Ontario Memories:

Italian Lives, Cape Breton Memories Sam Migliore, A. Evo DiPierro, 1999 Dad's Best Memories and Recollections

Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazz Humber's epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond. This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished. It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years. The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations. Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections. And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events. Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston. With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States. It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured. But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections. Quixotic Memories Julia

Dominguez, 2022-03-01 The work of Miguel de Cervantes one of the most influential writers in early modern Europe is a reflection of the rich culture of memory in which it was created. More than a theme memory is a system of understanding in Cervantes's world resulting from the major social religious and economic changes that epitomized Renaissance humanist culture and that informed the transition to modernity. Quixotic Memories offers insight into the plurality and complexity of memory and demonstrates how it plays an exceptionally critical role in Cervantes's Don Quixote. It acknowledges Cervantes's transition into modernity as he engaged with theories of memory that were developed in classical antiquity and adapted to the specific circumstances of his own time. Julia Dominguez explores the many spaces that memory created for itself in early modern Spain particularly in the fields of philosophy medicine rhetoric mnemotechnics the visual arts and pedagogy. Engaging with primary and archival sources Quixotic Memories provides a new reading of Cervantes's famous novel by tracing the socio historical and cultural prominence of memory throughout the author's lifetime. War Memories

Stéphanie A.H. Bélanger, Renée Dickason, 2017-05-31 War Memories explores the patchwork formed by collective memory public remembrance private recollection and the ways in which they form a complex composition of observations initiatives and experiences. Offering an international perspective on war commemoration contributors consider the process of assembling historical facts and subjective experiences to show how these points of view diverge according to various social cultural political and historical perspectives. Encompassing the representations of wars in the English speaking world over the last hundred years this collection presents an extensive yet integrated reflection on various types of commemoration and interpretations of events Essays respond to common questions regarding war memory how and why do we remember war What does commemoration tell us about the actors in wars How does commemoration reflect contemporary society s culture of war War Memories disseminates current knowledge on the performance interpretation and rewriting of facts and events during and after wars while focusing on how patriotic fervour resistance conscientious objection injury trauma and propaganda contribute to the shaping of individual and collective memory Contributors include Joan Beaumont Australian National University Canberra Gilles Chamerois University of Brest France Subarno Chattarji University of Delhi India Nicole Cloarec Rennes 1 University France Corinne David Ives European University of Brittany Rennes 2 France Jeffrey Demsky San Bernardino Valley College California Sam Edwards Manchester Metropolitan University Georges Fournier Jean Moulin University France Annie Gagiano University of Stellenbosch South Africa David Haigron Rennes 2 University France Judith Keene University of Sydney Australia Melissa King San Bernardino Valley College California Christine Knauer Eberhard Karls University T bingen Germany Liliane Louvel University of Poitiers Michelle P Moore Canadian Army Doctrine and Training Centre Kingston Ontario John Mullen University of Rouen France Lorie Anne Duech Rainville Caen University France Elizabeth Rechniewski Australian Research Council Discovery Project Rapha l Ricaud University Paris Ouest Nanterre La D fense France Laura Robinson Royal Military College of Canada and Isabelle Roblin Universit du Littoral C te d Opale France

Photography, Memory, and Refugee Identity Lynda Mannik, 2013-04-20 In 1948 a small ship carrying Estonian refugees arrived at Pier 21 in Halifax In this absorbing work anthropologist Lynda Mannik analyzes the refugee experience through the photographic record of those who made that harrowing voyage Drawing on a collection of photographs taken during the voyage and at Pier 21 Mannik asks surviving passengers to describe their journey their reception in Canada and to what extent the photos reflect their experiences as they remember them The photographs in the SS Walnut collection she argues bear witness to the refugee experience even as the meanings attached to them have changed over time and in shifting contexts

A Place in the Memory Helen Aldrich De Kroyft, 1876 Memories of Magical Waters Gord Deval, 2006-03-27 Author Gord Deval is the grand old guy of sport fishing in Canada Few anglers can match him when it comes to his familiarity with trout and fly fishing Internationally known he holds countless bait and fly casting records Canadian and North American champion he has represented Canada 32 times in North American and World competitions Memories of Magical Waters contains a richness of fishing lore related to Deval s experiences on numerous streams rivers and lakes in Ontario and Quebec Throughout his extensive outdoor reminiscences are many insights into fish habitats fishing how tos and general insider tips on lures and casting techniques Deval s fishing adventures of over fifty years take the reader to such exceptional trout waters as the Ganaraska River in Ontario the Broadback River in Quebec Lake Simcoe and many almost inaccessible waters within Ontario s Land O Lakes Haliburton Muskoka and the Kawarthas and streams closer to urban centres His experiences include ice fishing and stream fishing as well as fishing on open waters As an angler he has wet a line with a veritable who's who of fishermen past and present Creating Historical Memory Beverly Boutilier, Alison Prentice, 2011-11-01 Canadian women have worked individually and collectively at home and abroad as creators of historical memory This engaging collection of essays seeks to create an awareness of the contributions made by women to history and the historical profession from 1870 to 1970 in English Canada Creating Historical Memory explores the wide range of careers that women have forged for themselves as writers and preservers of history within and on the margins of the academy The authors suggest some of the institutional and intellectual locations from which English Canadian women have worked as historians and attempt to problematize in different ways and to varying degrees the relationship between women and historical practice The authors raise many interesting questions about how gender influences historical consciousness and whether looking at the past through women's eyes alters the view Women engaged in history in a wide variety of ways as authors of fiction popular history juvenilia and drama as well as more academic research and publishing They worked as individuals as both professional writers and academics and within formal and informal communities of women such as religious groups or local clubs The essays also talk about the barriers that existed for women who wanted to be recognized as historians and teachers of history and point out how gender differences have coloured perceptions of what constitutes history and who should write that history This anthology shows how instead of being intimidated or defeated by their marginalization women developed new and interesting ideas about what constituted history The final essay in the volume assesses the impact the burgeoning of feminist history in the 1970s had on the academy and examines the connection between feminist activism and women's history This original and lively book highlights the pioneering efforts of women in developing alternate paths to historical expression It makes an important contribution both to Canadian historical studies and to women's and gender history in the West and will appeal to scholars interested in Canadian history women's studies literature and historiography

Creating Memory John Warkentin, 2010 Toronto has over 600 public outdoor sculptures works of art that provide a sense of the rich variety of life and work in the city its people's cultures and aspirations Interest in commissioning public sculpture began slowly in the nineteenth and early twentieth century but increased rapidly after the 1950s This is a book about the sculptures and how they disclose the city to itself Creating Memory's two introductory sections examine the factors behind this expansion over time and the changes in style as one generation of sculptors succeeded another It looks at the reasons behind the changes as sculptures were conceived sculpted and erected More than 10 categories of sculptures are defined and discussed including Founding the City Natural Environment Immigration Ethnic Groups Economic Activities Disaster and Calamity War and Conflict Leaders Ordinary Citizens Community Life and Works of the Imagination
