Nowhere Nowhere Land:

Nowhere Nowhere Land Tim Albritton, Brian Laura, 2005 Nowhere Land Katherine Applegate, 2001-12 Since landing on this place far from home the Remnants have thought their new surroundings too strange to be true Now a freak discovery proves what they thought was a planet is really a ship and their environment is a computer generated facade When they destroy the computer's power node they discover that their real surroundings are the strangest of all Nowhere land, 2008 Nowhere Land Katherine Applegate, 2002 The Remnants a group of people who survived the destruction of Earth are nearly destroyed by their ship's computer system Nowhere Land David L. Marsden, 2009-06 NoWhere Land Marylee A. Kelly, 2002-11 This is a tale of the quest of young Peter Mcfall whose life has been upset by the recent move of his family to a new home His father helps him build a tree house which he names The Utopia Den He finds unexpected adventure there as well as some unusual friends a Praying Mantis and a Ladybug With them he travels magically to NoWhere Land His quest is to stop a stubborn Draconis from frightening the Citizens and taking over the Castle of Hamaso King of this land As he travels from his world to another he discovers strange new people new responsibilities and an appreciation for his own family With the use of magic and good thinking he comes face to face with Draconis He must stop him but how His is a delightful journey Join him Nowhere Land Stolen, 2012 Series of colour photographs from Facebook Not supported by text Nowhere Land Pamela K. Kinney, 2025-10-07 People vanish at Nowhere Land When a team of investigators from Richmond Virginia vanishes leaving only a single finger and their gear behind the tragedy is big news in the paranormal community and beyond It's in the newspapers and on television People start asking questions Ben Nielson a paranormal investigator himself and a friend to those disappeared convinces the reluctant owner of Nowhere Land now called Burkett to let his team conduct one final investigation Parker Burkett knows that something evil is on his land and bows to the pressure exerted by Ben to allow his team to investigate the caveat being he needs to be there too Neri Phelan a psychic medium doesn't want to participate at first her fiancé was on the first team that vanished But when her spirit guide disappears and an evil presence makes itself known to her threatens her she realizes she has no choice Is it a ghost A demon Or something even more sinister And can this team stop it for good Uses open dyslexic font Global Guyana Oneka LaBennett, 2024-04-16 Shortlisted 2025 OCM Bocas Prize for Caribbean Literature Nonfiction Exposes the global threat of environmental catastrophe and the forms of erasure that structure Caribbean women's lives in the overlooked nation of Guyana Previously ranked among the hemisphere's poorest countries Guyana is becoming a global leader in per capita oil production a shift which promises to profoundly transform the nation This sea change presents a unique opportunity to dissect both the environmental impacts of modern world resource extraction and the obscured yet damaging ways in which intersectional race and gender formations circumscribe Caribbean women's lives Drawing from archival research and oral history and examining mass mediated flashpoints across the African and Indian diasporas including Rihanna's sonic routes ethnic conflict reportage HBO's Lovecraft Country and Netflix's Indian Matchmaking Global Guyana repositions this marginalized nation as a nexus of social and economic activity which drives popular culture and ideas about sexuality while reshaping the geopolitical and literal topography of the Caribbean region Oneka LaBennett employs the powerful analytic of the pointer broom to disentangle the symbiotic relationship between Guyanese women's gendered labor and global racial capitalism She illuminates how both oil extraction and sand export are implicated in a well established practice of pillaging the Caribbean's natural resources while masking the ecological consequences that disproportionately affect women and children Global Guyana uncovers how ecological erosion and gendered violence are entrenched in extractive industries emanating from this often effaced but pivotal country Sounding the alarm on the portentous repercussions that ambitious development spells out for the nation's people and its geographical terrain LaBennett issues a warning for all of us about the looming threat of global environmental calamity

What Should I Believe? Dorothy Rowe, 2012-05-23 Suddenly in the twenty first century religion has become a political power It affects us all whether we're religious or not If we're not in danger of being blown up by a suicide bomber we've got leaders to whom God speaks ordering them to start a war We're beset by people who demand that we give ourselves to Jesus while they smugly assure us of their own superiority and inherent goodness We're surrounded by those who noisily reject science while making full use of the benefits science brings by the spiritual ones the ones who believe in magic and there's the militant atheists berating us all for our stupidity We wouldn't object to what people believed if only they'd keep it to themselves We want to make up our own minds about what we believe but it's difficult to do this Everyone has to face the dilemma that we all die but no one knows for certain what death actually is Is it the end of our identity or a doorway to another life Whichever we choose our choice is a fantasy that determines the purpose of our life If death is the end of our identity we have to make this life satisfactory whatever satisfactory might mean to us If it is a doorway to another life what are the standards we have to reach to go to that better life All religions promise to overcome death but there's no set of religious or philosophical beliefs that ensures that our life is always happy and secure Moreover for many of us what we were taught about a religion severely diminished our self confidence and left us with a constant debilitating feeling of guilt and shame Through all this turmoil comes the calm clear voice of eminent psychologist Dorothy Rowe She separates the political from the personal the power seeking from the compassionate She shows how if we use our beliefs as a defence against our feelings of worthlessness we feel compelled to force our beliefs on to other people by coercion or aggression However it is possible to create a set of beliefs expressed in the religious or philosophical metaphors most meaningful to us which allow us to live at peace with ourselves and other people to feel strong in ourselves without having to remain a child forever dependent on some supernatural power and to face life with courage and optimism
