P.O.W Camp 78, Zuffenhausen, Germany Melvin R. Bielawski, 2002 This book is both fiction and non fiction This book titled Suzanne Lantana is about a young full of life girl who has gone through many things that a pre teen would go through and which continue into her early teenager years The biggest situation is losing her aunt Arlene T Babakitis on September 11 2001 This book is a collection of short stories that have much meaning and various teachings for young girls Suzanne is a fun loving girl with a lot of heart mind and soul wanting nothing but good to be instilled in the world This is without neither pain nor hurt Suzanne has her own view points and her own unique mindset These are two qualities that make Suzanne very special There are other characters who play large roles within this book They are Suzanne s mother father brother grandmother and her two best friends named Sophie and Rachel who come in later on in this book Each story goes in order from her fifth grade year all the way to eighth grade where she graduates Each story carries a different learning situation and a different outlook on life both positive and negative but in the end positive wins Here s a little bit about Suzanne Lantana She is a girl who sticks up for herself and wants others to learn to do the same From having jealousy bestowed onto her to fights to rekindling friendships to losing loved ones to parties trips and so on it is all part of the growing process which Suzanne goes through She is a tough girl and with her faith family and friends she truly triumphs Within this book each story shows the bright light that Suzanne carries within herself With each thing that happens she learns to take it in slowly and enjoy every moment of it Suzanne is young and still learns many new things which is the beauty of life Suzanne remembers if any mistake happens to just relax take a deep breath and start all over No body is perfect learning is key The Corner Melvin R. Bielawski, 2008-12 THE CORNER provides an historical record of the life style of young men in what could be considered a typical neighborhood prior to and during the WW II period in America Toledo Ohio is the setting of this documentary The specific scene is the corner of Junction Avenue and Lucas Street located in a solid Polish American neighborhood The story could be written of many other neighborhoods and ethnic and racial groups throughout the United States It just so happens that the writer was a member of this particular group and neighborhood Dramatic changes have taken place since the time period addressed in THE CORNER WW II impacted the way of life of all Americans Ethnic and racial neighborhoods and groups are still located throughout the country but on a far less scale Nicknames a sign of popularity in most cases or of a special trait of the individual are not as common in today s society New and interesting developments have impacted the old meetings places and methods of communication amongst the young men throughout America Television new and interesting hobbies and diverse civic religious and other group organizations that provide meeting places and many other features that make for a more effective life style of American youth have replaced the old but unforgettable meetings on the local corners Unfortunately a part of American culture and history are lost for the ages THE CORNER captures a capsule of a part of American life during an era that has literally disappeared from the the American scene Diagnosis: Alzheimer's Melvin R. Bielawski, 2010-02-26 This is the story of two people Melvin and Frances who met while young fell in love and married They raised three sons enjoyed a loving warm and close family life They traveled extensively in Europe Canada and the United States They were blessed with good health and suffered only minor aches and pains during their middle and early senior years However Frances began to have memory problems almost concurrent with turning 80 years of age An early diagnosis by the family physician and a neurologist identified the symptoms as minor cognitive impairment MCI In subsequent years the diagnosis was changed to Alzheimers disease This is the story of the impact on Frances Melvin and the immediate family in dealing with this incurable disease The German War Nicholas Stargardt, 2015-10-13 A major new history of the Third Reich that explores the German psyche Germany 1945 Richard Bessel, 2012-09-27 In 1945 Germany experienced the greatest outburst of deadly violence that the world has ever seen Germany 1945 examines the country s emergence from the most terrible catastrophe in modern history When the Second World War ended millions had been murdered survivors had lost their families cities and towns had been reduced to rubble and were littered with corpses Yet people lived on and began rebuilding their lives in the most inauspicious of circumstances Bombing military casualties territorial loss economic collapse and the processes of denazification gave Germans a deep sense of their own victimhood which would become central to how they emerged from the trauma of total defeat turned their backs on the Third Reich and its crimes and focused on a transition to relative peace Germany s return to humanity and prosperity is the hinge on which Europe s twentieth century turned For years we have concentrated on how Europe slid into tyranny violence war and genocide this book describes how humanity began to get back out The Fort McClellan POW Camp Jack Shay, 2016-05-13 The POW Camp at Fort McClellan Alabama was one of hundreds of American containment centers built to hold the hundreds of thousands of German prisoners captured during World War II The camp s well maintained and humane facilities gained it a reputation as a model camp Military officials praised its elimination of major operational problems International inspectors commended it calling it one of the best camps in the country Prisoners accepted and even enjoyed their time there Drawing on official documents and recollections of prisoners soldiers and civilians this book provides a personal and detailed history of a widely praised and admired place of internment From Sea to Shore Tarry Bailey, 2003-11 P O W Camp 78 Zuffenhausen Germany may be the first book written about conditions in a prisoner of war camp managed and controlled by the United States Army following the end of World War II WW II Books have been written about the German P O W camps and the conditions and treatment by the Germans of their prisoners during the war The American P O W camps were managed and operated in dramatic contrast Who would believe that some of the prisoners in the American camps preferred to remain in the camps as prisoners rather than accepting their freedom But that in fact did occur in 1945 1946 The book describes the author s military experiences from his induction as a draftee into the United States Army in May 1945 his travels and assignment to the 633rd Medical Clearing Company located in Ludwigsburg

Germany plus his duties as the American in charge of the hospital in P O W Camp 78 The book details the living conditions of the prisoners in Camp 78 the author s interface with the Camp s German hospital staff and particularly the doctors The special mission organization and personnel of the 633rd Medical Clearing Company are also addressed The allied Armies had hundreds of thousands of war prisoners at the end of the hostilities in May 1945 The Americans shared the problems of housing logistics and the denazification of the prisoners with its major WW II allies the Russians British and French The Americans established numerous prisoner of war camps throughout its assigned military Zone of Occupation in Germany Many of these camps were located in the Stuttgart area of Germany In the spring of 1945 the 633rd Medical Clearing Company with its Headquarters in Ludwigsburg was assigned the responsibility for the oversight of the medical aspects within several P O W camps in the Stuttgart area This was a dramatic change in its war time mission As a result the Company experienced a radical change in the type of its personnel requirements The need for medically trained men was replaced with the requirement for administrative type individuals The Company also faced the problem of a shortage of qualified personnel to support its new mission This later problem was due in part to the rapid redeployment of the United States troops following the end of the war in Europe In order to assume its new roll the Company resorted to using enlisted men to function as the hospital administrators in the P O W Camps This strategy proved successful Camp 78 located in Zuffenhausen Germany a suburb of Stuttgart was unique in the sense that it was originally destined to house civilian prisoners accused of war crimes The majority of the internees would be Germans but there were other foreign nationals also imprisoned for war crimes This other group of war criminals albeit small in numbers consisted of persons from the German occupied countries in Eastern Europe who voluntarily relocated to Germany to take advantage of what they presumed to be a winning team Many of these civilians were placed in charge of workers consisting of other displaced persons DP s forcibly relocated to Germany from the German occupied countries and in some instances physically abused the workers Eventually Camp 78 received thousands of other prisoners including civilian members of the German wartime NAZI Government and various military members of the German armed forces This latter group consisted mainly of the normal Wehrmacht soldiers captured in battle or who surrendered to the allies concurrent with the unconditional surrender of Germany in May 1945 The conditions in the American P O W camps including Camp 78 were the equivalent of luxury in relation to the conditions outside of the Camps In May 1945 the G Subject Catalog, 1979 Library of Congress,1979 Concentration Camps in Nazi Germany Nikolaus Wachsmann,Jane Caplan,2009-12-04 Offers an overview of the scholarship that has changed the way the concentration camp system is studied over the years Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress,1978
