Requiem Mass And Office For The Dead:

Image and the Office of the Dead in Late Medieval Europe Sarah Schell, 2025-10-01 Image and the Office of the Dead in Late Medieval Europe explores the Office of the Dead as a site of interaction between text image and experience in the culture of commemoration that thrived in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries The Office of the Dead was a familiar liturgical ritual and its perceived importance and utility are evident in its regular inclusion in devotional compilations which crossed the boundaries between lay and religious readers The Office was present in all medieval deaths as a focus for private contemplation a site of public performance a reassuring ritual and a voice for the bereaved Examining the images at the Office of the Dead and related written visual and material evidence this book explores the relationship of these images to the text in which they are embedded and to the broader experiences of and aspirations for death

The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser, 1961 Singing the Resurrection Erin M. Lambert, 2018 Singing the Resurrection brings music to the foreground of Reformation studies as author Erin Lambert explores song as a primary mode for the expression of belief among ordinary Europeans in the sixteenth century for the embodiment of individual piety and the creation of new communities of belief Together resurrection and song reveal how sixteenth century Christians from learned theologians to ordinary artisans and Anabaptist martyrs to Reformed Christians facing exile defined belief not merely as an assertion or affirmation but as a continuous living practice Thus these voices raised in song tell a story of the Reformation that reaches far beyond the transformation from one community of faith to many With case studies drawn from each of the major confessions of the Reformation Lutheran Anabaptist Reformed and Catholic Singing the Resurrection reveals sixteenth century belief in its full complexity Memorial to Very Rev. Laurence Smyth [who] Died November 7, 1900 John E. Dunn, 1900 The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices
