Face to Face Allan Vorda, 1993 Just as writers of fiction offer new and interesting ways of looking at the world the literary interview has evolved into an integral part of the process by providing a bridge not only between the author and the reader but between the fictional work and subsequent critical analysis In Face to Face Allen Vorda offers the reader and in depth look into the creative process of nine contemporary novelists Interviews with such diverse writers as Robert Stone Kazuo Ishiguro and Marilynne Robinson cover not only the authors work but also why they became writers their writing habits and opinions about other writers books Face To Face will appeal to readers of contemporary fiction as well as to literary critics and scholars

Eleven Canadian Novelists Interviewed by Graeme Gibson Graeme Gibson, 2014-08-15 Originally published in 1970 Eleven Canadian Novelists Interviewed by Graeme Gibson is a collection of candid and wide ranging interviews with Canadian writers including Alice Munro Mordecai Richler Margaret Laurence and more With the intuition of an insider Gibson asks the important questions In what way is writing important to you Do writers know something special Does he or she have any responsibility to society The result is a fascinating and immensely readable series of conversations with famed writers at the beginning of their careers The A List edition will feature a new introduction by Graeme Gibson and interviews with the following authors Margaret Atwood Austin Clarke Matt Cohen Marian Engel Timothy Findley Dave Godfrey Margaret Laurence Jack Ludwig Alice Munro Mordecai Richler Scott Symons

Performing the Literary Interview John Rodden, 2001-01-01 When authors are interviewed about their books or themselves much more is going on than a simple conversation The interview becomes a performance space for authorial orchestration and self promotion and interviewers in turn respond to such self display and theatrics Featuring absorbing conversations with nine well known authors including poets Richard Howard and Gerald Stern novelist Isabel Allende and scholar intellectual Camille Paglia Performing the Literary Interview is the first in depth look at this type of performance art

Interviews with poets fiction writers and intellectuals enable John Rodden to identify a range of rhetorical strategies and their effects and to formulate a typology for appreciating the various roles that interviewers and interviewees assume Traditionalists foreground their work rather than themselves raconteurs are storytellers who skillfully spin anecdotes and creatively showcase their personalities and advertisers more explicitly use the literary interview to promote and sell themselves This pioneering persuasive study stakes a claim to a new area of scholarly inquiry in the humanities The literary interview can no longer be considered only as a voyeuristic window on an author or a celebrity vehicle or even an entertaining diversion but should also be approached as a serious genre meriting scholarly attention and analysis
