Rereading Of The Renewed Liturgy:

A Rereading of the Renewed Liturgy Adrien Nocent, 1994 Assesses what has been accomplished in reforming the liturgy since the promulgation of the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and what should be done to continue that process The author welcomes with gratitude the work of the Council and offers his suggestions in a positive spirit of constructive reappraisal free of negativity and of any desire to change for change s sake The questions raised and suggestions made include a call for greater variety and choice in the readings and prayers the restoration of the sacrament of the Eucharist as the culminating experience of Christian initiation and not before Confirmation a prolonged mystagogy of the confirmed and a reexamination of the sacrament of Reconciliation The author calls for a new degree of strictness in what the Church expects of those who are to receive a sacrament in terms of commitment and practice Looking At the Liturgy Aidan Nichols, 2011-04-13 Nichols assesses the liturgical reform from the three converging viewpoints of a historian sociologist and cultural critic pinpointing areas that need to be addressed Catholic Theology Facing the Future Dermot A. Lane, 2003 Here is a collection of vibrant essays from a conference at St Michael s College in Vermont that reflects on the past present and future of Catholic theology Contributors include the leading names in scripture and moral and systematic theology Dermot Lane on the foundational roles of anthropology imagination and memory in the performance of Christian theology Alice Laffey on the past and present developments in biblical scholarship Raymond Collins on the ecumenical progress over the last forty years in the study of the New Testament Michael J Fahey on trends in systematic theology since 1965 Philip S Keane on the accomplishments and challenges facing moral theology Kevin Irwin on the Christocentric character of liturgical and sacramental theology Beyond the Prosaic Stratford Caldecott, 1998-01-01 The 1996 conference of the Centre for Faith Culture in Oxford and the associated Oxford Declaration on Liturgy included in this volume gave a voice to calls for the reform of the reform This book forms a point of reference and a resource for those who are concerned about the need to recover a sense of the sacred in Catholic Liturgy Liturgy as Revelation Philip Caldwell, 2014-12-01 A critical issue in modern Catholic theology has been the relationship between the doctrine of revelation and the church s liturgical and sacramental practice This volume argues that although in the twentieth century Catholic theology increasingly recognized the centrality of Christology particularly the person of Christ as the locus of revelation and drew out the crucial implications of Christ as the revelation of God it was slow to connect this revelatory dynamic with the encounter that occurs within the sacramental space of the liturgy most notably the Eucharist Taking the decline of the neoscholastic enterprise in Catholic theology and the challenges posed by modernism as his point of departure Philip Caldwell traces the evolution of the Catholic theology of revelation in the twentieth century and the vital role played by the liturgical and sacramental renewal movements in reimagining this pivotal theological category Examining the specific contributions of Ren Latourelle Avery Dulles Salvatore Marsilli and Gustave Martelet against a background of pre conciliar ressourcement theology this volume provides a comprehensive account of why a Trinitarian and Christological construal of liturgy and sacraments as revelation is key to the vision that informed Vatican II and offers constructive theological and ecclesial possibilities for the future Pastoral Music, 1998

A Living Tradition Christian McConnell, 2012-10-01 Maxwell Johnson has made multiple contributions to our understanding of liturgical history and liturgical theology This volume honors his work by offering a set of important essays by respected scholars that bridge the distance between scholarship and praxis to be accessible and relevant to both pastoral ministers and academic theologians It is organized according to three categories liturgical year Christian initiation and Eucharist Within these categories the contributors are especially attentive to three important aspects of liturgical history the role that important figures in liturgical history played as liturgical pastors how liturgical history has been used in shaping contemporary liturgical rites and prayers how liturgical history informs contemporary understandings and beliefs Ultimately the book pays tribute to Johnson's contributions to the life of the church by exploring ways that the study of liturgical history might help the church remain faithful to God and to the sacramental worldview that continues to define and characterize classic Christianity Contributors include Stefanos Alexopoulos Paul F Bradshaw Michael Daniel Findikyan Ruth Langer Lizette Larson Miller Christian McConnell Anne McGowan David A Pitt Walter D Ray Nicholas V Russo Bryan D Spinks Robert F Taft SJ Jeffrey A Truscott Gabriele Winkler
