Huma Ahmed-Ghosh

Nowhere To Turn:

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, 1874 Contesting Feminisms Huma Ahmed-Ghosh, 2015-09-08 Contesting Feminisms explores how Asian Muslim women make decisions on appropriating Islam and Islamic lifestyles through their own participation in the faith The contributors highlight the fact that secularism has provided the space for some women to reclaim their religious identity and their own feminisms Through compelling case studies and theoretical discussions this volume challenges mainstream Western and national feminisms that presume homogeneity of Muslim women's lives to provide a deeper understanding of the multiple realities of feminism in Muslim communities Growing Apart: Religious Reflection on the Rise of Economic Inequality Kate Ward, Kenneth Himes, 2019-01-24 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Growing Apart: Religious Reflection on the Rise of Economic Inequality that was published in Religions The Story of Valentine and His Brother. [A Novel.] Mrs. Oliphant (Margaret), 1875 Handbook of Global Urban Health Igor Vojnovic, Amber Pearson, Gershim Asiki, Geoff DeVerteuil, Adriana Allen, 2019-05-09 Through interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives and with an emphasis on exploring patterns as well as distinct and unique conditions across the globe this collection examines advanced and cutting edge theoretical and methodological approaches to the study of the health of urban populations Despite the growing interest in global urban health there are limited resources available that provide an extensive and advanced exploration into the health of urban populations in a transnational context This volume offers a high quality and comprehensive examination of global urban health issues by leading urban health scholars from around the world The book brings together a multi disciplinary perspective on urban health with chapter contributions emphasizing disciplines in the social sciences construction sciences and medical sciences The co editors of the collection come from a number of different disciplinary backgrounds that have been at the forefront of urban health research including public health epidemiology geography city planning and urban design The book is intended to be a reference in global urban health for research libraries and faculty collections It will also be appropriate as a text for university class adoption in upper division under graduate courses and above The proposed volume is extensive and offers enough breadth and depth to enable it to be used for courses emphasizing a U S or wider Western perspective as well as courses on urban health emphasizing a global context Marxism and Education beyond Identity F. Agostinone-Wilson, 2010-10-11 This book seeks to revive dialectical materialist interpretations of sexuality relevant to K 12 settings and society Issues addressed include sexuality and the curriculum theories of the family critiques of postmodernism socialist feminism and activist tactics strategies for organizing in K 12 settings Practicing Islam David W. Montgomery, 2016-11-23 David W Montgomery presents a rich ethnographic study on the practice and meaning of Islamic life in Kyrgyzstan As he shows becoming and being a Muslim are based on knowledge acquired from the surrounding environment enabled through the practice of doing Through these acts Islam is imbued in both the individual and the community To Montgomery religious practice and lived experience combine to create an ideological space that is shaped by events opportunities and potentialities that form the context from which knowing emerges This acquired knowledge further frames social navigation and political negotiation Through his years of on the ground research Montgomery assembles both an anthropology of knowledge and an anthropology of Islam demonstrating how individuals make sense of and draw meanings from their environments He reveals subtle individual interpretations of the religion and how people seek to define themselves and their lives as good within their communities and under Islam Based on numerous in depth interviews bolstered by extensive survey and data collection Montgomery offers the most thorough English language study to date of Islam in post Soviet Kyrgyzstan His work provides a broad view into the cognitive processes of Central Asian populations that will serve students researchers and policymakers alike An Intimate Rebuke Laura S. Grillo,2018-12-07 In this ethnography of female empowerment Laura S Grillo offers new perspectives on how elder West African women deploy an ancient ritual in which they dance naked and slap their genitals and bare breasts to protest abuses of state power globalization witchcraft rape and other social dangers The Value of English in Global Mobility and Higher Education Manuela Vida-Mannl,2021-12-16 This book offers a unique insight into the dynamics of the English language in higher education in Cyprus through the lens of universities situated on both sides of its geopolitical division It takes an original perspective on value in the context of the sociolinguistics and political economy of English as a global language and as an apparent commodified entity The problematic issues of value as they apply to language are dealt with from Marxist and Bourdieusean perspectives The book also offers a helpful critique of the claims of alternative paradigms of English expansion such as ELF and their shortcomings in respect of the concept of value Manuela Vida Mannl puts forth a critique of the marketization of English and the complicity of higher education in the reproduction of linguistic hierarchies and social inequalities in Cyprus and by implication more generally She presents a conception of English as a marketable attribute that does not necessarily require competence which points to the ongoing imbrication of English in the reproduction of global structural and social inequality as it exposes the myth of class advancement through English Building on an extensive study based on 205 questionnaires and 25 subsequent in depth ethnographic interviews and by focusing on the value of English within the unique context of divided Cyprus this book uncovers an intriguing perspective on the neoliberal role and significance of the English language in our globalized world Journalism and Safety Oscar Westlund,Roy Krøvel,Kristin Skare Orgeret,2024-06-03 This volume presents key international research on journalism and safety with a focus on conceptual global and transnational approaches as well as conflict challenges and consequences for democracy It offers an overview of the latest research and ongoing developments in the field of journalism and safety and speaks to the ways in which digital developments have worsened the risks surrounding journalists with online harassments security breaches surveillance and so forth challenging their safety like never before The first of two volumes this book comprises a handpicked collection of cutting edge research articles authored by distinguished international scholars The chapters in the book were originally published in Digital Journalism Journalism Studies and Journalism Practice during the years 2019 2023 and have thus been through rigorous double blind peer review The chapters draw on data from diverse geographical locations such as U S Syria Yemen Libya Iraq Palestine Latin America Pakistan Philippines Afghanistan Venezuela Ethiopia and Slovakia The first section of the book focuses on research that either has made significant conceptual advancements on journalism and safety and or has contributed with global or transnational approaches and the second section focuses on challenges in conflict coverage and the impact it has on democracies This collection offers important points of entry for understanding this area of research and insights into worthwhile concepts and approaches that can be used to further study and advance knowledge It will be a key resource for scholars practitioners and researchers of journalism media and cultural studies communication studies and sociology while also being of interest to those seeking an introduction to the field
