Not So Fast Songololo:

Not So Fast, Songololo, 1986 Malusi's granny takes him shopping in the city and the trip turns out to be very special

Not So Fast, Songololo Niki Daly, 1998-04-01 In South Africa a young black boy shares a special day with his grandmother when they go into the city on a shopping trip Reading Globally, K-8 Barbara A. Lehman, Evelyn B. Freeman, Patricia L. Scharer, 2010-09-20 In Reading Globally K-8 the authors make the case for why it is necessary to be globally literate and multiculturally aware in today's shrinking world and they provide the tools teachers need to incorporate appropriate reading selections into primary and secondary school classrooms By using books from or about other countries teachers empower students to view the world in a more positive manner enriching and broadening their students' lives and ultimately preparing them for life in a global economy and culture This reader-friendly resource guides teachers and reading programme coordinators in selecting quality books for their classrooms incorporating global literature into different content areas and facilitating the discussions that follow Practical guidance is provided on how to integrate the reading of global texts across the curriculum with specific application to language arts social studies science maths and the arts Locate and evaluate the authenticity and literary merit of potential books avoiding those that depict stereotypes Get started with an annotated list of children's books samples of student work and classroom vignettes from teachers A to Zoo Rebecca L.

Story Hour

Jeri Kladder,2003-07-10 Story time at the public library is the first exposure to books outside the home for many preschool children For the librarian it is an exciting opportunity to instill in youngsters a love of reading and books But coming up with new ideas that hold the children s attention can be trying Until now Here are 55 tried and true story hour programs with a thematic approach All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs barnyard animals the Caldecott Medal colors families a storytelling feast the five senses reptiles and amphibians and around the world There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs All story hours provide ideas for name tags suggested audiovisual materials recommended story poetry and song selections additional titles and a full description of the activity Kindergarten Grade Social Science Terri Raymond,2014-07-14 Over 50 discussion questions and activities and 50 quiz questions fill this comprehensive social science book The book covers the following topics Important People in American History Geography Economics Civics Government Personal Local Civics American Government Symbols American History Holidays If you are homeschooling or if you are just trying to get extra practice for your child then you already know that social science workbooks and curriculum can be expensive Homeschool Brew is trying to change that We have teamed with teachers and parents to create books for prices parents can afford We believe education shouldn't be expensive Creating Books for the Young in the New South Africa Barbara A. Lehman,Jay Heale,Anne Hill,2014-10-08 This collection of essays analyzes the work of 29 authors and illustrators South African children's and youth literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children's books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children's literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices The Growth of African Literature African Literature Association. Meeting,1998 This collection of papers results from the 15th annual meeting of the African Literature Association which was held in Dakar Senegal and was the first such meeting to be held in Africa Topics covered include approaches and literary theory language and history thematic analysis and literature in the African Diaspora Practical Ideas for Multi-cultural Learning and Teaching in the Primary Classroom Ruth Hessari,Dave Hill,2017-07-20 Originally published in 1989 The practical application of multicultural education to the British elementary school classroom is discussed The first part explores the historical development of multicultural education considering sex and class inequality and local and national educational practices and makes suggestions for improvement Part two suggests practical ideas for explicit and hidden curricula Seven themes for ethnically diverse topics are suggested and for each area teacher aims and pupil objectives are defined and potential resources are listed Five areas of aspects of social and personal development in a multicultural context are then explored Includes a foreword by Lord Swann Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse,Kathleen T. Horning,1991 Annotated bibliographies arranged by type or theme with age levels National Character in South African English Children's Literature Elwyn Jenkins,2006 This is the first full length study of South African English youth literature to cover the entire period of its publication from the late nineteenth century to the early twenty first century What gives this book particular strength is its coverage of literature up to the 1960s which has until now received almost no scholarly attention Not only is this earlier literature a rewarding subject for study in itself but it also throws light on subsequent literary developments Jenkins also makes comparisons with American Canadian and Australian children's literature This book is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand children's literature in the context of adult South African literature and South African cultural history BOOK JACKET Instructional Models in Reading Steven A.

Stahl, David A. Hayes, 2013-04-03 This book started with a simple idea examine models of reading instruction that have emerged during the past 20 years These models span a wide range of instruction representing a continuum from highly structured task analytic instruction to child centered and holistic instruction Each model has its own epistemology or views on how reading and instruction are to be defined The different epistemologies indicate different principles of instruction which in turn indicate different practices in the classroom Each model is also supported by a different research base In this volume leading proponents of these different models discuss their ideas about reading instruction thereby encouraging readers to make their own comparisons and contrasts The chapter authors seem to adopt the editors eclectic approach to some greater or lesser extent incorporating aspects of other models into their instruction as they see other goals Thus models of reading instruction are complex Complicating matters further is the fact that teachers hold their own models of reading which may or may not be congruent with those discussed here Although academically developed models influence college preservice and in service instruction teachers own models of reading filter the information that they take from what they learn from these perspectives By carefully examining these variables this book makes a firm contribution toward disciplined inquiry into what it means to teach reading Pretty Salma Niki Daly, 2007 In this version of Little Red Riding Hood set in Ghana a young girl fails to heed Granny's warning about the dangers of talking to strangers

Children's Book Prizes Ruth Allen, 2019-01-22 First published in 1998 this book is the first comprehensive survey of the awards made to children's books in the English speaking world The Volume covers nearly forty different prizes including well known and established ones such as the Newbery Award prizes instigated by the commercial sector such as the Smarties Prize as well as nationally sponsored awards and prizes for illustrators Detailed lists are provided of the winning titles and where appropriate the runners up in each year that the award has been given Ruth Allen also presents some fascinating and often entertaining insights into the motivations behind awards and how they are viewed by authors illustrators publishers librarians booksellers and potential purchasers The various criteria applied by judges of these awards are also examined with an assessment of whether they have always achieved the right result This Volume is both a useful guide for adults wishing to buy good books for children and an important tool for those researching the history of the children's book industry Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas, 1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than 1 600 titles including fiction folktales poetry and song books that focus on diverse cultural groups The selected titles published between the 1970s and 1990s are suitable for use with preschoolers through sixth graders and are likely to be found on the shelves of school and public libraries Topics are timely with an emphasis on books that reflect the needs and interests of today's children Each detailed entry includes bibliographic information Use level is also included as are cultural designation subjects and a summary The invaluable Subject Access section incorporates use level culture information

Our Global Village - Africa Nancy Klepper,1992-09-01 Bring the world a little closer with these multicultural books An excellent way for students to appreciate and learn cultural diversity in an exciting hands on format Each book explores the history language holidays festivals customs legends foods creative arts lifestyles and games of the title country A creative alternative to student research reports and a time saver for teachers since the activities and resource material are contained in one book

Multicultural Literature for Children and Young Adults Ginny Moore Kruse,Kathleen T.
