The Mountain and the Politics of Representation Jenny Hall, Martin Hall, 2023-11-01 The stories we tell published or otherwise condition our mountain experiences in practice and reinforce cultural memory and representation Yet as this book and the authors within it set out to demonstrate if we look beyond the boundaries of this singular white history there is a rich diversity of stories to tell This volume contributes to a growing body of scholarship that calls for a heterogeneity of voices in mountain memoir genres For the first time this diverse scholarship interrogates how mountaineering literary and media culture impact bodies spaces and places in order to nuance how commodification intersects across social categories and is embodied in multi dimensional ways In this volume we explore a burgeoning tradition of mountaineering literature of cinema and of memoir to appreciate difference beyond the habitual heroic white male adventurer that dominates screens and bookshelves Through exploring multidimensional axes of social differentiation from gender race class and age to disability and sexuality the book will demonstrate how commodification is embodied through representation in mountaineering literature media film and memoir in mountaineering spaces Amongst our aims this book intends to understand how multiple social dimensions overlap and work to produce independent systems of exclusion and inclusion that focus on untraditional ways to be a mountaineer Escape from Lucania David Roberts, 2010-05-11 In 1937 Mount Lucania was the highest unclimbed peak in North America Located deep within the Saint Elias mountain range which straddles the border of Alaska and the Yukon and surrounded by glacial peaks Lucania was all but inaccessible The leader of one failed expedition deemed it impregnable But in that year a pair of daring young climbers would attempt a first ascent not knowing that their quest would turn into a perilous struggle for survival Escape from Lucania is their remarkable story Classmates and fellow members of the Harvard Mountaineering Club Brad Washburn and Bob Bates were two talented young men handsome intelligent and filled with a zest for exploring Both were ambitious climbers part of a small group whose first ascents in the great mountain ranges during the 1930s and 1940s changed the face of American mountaineering Setting their sights on submitting Lucania in the summer of 1937 Washburn and Bates put together a team of four climbers for the expedition But when Bates and Washburn flew to the Walsh Glacier at the foot of Lucania they discovered that freakish weather conditions had turned the ice to slush Their pilot was barely able to take off again alone and there was no question of returning with the other two climbers or more supplies Washburn and Bates found themselves marooned on the glacier more than a hundred miles from help in forbidding and desolate territory Eschewing a trek out to the nearest mining town eighty miles away by air they decided to press ahead with their expedition Escape from Lucania recounts Washburn and Bates's determined drive toward Lucania's 17 150 foot summit under constant threat of avalanches blinding snowstorms and hidden crevasses Against awesome odds they became the first to set foot on Lucania's peak not realizing that their greatest challenge still lay beyond Nearly a month after being stranded on the glacier and with their supplies running dangerously low they would have to navigate their way out through uncharted Yukon territory racing against time as the summer warmth caused rivers to swell and flood to unfordable depths But even as their situation grew more and more desperate they refused to give up Escape from Lucania tells this amazing story in thrilling and vivid detail from the climbers exultation at reaching the summit to their darkest moments confronting seemingly insurmountable obstacles It is a tale of awesome adventure and harrowing danger But above all it is the story of two men of extraordinary spirit inspiring comradeship and great courage Today Washburn and Bates now in their nineties are legends in climbing circles Bates co led 1938 and 1953 expeditions to K2 the world's second highest mountain Washburn whose record of Alaskan first ascents is unmatched became founding director of Boston's Museum of Science and is one of the premier mountain photographers in the world Some of his remarkable images from the 1937 Lucania expedition are included in this book
