

An exhibition on the theme of humans and the environment

The artwork was developed from the inspiration humans gained from their surroundings.

Therefore, artists derived their inspirations from different aspects that they found interest in.

among the things that inspired most of the artists include the natural world, culture, religion, and politics. The natural world was among the oldest inspiration to the artists. the earth is considered as a running threat that has linked together, prehistoric artwork such as cave painting to 20th-century artwork. In the current era, the natural environment has been affected greatly by various factors such as wildfires, rising waters in the oceans, and collapsing of the entire ecosystem. This has influenced contemporary artists to become climactic activists to protect one of their oldest sources of inspiration for their work. They have been using the artwork as a platform to create awareness of a more sustainable future. Hence the following artworks will demonstrate how humans are concerned with the protection of the natural environment.
