Passions Chains:

Passion's Fictions from Shakespeare to Richardson Benedict S. Robinson, 2021-05-27 Passion's Fictions traces the intimate links between literature and the sciences of mind and soul from the age of Shakespeare to the rise of the novel. It chronicles the emergence of new sciences of the passions between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries and it argues that this history was shaped by rhetoric that contained the most extensively particularized discourse on the passions offering principles for moving and affecting the passions of others in concrete social scenes. This rhetoric of the passions centered on narrative as the instrument of a non-theoretical knowledge of the passions in their particularity predicated on an account of passion as an intimate relation between an impassioned mind and an impassioning world. Rhetoric offers a kind of externalist psychology formalized in the relation of passion to action and underwriting an account of narrative as a means of both moving passion and knowing it. This volume describes the psychology of the passions before the discipline of psychology tracing the influence of rhetoric on theories of the passions from Francis Bacon to Adam Smith and using that history to read literary works by Shakespeare, Milton, Haywood, Richardson and others. Narrative offers a means of knowing and moving the passions by tracing them to the events and objects that generate them; the history of narrative practices is thus a key part of the history of the psychology of the passions at a critical moment in its development.

Passion and Action Susan James, 1997-10-16 Passion and Action explores the place of the emotions in seventeenth-century understandings of the body and mind and the role they were held to play in reasoning and action. Interest in the passions pervaded all areas of philosophical enquiry and was central to the theories of many major figures including Hobbes, Descartes, Malebranche, Spinoza, Pascal and Locke. Yet little attention has been paid to this topic in studies of early modern thought. Susan James surveys the inheritance of ancient and medieval doctrines about the passions then shows how these were incorporated into new philosophical theories in the course of the seventeenth century. She examines the relation of the emotions to will, knowledge, understanding, desire and power offering fresh analyses and interpretations of a broad range of texts by little-known writers as well as canonical figures and establishing that a full understanding of these authors must take account of their discussions of our affective life. Passion and Action also addresses current debates particularly those within feminist philosophy about the embodied character of thinking and the relation between emotion and knowledge. This ground-breaking study throws new light upon the shaping of our ideas about the mind and provides a historical context for burgeoning contemporary investigations of the emotions.

Absolutist Attachments Chloé Hogg, 2019-03-15 In Absolutist Attachments Chloé Hogg uncovers the affective and media connections that shaped Louis XIV's absolutism. Studying literature, painting, engravings, correspondence and the emerging periodic press, Hogg diagnoses the emotions that created absolutism's feeling subjects and publics. Louis XIV's subjects explored new kinds of affective relations with their sovereign joining with the king in acts of aesthetic judgment, tender feeling or the newness of emerging print news culture. Such alternative modes of adhesion countered the hegemonic model of kingship upheld by divine right reason of state or corporate fidelities and privileges with subject driven attachments and practices Absolutist Attachments discovers absolutism s alternative political and cultural legacy not the spectacle of an unbound king but the binding connections of his subjects The Temptation of Our Lord Norman Macleod,1873 Reading the Early Modern Passions Gail Kern Paster,Katherine Rowe,Mary Floyd-Wilson,2004-06 Authors here investigate specific emotions such as sadness courage and fear Others turn to emotions spread throughout society by contemporary events such as a ruler s death the outbreak of war or religious schism and discuss how such emotions have widespread consequences in both social practice and theory The Passion of Christ George Frideric Handel,1877 Classical and critical Edward Gibbon,1814 The Spanish Brothers Anonymous,2023-02-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1871 The publishing house Anatiposi publishes historical books as reprints Due to their age these books may have missing pages or inferior quality Our aim is to preserve these books and make them available to the public so that they do not get lost Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Colorado of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons ,1920 Delphi Complete Works of Edward Gibbon (Illustrated) Edward Gibbon,2015-02-03 Edward Gibbon s monumental History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire charts the course of Western civilisation from the height of the Roman Empire to the fall of Byzantium Published in six volumes between 1776 and 1788 Gibbon s magnum opus is celebrated for its ironic prose use of primary sources and its bold open criticism of organised religion For the first time in digital publishing this comprehensive eBook presents Gibbon s complete works with numerous illustrations rare texts appearing in digital print for the first time informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material Version 2 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Gibbon s life and works Detailed introductions to the history works and other texts The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire is presented with the original footnotes and a detailed table of contents ideal for students Images of how the books were first printed giving your eReader a taste of the original texts Excellent formatting of the texts Features Miscellaneous Essays appearing here for the first time in digital print Rare works often missed out of collections Includes Gibbon s letters spend hours exploring the historian s personal correspondence Gibbon s autobiography Features a bonus biography discover Gibbon s literary life Scholarly ordering of texts into chronological order and literary genres Please note there are no known translations of Gibbon s obscure early work Memoires litteraires de la Grande Bretagne in the public domain When a translation becomes available it will be added to the eBook as a free update Please visit www.delphiclassics.com to browse through our range of exciting titles CONTENTS The History THE HISTORY OF THE DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS The Essays ESSAI SUR L TUDE DE LA LITT RATURE CRITICAL OBSERVATIONS ON THE SIXTH BOOK OF THE NEID MISCELLANEOUS ESSAYS The Letters PRIVATE LETTERS OF EDWARD GIBBON 1753 1794 The Autobiography MEMOIRS OF MY LIFE AND WRITINGS The Biography GIBBON by James Cotter Morison Please visit www
