

Terrorism and Human Rights

Textbook: Chapters 10 and 11 | PLSC 439 Lecture: Mar 30

Human Rights:

- First Generation: Rights individuals have simply by being human beings
 - Ex. Life, freedom from physical harm, speech, assembly, press, religion, due process
 - Civil Liberties
- Second Generation: Material and economic rights that apply to entire society
 - Ex. Education, food, employment, shelter, health care
- Third Generation: Rights needed to protect minorities or unpopular groups from oppression of majority
- Importance to Terrorism:
 - French v. FLN (Algeria): Crackdown on FLN supporters and vene on ordinary Algerians, turned Algerian people against France, turned some French people against occupation
 - Kurds (Turkey): Imprisoned PKK activists and ordinary Kurds in a terrible prison, became known as the PKK University, turned ordinary Kurds into PKK supporters and fighters
 - Egypt: Assassination of Anwar Sadat following Camp David Accords, leading to mass arrests of assumed assassin associates and marshal law until 2011
 - 9/11 (United States): Some accusations that U.S. policy following 9/11 leads to human rights violations
 - Bush: Patriot Act (Relaxed restrictions on surveillance); Warrantless Wiretapping; Extreme Rendition and CIA Black Sites; Camp X-Ray at Guantanamo Bay; Bybee Memo on Interrogation (Description on legal barriers and point of entry for enhanced interrogation techniques against suspected terrorists- found so long as the person will not die, or experience failure of a major organ, it is legal)
 - Obama: Outlawed torture, provided retroactive immunity to interrogators; continued Patriot Act; did not close Guantanamo Bay; Used drones; engaged in targeted assassinations
 - Trump: Talked about returning to torture or enhanced interrogation techniques (stated that "torture works"); Talked about killing terrorist family members; Promoted Gina Haspell to Head of CIA (worked on black-sites) (controversial); Targeted assassination of al-Baghdadi (criticism of extrajudicial killing)
 - Biden: So far has issued an executive order to reduce the use of drones and reduce civilian casualties.

Report On Terrorism And Human Rights:

Report on Terrorism And Human Rights Brian Tittmore, Bernard Duhaime, 2002-07-31 The Inter American Comm on Human Rights supervises compliance with human rights protections in member states of the Org of Am States OAS that have faced terrorist threats This report compiled after the terrorist attacks that occurred in the U S on Sept 11 2001 is intended to assist member states of the OAS and other interested actors in the inter Am system in ensuring that anti terrorism initiatives comply fully with fundamental human rights and freedoms and thereby achieve one of the crucial components for a successful campaign against terrorist violence Sections Introduction Purpose and Context of the Report Terrorism in the Context of International Law and Methodology Legal Framework for Comm s Analysis Norms and Principles of International Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Applicable in Terrorism Situations and Recommendations Targeted Killing in International Law Nils Melzer, 2008-05-29 A comprehensive analysis into the lawfulness of state sponsored targeted killings under international human rights and humanitarian law this book examines treaties custom and general principles of law to determine the normative paradigms which govern the intentional use of lethal force against selected individuals in law enforcement and the conduct of hostilities It also addresses the relevance of the law of interstate force to targeted killings and the interrelation of the various normative frameworks which may simultaneously apply to operations involving the use of lethal force Through a comprehensive analysis of treaties custom and general principles of law in light of jurisprudence doctrine and travaux preparatoires the author demonstrates that contemporary international law provides two distinct normative paradigms which govern targeted killings in situations of law enforcement and the conduct of hostilities Based on the resulting normative paradigms the author shows in what circumstances targeted killings may be considered as internationally lawful The practical relevance of the various conditions and modalities are illustrated by reference to concrete examples of targeted killing from recent state practice The book argues that any targeted killing not directed against a legitimate military target remains subject to the law enforcement paradigm which imposes extensive restraints on the practice Even under the paradigm of hostilities no person can be lawfully liquidated without further considerations As a form of individualized or surgical warfare the method of targeted killing requires a microscopic interpretation of the law regulating the conduct of hostilities which leads to nuanced results reflecting the fundamental principles underlying international humanitarian law The author concludes by highlighting and comparing the main areas of concern arising with regard to state sponsored targeted killing under each normative paradigm and by placing the results of the analysis in the greater context of the rule of law The author has conceived and written this book in an entirely personal capacity and independently from his function as a Legal Adviser in the Legal Division of the ICRC The opinions expressed therein are his own and do not necessarily correspond to those held by the ICRC or its Legal Division Appointment of the Chair of the Equality and Human Rights Commission Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2012-10-18

Endorses appointment of Baroness O'Neill as chair of the Equality and Human Rights Commission

The Handbook of the International Law of Military Operations Terry D. Gill, Dieter Fleck, 2015-12-10 The second edition of this well received handbook provides a comprehensive overview and annotated commentary of those areas of international law most relevant to the planning and conduct of military operations It covers a wide scope of military operations ranging from operations conducted under UN Security Council mandate to collective self defence and consensual and humanitarian operations and identifies the relevant legal bases and applicable legal regimes governing the application of force and treatment of persons during such operations It also devotes attention to the law governing the status of forces military use of the sea and airspace and questions of international criminal responsibility for breaches of international law New developments such as cyber warfare and controversial aspects of law in relation to contemporary operations such as targeted killing of specific individuals are discussed and analysed alongside recent developments in more traditional types of operations such as peacekeeping and naval operations The book is aimed at policy officials commanders and their military legal advisors who are involved with the planning and conduct of any type of military operation and is intended to complement national and international policy and legal guidelines and assist in identifying and applying the law to ensure legitimacy and contribute to mission accomplishment It likewise fulfils a need in pertinent international organizations such as the UN NATO Regional Organizations and NGOs It also serves as a comprehensive work of reference to academics and is suitable for courses at military staff colleges academies and universities which devote attention to one or more aspects of international law treated in the book This mix of intended users is reflected in the contributors who include senior former policy officials and military legal advisors alongside academics engaged in teaching and research in these areas of international law

Report on Terrorism and Human Rights Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, Organization of American States, 2002 A Right to Life

Implementation of the Right of Disabled People to Independent Living Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2012-03 This report discusses the implementation of the right of disabled people to independent living in the context of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities UNCRPD which was ratified by the UK in 2009 It draws attention to a number of significant human rights issues including the need for freestanding legislation to protect the right to independent living in UK law the effect of current reforms to benefits and services on the ability of disabled people to enjoy independent living the role played by the UNCRPD in policy development and decision making at all levels of government the use of equality impact assessments the effects of devolution on implementation of the UNCRPD and hate crime The right to independent living does not exist as a freestanding right in UK law Although it is protected and promoted to some extent by a matrix of rights the Committee believes that this is not enough It argues that the Government and other interested parties should immediately assess the need for and feasibility of legislation to establish independent living as a freestanding right The Committee finds that reforms to benefits and services risk leaving disabled people without the support they need to live independently It also finds that the Government had not conducted an assessment of the cumulative impact of current reforms on disabled people This report urges them do so and to report on the extent to which these reforms are enabling them and local authorities to comply with their obligations under the UNCRPD International Terrorism: Legal Challenges and Responses. A Report by the International Bar Association's Task Force on Terrorism IBA,2021-11-15 As a response to recent global terrorist activities The International Bar Association IBA established a Task Force on International Terrorism which has examined the problems of modern terrorism from the perspective of the rule of law and international law and practice In its recent report reproduced here The Task Force analyses the impact of recent terrorist events on international law and the response by both individual states and the international community It explores areas of law which need to be further developed and promotes the fundamental values underpinning the international legal system The report suggests means by which the international community can co operate to deter prevent and bring to justice the perpetrators of terrorist acts Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

The Refugee in International Law Guy S. Goodwin-Gill,Jane McAdam,2007 Millions of people are forced to flee their homes as a result of various forms of persecution The instruments to secure international protection are the 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol This book examines challenges to the Convention Democratic Responses To Terrorism Leonard B. Weinberg,2007-12-30 In the public debate many observers have argued that there is a trade off between fighting terrorism and enhancing democracy implying that democratic governance and its practices are obstacles to confronting terrorism effectively The purpose of this volume is to show that the values and principles of democracy must not be seen as a hindrance but should rather be considered as essential components of a counter terrorist strategy With a foreword by Fernando Henrique Cardoso former president of Brazil the essays here assess the elements of a new response against terrorism such as the role of the legal framework human rights democracy and civil society as well as international cooperation Research Handbook on International Law and Terrorism Ben Saul,2020-04-24 This newly revised and updated second edition provides a comprehensive overview of international counter terrorism law and practice Brand new and revised chapters provide critical commentary on the law from leading scholars and practitioners in the field including new topics for this edition such as foreign terrorist fighters the nexus between organized crime and terrorism and the prevention of violent extremism
