Notes From The Underground The Grand:

Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000      Doubling the Point J. M. Coetzee, 1992 Nadine Gordimer has written of J M Coetzee that his vision goes to the nerve centre of being What he finds there is more than most people will ever know about themselves and he conveys it with a brilliant writer's mastery of tension and elegance Doubling the Point takes the reader to the center of that vision These essays and interviews documenting Coetzee's longtime engagement with his own culture and with modern culture in general constitute a literary autobiography      Hegel's Century Jon Stewart, 2021-10-28 The remarkable lectures that Hegel gave in Berlin in the 1820s generated an exciting intellectual atmosphere which lasted for decades From the 1830s many students flocked to Berlin to study with people who had studied with Hegel and both his original students such as Feuerbach and Bauer and later arrivals including Kierkegaard Engels Bakunin and Marx evolved into leading nineteenth century thinkers Jon Stewart's panoramic study of Hegel's deep influence upon the nineteenth century in turn reveals what that century contributed to the wider history of philosophy It shows how Hegel's notions of alienation and recognition became the central motifs for the era's thinking how these concepts spilled over into other fields like religion politics literature and drama and how they created a cultural phenomenon so rich and pervasive that it can truly be called Hegel's century This book is required reading for historians of ideas as well as of philosophy

Genres in Discourse Tzvetan Todorov, 1990-08-31 A translation of recent essays by the eminent literary critic Tzvetan Todorov      Realism and Naturalism Richard Daniel Lehan, 2005 In this intellectual and literary history of American British and Continental novels of realism and naturalism from 1850 to 1950 Richard Lehan argues that literary naturalism is a narrative mode that creates its own reality Employing this strategy allows and encourages intertextuality one novel talking or responding to another      The Translator in the Text Rachel May, 1994-11-23 What does it mean to read one nation's literature in another language The considerable popularity of Russian literature in the English speaking world rests almost entirely upon translations In The Translator and the Text Rachel May analyzes Russian literature in English translation seeing it less as a substitute for the original works than as a subset of English literature with its own cultural stylistic and narrative traditions      The City in Literature Richard Lehan, 2023-09-01 This sweeping literary encounter with the Western idea of the city moves from the early novel in England to the apocalyptic cityscapes of Thomas Pynchon Along the way Richard Lehan gathers a rich entourage that includes Daniel Defoe Charles Dickens Emile Zola Bram Stoker Rider Haggard Joseph Conrad James Joyce Theodore Dreiser F Scott Fitzgerald and Raymond Chandler The European city is read against the decline of feudalism and the rise of empire and totalitarianism the American city against the phenomenon of the wilderness the frontier and the rise of the megalopolis and the decentered discontinuous city that followed Throughout this book Lehan pursues a dialectic of order and disorder of cities seeking to impose their presence on the surrounding chaos Rooted in Enlightenment yearnings for reason his journey goes from east to west from Europe to America In the United States the movement is also westward and terminates in Los Angeles a kind of land's end of the imagination in Lehan's words. He charts a narrative continuum full of constructs that represent a cycle of hope and despair of historical optimism and pessimism. Lehan presents sharply etched portrayals of the correlation between rationalism and capitalism of the rise of the city, the decline of the landed estate and the formation of the gothic and of the emergence of the city and the appearance of other genres such as detective narrative and fantasy literature. He also mines disciplines such as urban studies, architecture, economics and philosophy, uncovering material that makes his study a lively read not only for those interested in literature but for anyone intrigued by the meanings and mysteries of urban life. This sweeping literary encounter with the Western idea of the city moves from the early novel in England to the apocalyptic cityscapes of Thomas Pynchon. Along the way, Richard Lehan gathers a rich entourage that includes Daniel Defoe, Charles Dickens, Em. Remembering The End P. Travis Kroeker, 2018-03-08. Dostoevsky was one of those writers of the nineteenth century who came to be regarded by many readers in the following century as a prophet. How does he remain prophetic for us now in the early twenty-first century? Remembering the End explores and assesses Dostoevsky's critique of modernity with particular focus on the Grand Inquisitor in The Brothers Karamazov where his prophetic vision finds its most intense expression. The authors write to elucidate the spiritual realism of Dostoevsky's biblically charged literary art and to show how it can help us to remember who we are in this modern/postmodern moment in which as individuals and members of communities we are required to make critical choices about the meaning of justice, history, truth and happiness. The book will be of interest to readers in comparative literature, ethics, political theory, philosophy, religious studies and theology. God and Soul Care Eric L. Johnson, 2017-09-05. Christianity at its heart is a therapeutic faith. In this companion to Foundations for Soul Care Eric L. Johnson presents a systematic account of Christianity as divine therapy. A groundbreaking achievement in the synthesis of theology and psychology, this is an indispensable resource for students, scholars, pastors and clinicians. Dostoevsky Joseph Frank, 2009-10-19. A magnificent one-volume abridgement of one of the greatest literary biographies of our time. Joseph Frank's award-winning five-volume Dostoevsky is widely recognized as the best biography of the writer in any language and one of the greatest literary biographies of the past half-century. Now Frank's monumental 2,500-page work has been skillfully abridged and condensed in this single, highly readable volume with a new preface by the author. Carefully preserving the original work's acclaimed narrative style and combination of biography, intellectual history and literary criticism, Dostoevsky: A Writer in His Time illuminates the writer's works from his first novel Poor Folk to Crime and Punishment and The Brothers Karamazov by setting them in their personal, historical and above all ideological context. More than a biography in the usual sense, this is a cultural history of nineteenth-century Russia, providing both a rich picture of the world in which Dostoevsky lived and a major reinterpretation of his life and work.
