Poverty Ethnicity And Gender In Transitional Societies:

Poverty, Ethnicity, and Gender in Transitional Societies Iván Szelényi, 2002 Both the extent and the character of poverty in Eastern Europe appear to have changed with the transition from socialism to a market economy There has been not only a substantial increase in the proportion of the population living in extreme poverty but according to some commentators the actual character of poverty has changed as well The conventional wisdom among social scientists is that during socialism poverty was mainly a life cycle phenomenon Thus families with large numbers of young children the temporarily or permanently disabled and the elderly tended to be poor Today however social class ethnicity and or gender appear to play a more significant role than in the past in terms of predicting or explaining poverty The surveys are based on statistical data generated by surveys conducted in the six post communist countries of Bulgaria Hungary Poland Romania Russia and Slovakia during the fall of 1999 and the winter and spring of 2000 The research team included a Come Closer.

Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes

Social Policy in Central and Eastern Europe Alfio Cerami, 2006 By explaining the path of extrication from state socialism this book clarifies the patterns of the welfare state's transformation in Central and Eastern Europe It identifies the emergence of a peculiar Eastern European welfare regime through the fusion of pre communist communist and post communist features

Postcommunism from Within Jan Kubik, Amy Linch, 2013-08-26 While the decline of communism in the late twentieth century brought democracy political freedom and better economic prospects for many people it also produced massive social dislocation and engendered social problems that were far less pronounced under the old regimes The fall of state socialism led to enormously complex political economic social and cultural transformations and while political liberalization was a lofty goal it was neither uniform in its effects nor unqualified in its benefits Postcommunism from Within foregrounds the diversity of the historical experiences and current realities of people in the postcommunist region in examining how they are responding to these monumental changes at home The original essays in this volume lay out a bold new approach to research on the postcommunist region and to democratization studies more broadly that focuses on the social and cultural microprocesses behind political and economic transformation Thematic essays by eminent scholars of postcommunism from across the social sciences are supported by case studies to demonstrate the limitations of current democratization paradigms and suggest ways of building categories of research that more closely capture the role of vernacular knowledge in demanding creating and adapting to institutional change A novel approach to understanding one of the greatest political and social transformations in recent history Postcommunism from Within explores not just how citizens respond to political and economic restructuring engineered at the top but also how people enact their own visions of life politics and justice by responding to daily challenges

Local Organization of Social Services in Hungary Ferenc Bódi,Gergely Fabian,Thomas R. Lawson,2012-11 This book is the result of an international comparative research collaboration which launched the LOSS project nearly two decades ago The initiative goes in particular back to the Catholic University of Ingolstadt Bavaria Germany and the University of Louisville Kentucky United States of America The Project Local Organization of Social Services was established to build a bridge among different social cultures and social politics which exist in the United States of America Western Europe and the so called transition countries of Central and Eastern Europe The purpose of the editors is to look at the current Hungarian social and socio political situation and the transformations in order to inspire other research teams to create similar monographs about the LOSS in their own countries According to our hope more and more bilateral research collaborations are going to be launched in the near future For example between Finland and Hungary and Austria and Hungary etc These international comparative researches could form a bigger network in the Euro Atlantic region This book is an important step in the comprehensive process towards the international network This book seemingly does not follow strict editorial rules although there is an invisible logical line running through it and linking all chapters The intent of the authors each specialist in the subject areas of their chapter was to synthesize the social phenomena of the recent past Some contributions provide also a wider historical perspectives Essentially this book is a part of a mosaic which will be deciphered by subsequent work This is simply a compilation of the first studies and is to be followed with results of other collaborative research among the semi peripheral Northern and Eastern European countries in the next years

Poverty, Ethnicity, and Gender in Eastern Europe During the Market Transition Rebecca J. Emigh,Ivan Szelenyi,2001 Offers an overview of the extent and nature of poverty and its interaction with ethnicity and gender in five post communist societies

Landmark 1989 Heinrich Best,Agnieszka Wenninger,2010 The year 1989 marks an upheaval in Central and Eastern Europe and stands for a radical change in such spheres as society economy politics and culture in this region This volume presents a collection of articles and analyses exploring a broad range of aspects of post 1989 developments ranging from historical legacies and politics of history changing values and mentality old and new inequalities elites and European integration written by recognised social scientists from both Eastern and

Western Europe The chapters included in the volume present not only recent advances and findings but also state of the art of research and emerging trends and future challenges in the above mentioned areas Social Stratification in Chinese Societies

Kwok B. Chan, Chan Kwok-Bun, Agnes S. M. Ku, Chu Yin-Wah, 2009 The annual is a venue of publication for sociological studies of Chinese societies and the Chinese all over the world The main focus is on social transformations in Hong Kong Taiwan the mainland Singapore and Chinese overseas Wertfreies Forschen und wertrationales Handeln

Henrik Kreutz, 2003 Socialist Heritage Emanuela Grama, 2019-12-01 This prize winning study of post WWII Romania examines the fraught relationship between national heritage and Socialist statecraft In Socialist Heritage ethnographer and historian Emanuela Grama explores the socialist state s attempt to create its own heritage as well as the ongoing legacy of that project While many argue that the socialist regimes of Central and Eastern Europe aimed to erase the pre war history of the socialist cities Grama shows that the communist state in Romania sought to exploit the past for its own benefit The book traces the transformation of Bucharest s Old Town district from the early twentieth century into the twenty first Under socialism politicians and professionals used the district s historic buildings especially the ruins of a medieval palace to emphasize the city s Romanian past and erase its ethnically diverse history Since the collapse of socialism the cultural and economic value of the Old Town has become highly contested Its poor residents decry their semi decrepit homes while entrepreneurs see it as a source of easy money Such arguments point to recent negotiations about the meanings of class political participation and ethnic and economic belonging in today s Romania Grama s rich historical and ethnographic research reveals the fundamentally dual nature of heritage every search for an idealized past relies on strategies of differentiation that can lead to further marginalization and exclusion Winner of the 2020 Ed A Hewitt Book Prize Review of Sociology of the Hungarian Sociological Association, 2001 Gypsy Stigma and Exclusion in Turkey, 1970 G.

Ozatesler, Gül Özate?ler, 2014-01-22 Using an oral history approach this book draws on Gypsy and non Gypsy narratives to tell the story of Gypsy forced dislocation from Bayramic a northwestern town of Turkey in 1970 G l zatesler examines memory construction the categories of Gypsiness and Turkishness and the different perspectives and positions that emerged considering all in relation to underlying socioeconomic structure The book reveals how ethnic and other identities can be deployed to conceal socioeconomic and political inequalities Gender Inequality in the Eastern European Labour Market Giovanni Razzu, 2016-10-26 Under communism there was in the countries of Eastern Europe a high level of gender equality in the labour market particularly in terms of high participation rates by women The transition from communism has upset this situation with different impacts in the different countries This book presents a comprehensive overview of gender and the labour market since the fall of communism in a wide range of Eastern European countries Each country chapter describes the nature of inequality in the particular country and goes on to examine the factors responsible for this including government policies changing social attitudes levels of educational attainment and the impact of motherhood Overall the book provides an interesting comparison to the situation in Western developed countries outlining differences and similarities No one single Eastern European model emerges while as in Western developed countries a range of experiences and trends is the norm

The International Political Economy of Transition Stuart Shields,2014-10-03 This book explores the role played by state and multinationals in shaping transition It uniquely integrates issues of globalisation and transnationalism into the analysis of post communism This book will be of interest to students and researchers of transition postcommunism political economy and European politics

Understanding Inequalities Lucinda Platt,2017-04-21 Bringing together the latest empirical evidence with a discussion of sociological debates surrounding inequality this book explores a broad range of inequalities in people s lives As well as treating the core sociological topics of class ethnicity and gender it examines how inequalities are experienced across a variety of settings including education health geography and housing income and wealth and how they cumulate across the life course Richly illustrated with graphs and figures showing the extent of inequalities and the differences between social groups the book demonstrates how people s lives are structured by inequalities across multiple dimensions of their lives Throughout the text pays attention to how we know what we know about inequality what is measured and how what is left out of the picture and what implications this has for our understanding of specific inequalities Importantly the book also highlights the intersections between different sources or forms of inequality and the ways that bringing an intersectional lens to bear on topics can highlight and challenge the assumptions about how they operate Designed for second year undergraduates and above this book provides an engaging overview of social stratification and challenges readers to think about how inequalities are embedded across society

Media and Politics in Latin America Carolina Matos,2012-02-28 Latin America is an increasingly important geopolitical entity and its nations are emerging as some of the most influential and radical states in the modern world The media conglomerates which control the television and radio platforms in these countries such as the Globo organization in Brazil and the Mercurial S P A media corporation in Chile have great political influence across the region Here Carolina Matos contrasts public service broadcasting in Latin America to that in Europe and the UK engaging with current debates on globalisation and theories of cultural imperialism She examines the role public media has played in the processes of national development democratisation and international dialogue across South and Central America arguing that it can be a powerful tool for political and social inclusion This book will be essential reading for students and scholars of Media Politics and Cultural Studies as well as those with an interest in Latin American culture As key polities such as Brazil and Mexico begin to flex their economic and demographic muscle Media and Politics in Latin America is a timely examination of society and politics in the region

Hip Hop at Europe's Edge Milosz Miszczynski, Adriana Helbig, 2017-03-27. Essays examining the impact of hip hop music on pop culture and youth identity in post-Soviet Central and Eastern Europe. Responding to the development of a lively hip hop culture in Central and Eastern European countries, this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how a universal model of hip hop serves as a contextually situated platform of cultural exchange and becomes locally inflected. After the Soviet Union fell, hip hop became popular in urban environments in the region, but it has often been stigmatized as inauthentic due to an apparent lack of connection to African American historical roots and black identity. Originally strongly influenced by aesthetics from the United States, hip hop in Central and Eastern Europe has gradually developed unique local trajectories, a number of which are showcased in this volume. On the one hand, hip hop functions as a marker of Western cosmopolitanism and democratic ideology, but as the contributors show, it is also a malleable genre that has been infused with so much local identity that it has lost most of its previous associations with the West. In the experiences of local musicians, audiences, and producers, contextualizing hip hop through the prism of local experiences and regional musical expressions, these valuable case studies reveal the broad spectrum of its impact on popular culture and youth identity in the post-Soviet world. The volume represents a valuable and timely contribution to the study of popular culture in central and eastern Europe. Hip Hop at Europe's Edge will not only appeal to readers interested in contemporary popular culture in central and eastern Europe but also inspire future research on post-socialism's unique local adaptations of global cultural trends. The Soviet and Post-Soviet Review. The authors of this edited volume do not romanticize and heroize the genre by automatically equating it with political opposition, a fate often suffered by rock before. Instead, the book has to be given much credit for presenting a very nuanced picture of hip hop's entanglement or non entanglement for that matter with politics in this wide stretch of the world past and present The Russian Review Labour Relations in Development Alex Fernández Jilberto, Marieke Riethof, 2002-08-22 This timely and well written collection explores the impact of economic reforms in developing and transitional economies across the world In a first of its kind this book examines such issues as in depth cross regional analysis of the pressures for global integration labour costs and their determinants crucial factors in the success of econo
