Reading Gertrude Stein Body Text Gnosis Reading Women Writing Ser:

Collecting Lives Elizabeth Rodrigues, 2022-05-16 On a near daily basis data is being used to narrate our lives Categorizing algorithms draw from amassed personal data to assign narrative destinies to individuals at crucial junctures simultaneously predicting and shaping the paths of our lives Data is commonly assumed to bring us closer to objectivity but the narrative paths these algorithms assign seem more often than not to replicate biases about who an individual is and could become While the social effects of such algorithmic logics seem new and newly urgent to consider Collecting Lives looks to the late nineteenth and early twentieth century US to provide an instructive prehistory to the underlying question of the relationship between data life and narrative Rodrigues contextualizes the application of data collection to human selfhood in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century US in order to uncover a modernist aesthetic of data that offers an alternative to the algorithmic logic pervading our sense of data s revelatory potential Examining the work of W E B Du Bois Henry Adams Gertrude Stein and Ida B Wells Barnett Rodrigues asks how each of these authors draw from their work in sociology history psychology and journalism to formulate a critical data aesthetic as they attempt to answer questions of identity around race gender and nation both in their research and their life writing These data driven modernists not only tell different life stories with data they tell life stories differently because of data Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1975

Artistic Outlaws Sonja Samberger, 2005 The creator of the new composition in the arts is an outlaw until he is a classic Gertrude Stein wrote in 1926 Unlike male modernists such as T S Eliot or Ezra Pound the modernist women poets Edith Sitwell Amy Lowell Stein and H D never became high modernist models but remained artistic outlaws The present study shows how these women were present on the modernist scene but followed their own concepts and struggled to establish their position as modernist women poets Defying definition the four poets not only richly contributed to modernism but were indeed its developers Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1990 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1993 The Writers Directory 2008 Michelle Kazensky, 2007-06 Features bibliographical biographical and contact information for living authors worldwide who have at least one English publication Entries include name pseudonyms addresses citizenship birth date specialization career information and a bibliography The Advocate ,2001-08-14 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States The Gertrude Stein First Reader & Three Plays.
