H. Melhem, 2007-04-19 These two novels complete D H Melhem s trilogy Patrimones that began with Blight Stigma a dark political satire and The Cave a post nuclear fantasy confront the crucial issue facing this generation what kind of world will be our legacy Unsettling and sometimes terrifying both novels center on ideological paradoxes created by a military industrial government pitted against American individualist politics Stigma offers a vision of civil unrest unemployment and a chronic state of war Books are recycled as toilet paper Families are conscripted by lottery for the honor of war work Selected adults serve in a bizarre bomb factory Youths are inducted into military service children relegated to orphanages Scathing yet awash in dark humor Stigma relates one family s struggle to survive in and escape a system of perversity and horror The Cave describes a motley group of people who flee to an abandoned cave seeking shelter from a nuclear attack Inside viciousness cowardice and heroic gestures ironically transform their lives into a war Tensions between family relations and newly formed alliances communal needs and individual desires religious beliefs and stark reality move toward a cataclysmic finale in which one man retrieves a sign of faith Sparsely poetic simple in tone but rich in allusion Melhem s writing in The Cave as in Stigma and in Blight beckons readers to lift themselves out of their own lived reality to look at the strange and threatening clouds on the not so distant horizon
