Republic Of Night:

The Republic of Night Dominic Martell, 2014-07-01 Pascual Rose the terrorist courier turned deep cover informant introduced in Dominic Martell's acclaimed international thriller Lying Crying Dying returns in this masterfully executed continually unpredictable relentlessly suspenseful new adventure From the outset when an overfriendly total stranger accosts the down and out Pascual in the shadowy nave of the Santa Maria del Mar cathedral Pascual wants no part of anything he has to offer Nonetheless 100 000 and the threat of exposure lure Pascual from portside Barcelona where he has been hiding from his terrorist past to the banking precincts of Paris where he again confronts it Hired by French intelligence to finger a one time comrade turned global terrorism entrepreneur Pascual finds himself hurled into Algerian factional warfare and charmed by an earnest Algerian journalist who weds her destiny to his She gets more than a story however as she follows Pascual into a perilous world where your closest ally may be a traitor and the enemy your lifeline where bullets are common currency and nothing can be taken at face value Least certain of all to the increasingly beleaguered Pascual is the identity of the real heavyweights He knows only that beyond Algerian death squads beyond the long arm of the Russian conglomerate Mirakl beyond French security agents and the Swiss police operates a faceless cadre that acknowledges no borders and honors no bonds

Night of the Republic Alan Shapiro, 2018-06-01 Poetry about places from a supermarket to a strip club to a suburban home from a poet who seeks what lies at the deepest level of the human heart Chicago Tribune In Night of the Republic Alan Shapiro takes us on an unsettling night tour of America's public places a gas station restroom shoe store convention hall and race track among others and in stark Edward Hopper like imagery reveals the surreal and dreamlike features of these familiar but empty night spaces Shapiro finds in them not the expected alienation but rather an odd companionable solitude rising up from the quiet emptiness In other poems Shapiro writes movingly of his 1950s and 60s childhood in Brookline Massachusetts with special focus on the house he grew up in These meditations always inflected with Shapiro's quick wit and humor lead to recollections of tragic and haunting events such as the Cuban missile crisis and the assassination of JFK While Night of the Republic is Shapiro's most ambitious work to date it is also his most timely and urgent for the acute way it illuminates the mingling of private obsessions with public space His poems are both artful and unpretentious Boston Review

Flags of the Night Sky André G. Bordeleau, 2013-10-22 Many national flags display astronomical features Sun Moon stars but are they really based on existing astronomical objects The United States flag sports 50 stars one for each state however none of them are linked to real stars Further the lunar crescent is often shaped like the Sun being eclipsed by the Moon At times stars are seen right next to the crescent where the darkened disc of the moon should be This book will present true astronomical objects and patterns highlighted on national flags and link informative capsules about these objects to the political reasons why they were chosen to adorn such an important symbol
