Radical Change Through Communication In Maos China:

Radical Change Through Communication in Mao's China Godwin C. Chu, 1977      The Rhetoric of Mao Zedong Xing Lu, 2022-04-13 This thorough examination of Mao's speeches and writings and how they reshaped a nation is critical to an understanding of modern China. Mao Zedong fundamentally transformed China from a Confucian society characterized by hierarchy and harmony into a socialist state guided by communist ideologies of class struggle and radicalization. It was a transformation made possible largely by Mao's rhetorical ability to attract, persuade, and mobilize millions of Chinese people. In this book, Xing Lu analyzes Mao's speeches and writings over a span of sixty years, tracing the sources and evolution of his discourse, analyzing his skills as an orator and mythmaker, assessing his symbolic power and continuing presence in contemporary China, and observing that Mao's rhetorical legacy has been commoditized, culturally consumed, and politically appropriated since his death. Applying both Western rhetorical theories and Chinese rhetorical concepts to reach a more nuanced and sophisticated understanding of his rhetorical legacy, Lu shows how Mao employed a host of rhetorical appeals and strategies drawn from Chinese tradition and how he interpreted the discourse of Marxism-Leninism to serve foundational themes of his message. She traces the historical contexts in which these themes, his philosophical orientations, and his political views were formed and how they transformed China and Chinese people. Lu also examines how certain ideas are promoted, modified, and appropriated in Mao's rhetoric. His appropriation of Marxist theory of class struggle, his campaigns of transforming common people into new communist advocates, his promotion of Chinese nationalism, and his stand on China's foreign policy all contributed to and were responsible for reshaping Chinese thought, patterns, culture, and communication behaviors.

Practising Global Journalism John Herbert, 2013-02-11 From this book, you will gain an understanding of the global media marketplace, the technology, the players, and the issues. The role of news agencies, sources, and networks are explored, covering the issues of ethics, global media ownership, and control. Find out how journalists are using the web and learn even newer ways to collect and communicate information. Essential reading for today's practising and trainee journalists. John Herbert examines the global environment in which journalists operate and describes the latest technology and its impact on print, broadcast, and online journalism practice. Practising Global Journalism is a unique overview of the profession, providing a comparative study of journalism practice worldwide. Case studies are drawn from Europe, Australia, the Asia-Pacific, South Asia, China, Africa, and the Americas.

Communication Yearbook 12 James A. Anderson, 2012-03-22 In Communication Yearbook 11, major contributions from leading scholars in a variety of communication fields are presented and then critiqued by other authorities, often representing complementary or competing schools of thought. Topics addressed and commented on include the mass media audience, the theory of mediation, effective policy for health care communication, and feminist criticism of television.

Planet TV Lisa Parks, Shanti Kumar, 2003 Provides an overview of the rapidly changing landscape of global television, combining previously published essays by pioneers of the study of television with new work by cutting edge television scholars who refine and extend intellectual debates in the field

Rhetoric of the Chinese Cultural Revolution Xing Lu, 2020-08-05 A startling look at revolutionary rhetoric and its effects Now known to the Chinese as the ten years of chaos the Chinese Cultural Revolution 1966-76 brought death to thousands of Chinese and persecution to millions In Rhetoric of the Chinese Cultural Revolution Xing Lu identifies the rhetorical practices and persuasive effects of the polarizing political language and symbolic practices used by Communist Party leaders to legitimize their use of power and violence to dehumanize people identified as class enemies Lu provides close readings of the movement's primary texts political slogans official propaganda wall posters and the lyrics of mass songs and model operas She also scrutinizes such ritualistic practices as the loyalty dance denunciation rallies political study sessions and criticism and self criticism meetings Lu enriches her rhetorical analyses of these texts with her own story and that of her family as well as with interviews conducted in China and the United States with individuals who experienced the Cultural Revolution during their teenage years In her new preface Lu expresses deep concern about recent nationalism xenophobia divisiveness and violence instigated by the rhetoric of hatred and fear in the United States and across the globe She hopes that by illuminating the way language shapes perception thought and behavior this book will serve as a reminder of past mistakes so that we may avoid repeating them in the future

Chinese Propaganda Posters: From Revolution to Modernization Stefan Landsberger, 2020-11-26 Brightly coloured prints portraying model behaviour or a better future have been a ubiquitous element of Chinese political culture from Imperial times until present As economic reform swept the People's Republic in the 1980s visual propaganda ceased to depict the tanned and muscular labourers in a proletarian utopia so typical of preceding decades Instead Western icons of progress and development were employed high speed bullet trains spacecraft high rise buildings gridlocked free ways and projections of general affluence Socialist Realism was phased out by design and mixed media techniques that were influenced by Western advertising This lavishly illustrated study traces the development of the style and content of the Chinese propaganda poster in the decade of reform from its traditional origins to its use as a tool for political and economic purposes

Asia.com K. C. Ho, Randy Kluver, C.C. Yang, 2003-09-02 The internet is developing quicker in Asia than in any other region of the world This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the information society in an Asian context and the impact of these technologies in Asia These impacts are inevitably uneven and conditioned by issues of telecommunications infrastructure government policies cultural and social values and economic realities The combination of original research theoretical innovation and detailed case studies make this an important book for scholars and students in Asian studies media studies communication studies and sociology

Law and Politics in Modern China Sharron Gu, 2009 This is an original interdisciplinary study of Chinese law its language and political institution Evolving within a complex literary framework over thousands of years Chinese language has lost its conceptual distinctiveness to its multilevel and overlapping meanings and connotations Chinese law has become inflated with contrary rulings and exceptions This mass of rules requires an extra lingual legal authority to redefine boundaries and specify applications This book follows and continues the author s The Boundaries of Meaning and the Formation of Law McGill University Press by illustrating how language shapes the formation application and administration of law in various cultural environments Law and Politics in Modern China is an important book for those interested in Chinese history culture law and politics It also provides refreshing insights about the way that law continues to function after its language matures and creates contradictions and loopholes within its system of rules one of the most important issues facing Western legal administration in the immediate future

Problems of Communism , 1981 The Buddha Party John Powers, 2017 The Buddha Party tells the story of how the People s Republic of China employs propaganda to define Tibetan Buddhist belief and sway opinion within the country and abroad The narrative they create is at odds with historical facts and deliberately misleading but John Powers argues it is widely believed by Han Chinese Most of China s leaders appear to deeply believe the official line regarding Tibet which resonates with Han notions of themselves as China s most advanced nationality and as a benevolent race that liberates and culturally uplifts minority peoples This in turn profoundly affects how the leadership interacts with their counterparts in other countries Powers s study focuses in particular on the government s patriotic education campaign an initiative that forces monks and nuns to participate in propaganda sessions and repeat official dogma Powers contextualizes this within a larger campaign to transform China s religions into patriotic systems that endorse Communist Party policies This book offers a powerful comprehensive examination of this ongoing phenomenon how it works and how Tibetans resist it

China Among the Nations of the Pacific Harrison Brown, 2019-08-27 On May 14 1960 the East West Center was officially created by the Congress of the United States As a part of the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of this event a symposium was held on May 19 1980 at the National Academy of Sciences in Washington D C The subject China and the Nations of the Pacific was selected because the theme for the anniversary year of the East West Center had been established as Building a Pacific Community It has been suggested that international mechanisms for coming to grips with such interdependencies in the Pacific region as trade investment food energy and mineral commodities are inadequate In response to such suggestions hearings have been held in both houses of the Congress of the United States on the idea of a Pacific community This symposium was organized as part of that general discussion The contributors hope that the papers presented here will further stimulate thought and debate on the problems of the Pacific region
