The Twilight Zone is among the most beloved shows in American television history a pioneering fantasy behemoth that bridged the cultural gap between the 1950s and 1960s with thought provoking mystery mind boggling theorems and occasionally outright horror The Twilight Zone FAQ takes the reader back to that halcyon era looking back on the show and its impact as a force for societal change via reflections on the manifold topics and controversies that the show took on from the space race to the Red Menace from paranoia to madness and beyond Dave Thompson traces the history of the show from its earliest flowering in the mind of then unknown Rod Serling through its slow birth shaky beginning and breathless five season run and he shows how it became the blueprint for so much of the fantasy television that has followed Chapters deal with the comic books novels and many other spin offs including the movie the TV revamps and even the amusement park ride In addition this FAQ offers a full guide to every episode providing details on the cast and music and pinpointing both the best and the worst of the series all adding up to a brightly opinionated time machine that catapults the reader back to the true golden age of American television Pioneers of "B" Television Richard Irvin, 2022-11-11

As television grew more enticing for both viewers and filmmakers in the 1950s several independent film producers with knowledge of making low cost films and radio shows transferred their skills to producing shows for the small screen Rather than funding live programs that were popular at the time these producers saw the value in pre-taped shows which created large financial returns through episode reruns This low cost high yield production model resulted in what are known and beloved as B television shows Part historical account and part filmography this book documents the careers of over a dozen B television producers It chronicles the rise of situation comedies and crime dramas and explores the minds behind popular shows like My Little Margie The Lone Ranger Lassie Highway Patrol and Sea Hunt Divided into 14 chapters of producer profiles this work is rich in both trivia and critical assessments of the first years of television A chapter detailing the work of early female television producers rounds out the text

Here We Go Again Betty White, 2010-10-12 A memoir of Betty White's first five decades on television as irreverent and irresistible as the beloved actress herself filled with inspiring cheerfulness The New York Times Betty White first appeared on television in 1949 and went on to have one of the most amazing careers in TV history starring in shows such as The Mary Tyler Moore Show and The Golden Girls among many others She was one of the hardest working actresses of any era and her sense of humor and perennial optimism carried her through decades of industry changes and delighted millions of fans Here We Go Again is a behind the scenes look at Betty's career from her start on radio to her first show Hollywood on Television to several iterations of The Betty White Show and much much more Packed with wonderful anecdotes about famous personalities and friendships stories of Betty's off screen life and the comedienne's trademark humor this deliciously entertaining book will give readers an entr e into Betty's fascinating life confirming yet again why this funny lady was one of the most memorable and beloved actresses of all time

Wolves Ramfis S. Firethorn, 2003-05-02 Telling Lies About the Wolves is a collection of fourteen short stories by Mason Powell some of them previously unpublished most previously uncollected Those who know the work of Mason Powell primarily from his intense and often frightening novel The Brig may be surprised at this collection of his early literary tales While they primarily deal with Gay characters their insights about the human condition reach across the boundaries by which humanity too frequently catagorizes itself into us and them and reveal eternal truths some of them not very pretty but nonetheless true such as are at the heart of all good fiction There are homoerotic moments to be sure but they are handled with a restraint and delicacy which one might not expect from this author The great surprise of this collection is the variety of the stories Next to cynicism there is sentiment Next to the grimly realistic there is the heroic which usually emerges in us ordinary mortals only in the most extraordinary circumstances In some places the author achieves a kind of mystical bond with the reader which can be downright alarming And there is humor sometimes subtle sometimes slapstick never a thing one associates with a writer most famed for erotica The short story as a form has been out of favor for a while With the shortened attention span of the average person these days and art of all kinds coming in bytes rather than banquets it might very well be that the time for a revival of short reading has come If so Mr Powell's collection comes at a most welcome juncture If you have never read any fiction about Gay people this might be a good place to start If you have and your tastes are sharpened you may find this a feast of many courses Olin T Fredegard
