Stuart, 1997-03-01 A well written and stimulating excursion into postmodern education Parker's challenge to critical educational theory can in the long run only help the left rethink and deepen its political project Peter McLaren University of California Los Angeles This is a book about two stories of education In one story there is a vocabulary of means efficiency bureaucracy inspection and science in the other one of autonomy democracy emancipation and action research One is the story of positivist managerialist approaches to education the other is the story of reflective teaching This book displaces both of these stories By applying the techniques of deconstruction Stuart Parker overturns the assumptions common to both of these positions and in doing so jettisons some widely cherished beliefs about education autonomy and rationality Moving beyond current debates this book articulates a new manifesto for education in postmodernity and highlights the implications for educational practices and institutions

Research on

Teacher Thinking James Calderhead, Christopher Day, Pam Denicolo, 2012 This is a companion volume to the editors Insights into Teachers Thinking and Practice Falmer Press 1999 and seeks to carry the discussion on further illustrating that there is a continuing intensity of thought activity and debate on how to conceptualise research on teacher thinking and thus generate knowledge for further understanding and action The ethical questions on undertaking research on the inner lives of teachers remain unresolved The international team present chapters which investigate the relationship between the researcher and the researched and the relevance and role of research in teacher development The papers are not presented as best practice for such definitions would be inevitably value laden Rather they are indications and anticipations of key areas for the development of understanding of teachers thinking and actions in the 1990s The Art of Shrinking Heads Dany-Robert Dufour,2008-02-11 After the hell of the Nazis and the terror of Communism it is possible that a new catastrophe has appeared on the horizon this time it is neoliberalism that wants to create its own new man Dufour shows that radical transformation of the subject brought about by neoliberalism contains a new kind of violence Multicultural Education Batra P.,2004-01-01 Postmodernism and Education Richard Edwards,Robin Usher,2002-11 This book shows the impact of postmodernism upon the theory and practice of education and how it challenges the existing concepts structures and hierarchies Foucault and the Critique of Institutions John Caputo,Mark Yount,2010-11-01 Transrational Resonances Josefina Echavarría Alvarez,Daniela Ingruber,Norbert Koppensteiner,2018-02-28 This book comprehensively gathers the current academic literature field expertise and artistic developments on Wolfgang Dietrich s Many Peaces theory in the ways it has been conceptualized and practiced by peace and conflict workers around the world Both scholars and practitioners challenge and creatively explore the field of transrational peace philosophy contributing their insights on elicitive methods and conflict mapping The book is further enriched by artistic perspectives on integrative approaches to theatre for living and intercultural soundscapes The articles collected here respond with innovative strength and vigor to the worldwide need for further research on peace and for practical approaches to conflict transformation This book therefore equally appeals to scholars peacebuilders and practitioners as well as artists engaged in conflict transformation Critical Multiculturalism Barry Kanpol,Peter McLaren,1995-02-28 This collection explores the way in which critical theory and practice can unite into a common vision of democratic hope While each author has his or her own specialty the thread of shared dreams is portrayed in a call for solidarity The separate viewpoints are drawn together to constitute a democratic platform for an enlightened critical education agenda From narrative to critical ethnography case studies explore the multicultural and power struggles of states districts and schools Intimately connected to all contributions in this collection is the commitment of each author to similarly share a common pregnancy of intention within a language of possibility

Teacher Education in England Tony Brown,2017-10-30 Models of teacher education in England have undergone major upheaval in recent years Teacher Education in England draws on the experiences of some of the people directly involved in these changes and explores the implications that they have had on their professional lives The book also explores the challenges faced by universities in responding to the ascendance of school led teacher training and the ways in which this impacts on conceptions of teacher education more generally in England and beyond Drawing on 150 interviews with teacher educators and trainees this book documents how the systemic changes to teacher education have been implemented and explores the impact of these changes on the people directly affected by them Presenting insider accounts the book shows that the structural adjustments have impacted on many dimensions of teacher education that had characterised university input and that they have also unsettled more familiar understandings of professional identity and staffing composition Demonstrating that the redistribution of teacher education across new apparatuses bolsters market forces whilst maintaining the option of creating new forms of training that transcend established boundaries Brown also explores the opportunities that are opened up by the new models Teacher Education in England is the first substantial study to focus on School Direct since its implementation in 2013 As such the book should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of teacher education and educational policy It should also be essential reading for teacher educators as well as teachers and trainee teachers

The Fear Problematique R. Michael Fisher, 2023-11-01 The author with over three decades of focused research on fear and fearlessness and 45 years as an emancipatory educator argues that philosophy and philosophy of education have missed several great opportunities to help bring about theoretical and meta perspectival clarity wisdom compassion and practical ways to the sphere of fear management education FME throughout history FME is not simple nor a luxury it is complex It s foundational to good curriculum but it requires careful philosophical critique This book embarks on a unique transdisciplinary understanding of The Fear Problematique and how it can be integrated as a pivotal contextual reference for assessing the best way to go in Education today and tomorrow Educational philosophy is examined and shown to have largely missed the boat in terms of responding critically and ethically to the insidious demand of having to truly educate ourselves when we are so scared stiff Such a state of growing chronic fear of morphing types of fear and a culture of fear ought to be central in shaping a philosophy of fear ism for education The book challenges all leaders but especially philosophers and educators to upgrade their own fear imaginary and fear education for the 21st century a century of terror likely to grow in the cascading global crises
