A Dutch Castaway on Ascension Island in 1725 Alex Ritsema, 2010-09-13 On 5 May 1725 a Dutch ship s officer Leendert Hasenbosch was set ashore on the desert island of Ascension in the South Atlantic Ocean as a punishment for sodomy He tried to survive on turtles and birds but found very little water on the barren island He wrote a diary He probably died after about half a year In January 1726 British mariners found his tent diary and other things and brought the diary to England In 1726 a first English version of the diary of the Dutch castaway was published Other versions followed in 1728 1730 and 1976 Who was the castaway The truth was disclosed by the Dutch historian Michiel Koolbergen 1953 2002 in a posthumously published book in Dutch With the support of Michiel Koolbergen s family and publisher this new book discloses the truth in English This book is the second edition with some improvements compared to the original edition of 2006 This book is illustrated with line drawings both historic ones and by the Dutch artist Anneke de Vries Saints for All Seasons John J. Delaney, 2012-04-11 The purpose of this book is to call your attention to twenty men and women whose lives can provide inspiration and examples for those trying to follow Christ today as best they can They are real flesh and blood people human beings with the same weaknesses we all possess as human beings but with an inner strength and purposefulness that can serve as examples to us in the daily struggle that is life today Making Martyrs East and West Cathy Caridi, 2016-03-14 In Making Martyrs East and West Cathy Caridi examines how the practice of canonization developed in the West and in Russia focusing on procedural elements that became established requirements for someone to be recognized as a saint and a martyr Caridi investigates whether the components of the canonization process now regarded as necessary by the Catholic Church are fundamentally equivalent to those of the Russian Orthodox Church and vice versa while exploring the possibility that the churches use the same terminology and processes but in fundamentally different ways that preclude the acceptance of one church's saints by the other Making Martyrs East and West will appeal to scholars of religion and church history as well as ecumenists liturgists canonists and those interested in East West ecumenical efforts

The Leaven of the Saints Dawn Marie Beutner, 2023-03-20 The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till it was all leavened Matthew 13 33 How can we be part of the kingdom of heaven here and now and spread it to others like leaven causing a lump of dough to rise and expand Just look at the lives of the saints Over the past two millennia the Church has recognized thousands of men and women who have loved and imitated Christ so wholeheartedly that they transformed the world around them as they were transformed themselves The saints have come from every background people and era They have been rich and poor healthy and sick single and married members of the clergy and of the laity The Leaven of the Saints groups them according to the kind of Christian witness they have given the world as martyrs Fathers and Doctors of the Church priests and religious popes and bishops national heroes founders of religious orders married persons and more The vastness of this work reveals an important truth that each saint is a unique individual with a unique mission to grow in the knowledge and love of Christ and to make him better known and loved in the world Saints Herald , 1886 Rebels no Saints: or, a collection of the Speeches, Private Passages, Letters, and Prayers of those persons lately executed, viz.
