Nuclear Deterrence Morality And Realism:

Nuclear Deterrence, Morality and Realism John Finnis, 1988 Nuclear Deterrence, Morality and Realism John Finnis, Joseph M. Boyle, Germain Grisez, 1989 Morality, Prudence, and Nuclear Weapons Steven P. Lee, 1996-11-13

This 1993 book is the first post Cold War assessment of nuclear deterrence providing a comprehensive normative understanding of nuclear deterrence policy Political Realism And International Morality Kenneth Kipnis, Diana T Meyers, 2019-06-26

It is always appropriate to ask whether an expedient foreign policy is morally justifiable just as it is always appropriate to ask whether a morally defensible policy is consistent with the national interest The ongoing dialogue between morality and realpolitik gives much of foreign policy debate its characteristic bite In this collection of essays a distinguished group of philosophers political theorists and lawyers including Russell Hardin and Marshall Cohen explore these contrasting themes In essays that are at once insightful and accessible noted political thinkers examine the tension of the conflicting demands of morality and national self interest in the context of the foundations of international order the possession and use of nuclear weapons recourse to war and the prospects for peace A final postscript addresses the question of the responsibility of intellectuals in the national foreign policy debate This book will appeal to scholars and students in any discipline dealing with international affairs as well as to lay readers who wish to explore the implications of taking morality and reason seriously in foreign policy Justice and Morality Amanda Russell Beattie, 2016-04-22

Bridging the contending theories of natural law and international relations this book proposes a relational ontology as the basis for rethinking our approach to international politics Amanda Beattie challenges both the conventional interpretation of natural law as necessarily and intractably theological and the dominant conception of international relations as structurally distinct from the ends of human good in order to recover the centrality of other directed agency to the promotion of human development Offering an important contribution to the study of international political thought the book contains a number of challenging and controversial ideas which should provoke constructive debate within international relations theory political theory and philosophical ethics The Contribution of Natural Law Theory to Moral and Legal Debate Concerning Suicide, Assisted Suicide, and Euthanasia Craig Paterson, 2010-05-13 The Contribution of Natural Law Theory to Moral and Legal Debate Concerning Suicide, Assisted Suicide, and Voluntary Euthanasia Craig Paterson, 2001 Natural Law Ethics in Theory and Practice Joseph Boyle, 2020-08-07

Natural Law Ethics in Theory and Practice brings together a selection of essays of the late Joseph Boyle Boyle was with Germain Grisez and John Finnis a founder and developer of the New Classical Natural Law Theory arguably the most important development in Catholic moral philosophy of the twentieth century While this theory is indebted to the work of St Thomas Aquinas it incorporates an understanding and assessment of that work that is different from that found in other statements of natural law Boyle made crucial contributions to a wide variety of aspects of this theory and the volume is divided into two parts Part One Articulating a Theory of Natural Law contains three sections in which Boyle defends the reality of free choice and the view that the basic reasons for action or first principles of natural law are incommensurable in goodness Boyle identifies the basic moral standard for choice and action and develops an account of human action that elucidates the important role played by intention and double effect in their moral evaluation The essays in Part Two Natural Law Theory and Contemporary Moral Problems demonstrate the strength and scope of Boyle's natural law account as he brings it to bear upon just war theory property and welfare rights and issues in bioethics The essays in bioethics address the difficult question of whether it is appropriate to tube feed patients in persistent vegetative state and include an unpublished essay Against Assisted Death which he delivered as the Anscombe Lecture at The Anscombe Bioethics Centre in Oxford about a year before he died This volume also includes a Foreword by Princeton's Robert P George an Introduction by the editors that highlights Boyle's contribution to the development of the new classical natural law theory and a bibliography of Boyle's publications

The Ethics of War and Peace Terry Nardin, 2020-12-08 A superb introduction to the ethical aspects of war and peace this collection of tightly integrated essays explores the reasons for waging war and for fighting with restraint as formulated in a diversity of ethical traditions religious and secular Beginning with the classic debate between political realism and natural law this book seeks to expand the conversation by bringing in the voices of Judaism Islam Christian pacifism and contemporary feminism In so doing it addresses a set of questions How do the adherents to each viewpoint understand the ideas of war and peace What attitudes toward war and peace are reflected in these understandings What grounds for war if any are recognized within each perspective What constraints apply to the conduct of war Can these constraints be set aside in situations of extremity Each contributor responds to this set of questions on behalf of the ethical perspective he or she is presenting The concluding chapters compare and contrast the perspectives presented without seeking to adjudicate their differences Because of its inclusive objective comparative and dialogic approach the book serves as a valuable resource for scholars journalists policymakers and anyone else who wants to acquire a better understanding of the range of moral viewpoints that shape current discussion of war and peace In addition to the editor the contributors are Joseph Boyle Michael G Cartwright Jean Bethke Elshtain John Finnis Sohail H Hashmi Theodore J Koontz David R Mapel Jeff McMahan Richard B Miller Aviezer Ravitzky Bassam Tibi Sarah Tobias and Michael Walzer
