Modern Skeletons In Postmodern Closets A Cultural Studies Alternative:

Modern Skeletons in Postmodern Closets James J. Sosnoski, 1995 Modern Skeletons takes us on a lively trip from the New Criticism to cyberspace For James Sosnoski literary criticism is always a reading of cultures and becomes indeed a form of culture building critics as storytellers not as scientists Introducing Cultural and Media Studies Tony Thwaites, Lloyd Davis, Warwick Mules, 2018-08-18 This core textbook offers a concise direct and easy to use introduction to how semiotics can be employed to understand culture It adopts a practical and versatile approach to cultural analysis beginning not with an abstract body of theory but with a number of examples of social sign use which are examined critically using basic semiotic terms and concepts to build up the reader's analytic vocabulary in a practical way This book is designed to be read in several ways First of all it offers a structured approach to its subject with successive chapters reconsidering and building upon issues raised in earlier chapters The layout of the text supports alternative pathways through the material however Written principally with the undergraduate student reader in mind this is the essential research tool for students and lecturers It is the ideal international starting point for a very wide range of courses both in cultural and media studies and related subjects such as film studies literature and sociology (Con)Fusing Signs and Postmodern Positions Robert Neustadt, 2012-06-12 Foregrounding a strategy of experimental techniques which Neustadt call con fusing signs the book explores critical and political dimensions of contemporary Spanish American artistic practices that are often explained away in the vague name of postmodern fragmentation Con Fusing Signs explores the techniques consequences and purposes for this type of fragmentation This study reassesses the much discussed crisis of representation through an analysis of the complexity of political critique in areas as diverse and related as postmodernity military dictatorship and postcolonialism This book explores the manner in which multimedia artists Diamela Eltit Alejandro Jodorowsky and Guillermo Gmez Pea articulate political critiques through textual con fusion while paradoxically underscoring their inability to get outside of discourse

Knowledge Economy, Development and the Future of Higher Education Michael A. Peters, 2007-01-01 Prophetically almost thirty years ago Jean-François Lyotard forecast the end of the modern research university based on Enlightenment principles He envisaged the emergence of technical institutes in the service of the information rich global multinationals This book reflects on the post-war Western university and its discourses charting the crisis of the concept of the modern university First it examines the university within a global networked economy second it adopts poststructuralist perspectives in epistemology politics and ethics to appraise the role of the contemporary university third it introduces the notion of development in a critical fashion as a way of explaining its potentially new regional and international learning roles fourth it analyzes the rise of global science and the disciplines in the context of the global economy and finally it raises Lyotard's logic of performativity and the assessment of research quality within a neoliberal economy linking it firmly to the question of freedom and the republic of science Small Tech Byron Hawk, David M. Rhetoric and Writing Studies in the New Century Cheryl Glenn, Roxanne Mountford, 2017-07-17 This collection of essays investigates the historiography of rhetoric global perspectives on rhetoric and the teaching of writing and rhetoric offering diverse viewpoints Addressing four major areas of research in rhetoric and writing studies contributors consider authorship and audience discuss the context and material conditions in which students compose cover the politics of the field and the value of a rhetorical education and reflect on contemporary trends in canon diversification Providing both retrospective and prospective assessments Rhetoric and Writing Studies in the New Century offers original research by important figures in the field

Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers, Tenured Bosses and Disposable Teachers Writing Instruction in the Managed University exposes the poor working conditions of contingent composition faculty and explores practical alternatives to the unfair labor practices that are all too common on campuses today Editors Marc Bousquet Tony Scott and Leo Parascondola bring together diverse perspectives from pragmatism to historical materialism to provide a perceptive and engaging examination of the nature extent and economics of the managed labor problem in composition instruction a field in which as much as ninety three percent of all classes are taught by graduate students adjuncts and other disposable teachers These instructors enjoy few benefits meager wages little or no participation in departmental governance and none of the rewards and protections that encourage innovation and research And it is from this disenfranchised position that literacy workers are expected to provide some of the core instruction in nearly everyone's higher education experience Twenty six contributors explore a range of real world solutions to managerial domination of the composition workplace from traditional academic unionism to ensemble movement activism and the pragmatic rhetoric accommodations and resistances practiced by teachers in their daily lives Contributors are Leann Bertoncini Marc Bousquet Christopher Carter Christopher Ferry David Downing Amanda Godley Robin Truth Goodman Bill Hendricks Walter Jacobsohn Ruth Kiefson Paul Lauter Donald Lazere Eric Marshall Randy Martin Richard Ohmann Leo Parascondola Steve Parks Gary Rhoades Eileen Schell Tony Scott William Thelin Jennifer Seibel Trainor Donna Strickland William Vaughn Ray Watkins and Katherine Wills

Situating Composition Ede, Lisa, 2004 Responding to a growing pedagogical paralysis in debates over the nature and status of composition studies as an academic discipline Lisa Ede offers a provocative inquiry into the politics of composition's place in the academy The result is a timely and engaging reflection on the rhetoric ideology and ethics of scholarship and instruction in composition studies today

The Institution of Literature Jeffrey J. Williams, Professor of English and of Literary and Cultural Studies Jeffrey J Williams, 2002-01-01 Leading voices in literary and cultural studies examine the study of literature at the college level including the fate of theory the rise of cultural studies the academic star system and the difficult job market

The Knowledge Contract David B. Downing, 2005-01-01 The Knowledge Contract intervenes in the ongoing debates about the changing conditions of higher education in America with a special focus on English studies and the humanities This highly original study integrates three crucial concerns the economic restructuring of higher education the transformation of disciplinary models of teaching and research and the rise of the academic labor movement Whereas most contemporary critiques of higher education have focused on the impact of global economic forces The Knowledge Contract adds a new dimension to the discussion by addressing the tensions between disciplinary and nondisciplinary forms of academic work David B Downing draws on several traditions of scholarship histories of the university sociological studies of education critiques of disciplinary and interdisciplinary forms of work histories of academic capitalism and the labor movement and field specific analyses of the history of English studies Building on his analysis Downing develops alternative possibilities to the dominance of disciplinary forms of labor and offers scenarios for creating more equitable working and learning conditions for faculty and students

Under the Cover of Kindness Leslie Margolin, 1997 In Under the Cover of Kindness Leslie Margolin looks at how this country's social welfare system developed and with what results From his detailed examination of social work texts primarily case histories he argues persuasively that social work disguises its own assumptions and claims to power as a way of further legitimizing its actions By attending to these case histories Margolin shows how social work entails not only the intrusion into the previously private space of the home but also the constant justification of this intervention to both clients and workers themselves as representing charitable and disinterested help This book critically assesses how social workers invent themselves as they simultaneously invent their field of knowledge

Disciplining English David R.
