Representations Of Revolution 1789 1820:

Representations of Revolution, 1789-1820 Ronald Paulson, 1983-01-01 The Rhetoric of Historical Representation Ann Rigney, 2003-02-13 The role which narrative discourse plays in the writing of history is an area of increasing interest to historians and literary theorists resulting in some of the most stimulating and controversial historiographical work in recent years The rhetoric of historical representation represents one of the first attempts to carry out a sustained textual analysis of historiographical practice Ann Rigney focusses on three celebrated nineteenth century histories of the French Revolution written by Alphonse de Lamartine Jules Michelet and Louis Blanc What distinguishes her account is the sensitivity and sophistication with which she handles the semiotic issues each text raises She shows how a greater understanding of the specific features of historical narration can be achieved through a comparative analysis of the different representations of a common event This fresh new perspective on a long standing historiographical debate brings into relief the ways in which the narrative medium can be used to invest events with one significance rather than another Hegel on the Modern World Hegel Society of America. Meeting, 1995-01-01 This book relates Hegel to later philosophers and philosophies Hating Empire Properly Sunil M. Agnani, 2013-05-09 In Hating Empire Properly Sunil Agnani produces a novel attempt to think the eighteenth century imagination of the West and East Indies together arguing that this is how contemporary thinkers Edmund Burke and Denis Diderot actually viewed them This concern with multiple geographical spaces is revealed to be a largely unacknowledged part of the matrix of Enlightenment thought in which eighteenth century European and American self conceptions evolved By focusing on colonial spaces of the Enlightenment especially India and Haiti he demonstrates how Burke's fearful view of the French Revolution the defining event of modernity as shaped by prior reflection on these other domains Exploring with sympathy the angry outbursts against injustice in the writings of Diderot he nonetheless challenges recent understandings of him as a univocal critic of empire by showing the persistence of a fantasy of consensual colonialism in his thought By looking at the impasses and limits in the thought of both radical and conservative writers Agnani asks what it means to critique empire properly Drawing his method from Theodor Adorno's quip that one must have tradition in oneself in order to hate it properly he proposes a critical inhabiting of dominant forms of reason as a way forward for the critique of both empire and Enlightenment Thus this volume makes important contributions to political theory history literary studies American studies and postcolonial studies The Female Romantics Caroline Franklin, 2012-09-10 Awarded the Elma Dangerfield Prize by the International Byron Society in 2013 The nineteenth century is sometimes seen as a lacuna between two literary periods In terms of women's writing however the era between the death of Mary Wollstonecraft and the 1860s feminist movement produced a coherent body of major works impelled by an ongoing dialogue between Enlightenment feminism and late Romanticism This study focuses on the dynamic interaction between Lord Byron and Madame de Staël Lady Morgan Mary Shelley and Jane Austen challenging previous critics segregation of the male Romantic writers from their female peers The Romantic movement in general unleashed the creative ambitions of nineteenth century female novelists and the public voice of Byron in particular engaged them in transnational issues of political national and sexual freedom Byronism had itself been shaped by the poet's incursion onto a literary scene where women readers were dominant and formidable intellectuals such as Madame de Staël were lionized Byron engaged in rivalrous dialogue with the novels of his female friends and contemporaries such as Caroline Lamb Mary Shelley and Jane Austen whose critiques of Romantic egotism helped prompt his own self parody in Don Juan Later Victorian novelists such as George Sand the Brontë sisters and Harriet Beecher Stowe wove their rejection of their childhood attraction to Byronism and their dawning awareness of the significance for women of Lady Byron's actions into the feminist fabric of their art

Revolutionary Imaginings in the 1790s A. Garnai, 2009-10-09 Revolutionary Imaginings in the 1790s discusses the work of three prominent women writers by focusing on the response to the French Revolution and the struggle for reform in Britain Examining previously neglected texts as well as more familiar ones the book contributes to our understanding of a period of intense political and literary engagement

Visualizing the Nation Joan B. Landes, 2018-08-06 Popular images of women were everywhere in revolutionary France Although women's political participation was curtailed female allegories of liberty justice and the republic played a crucial role in the passage from old regime to modern society In her lavishly illustrated and gracefully written book Joan B Landes explores this paradox within the workings of revolutionary visual culture and traces the interaction between pictorial and textual political arguments Landes highlights the widespread circulation of images of the female body notwithstanding the political leadership's suspicions of the dangers of feminine influence and the seductions of visual imagery The use of caricatures and allegories contributed to the destruction of the masculinized images of hierarchic absolutism and to forging new roles for men and women in both the intimate and public arenas Landes tells the fascinating story of how the depiction of the nation as a desirable female body worked to eroticize patriotism and to bind male subjects to the nation state Despite their political subordination women too were invited to identify with the project of nationalism Recent views of the French Revolution have emphasized linguistic concerns in contrast Landes stresses the role of visual cognition in fashioning ideas of nationalism and citizenship Her book demonstrates as well that the image is often a site of contestation as individual viewers may respond to it in unexpected even subversive ways

Voicing America Christopher Looby, 1996 Voicing America should find an appreciative audience not only among those interested in the study of language in America but also among early Americanists in general literary critics and historians and political scientists and philosophers interested in theories of nationalism

Rebel Daughters Sara E. Melzer, Leslie W. Rabine, 1992-05-21 This interdisciplinary collection of essays examines the important and paradoxical relation between women and the French Revolution Although the male leaders of the Revolution depended on the women's active militant participation they denied to women the rights they helped to establish At the same time that women were banned from the political sphere woman was transformed into an allegorical figure which became the very symbol of masculine Liberty and Equality This volume analyzes how the revolutionary process constructed a new gender system at the foundation of modern liberal culture

Representation, Heterodoxy, and Aesthetics Ashley Marshall, 2014-12-23 The chapters constituting this book are different in subject and method striking testimony to the range of Paulson's interests and the versatility of his critical powers In his prolific career he has produced extensive analysis of art poetry fiction and aesthetics produced in England between 1650 and 1830 Paulson's unique contribution has to do with his understanding of seeing and reading as closely related enterprises and popular forms in art and literature as intimately connected connections illustrated by literary critics and art historians here Every essay shares some of the concerns and methods that characterize Paulson's wonderfully idiosyncratic thought except for the final essay an attempt systematically to analyze Paulson's critical principles and methods Recurrent themes are a concern with satire in the eighteenth century a connection between verbal and visual reading an insistence on the importance of individual artistic choices to the history of culture an attention to the aims and motives of individual makers of art and a sensitivity to the crucial links between high and low art This volume offers rich explorations of a range of subjects Swift's relationship to Congreve Zoffany's condemnation of Gillray and Hogarth and broader implications for the role of art in public discourse the presentation of mourning in the work of the Welsh artist and writer Edward Pugh G M Woodward's Coffee House Characters representing a turn from satire on morals towards satire on manners Adam Smith's evolving aesthetic program Samuel Richardson's notions of social reading The discussions represent a variety of exemplifications of the Paulsonesque showing a concern with satiric representation in mixed media with different forms of heterodoxy and iconoclasm and with the values of producers of popular and polite culture in this period
