Burrell, 2016-02-04 The dual purpose of this book is to point out the ways whereby reflective religious thinkers work and to suggest how these skills can be acquired It is a manual of apprenticeship in acquiring religious understanding The thought of Augustine Anselm Aquinas Kierkegaard and Jung on selected religious topics is developed expressly to show how each handled these issues and thus to provide living exemplars for religious understanding The issues have an inherent unity in their dealing with man's knowledge of God especially in their concern with the ways we treat what must be beyond our grasp Augustine travels a journey of progressive awareness As one scheme of understanding after another cannot offer an explanation so it ends in confession From his life we learn how to discriminate our action from God's while discerning God's action in ours In the case of Anselm and Aquinas the goal was to speak of divine things accurately enough to avoid misunderstanding yet without giving a false impression that we have made clear what the divinity really is Kierkegaard and Jung aim to clarify our experience of the transcendent But this experience is expressed in a language whose success in removing the roadblocks to faith and understanding can be evaluated

The Aesthetic Dimension of the Mind Lia Pistiner de Cortinas,2018-03-28 In this magisterial work the author almost encyclopaedically reviews all of Bion's works and does so from the perspective vertex of the aesthetic dimension She scans virtually all the essential elements of Bion's contributions and then details them at length giving unusual clarifications as she does so This work constitutes an outstanding piece of Bion scholarship and interpretation One comes away from it with a deep appreciation for the authors dreaming of Bion's work and for the light she has shined on many of Bion's more recondite themes James Grotstein MD Professor of Psychiatry UCLA School of Medicine from his Preface
