Radical Dreamer Dreams Cannot Die:

Radical Dreamer Mark Wheatley,1996-05-29 In the world of 3052 Max Wrighter dreamed of bringing education to the masses He designed the DreamNet an electronic web capable of linking its users to a dimension beyond reality a realm from which a free exchange of knowledge and experience might enlighten the world But with no means to enact the DreamNet Max sold his dream to the Owners the uberclass who ruled society Max had faith that they would make his dreams a reality He really was dreaming The Owners tailored the Net to their own ends turning it into an addictive stream of propaganda and pandering entertainment while reaping an amazing profit on its use Consumed by greed they moved too far too fast and found to their horror that someone or something was moving through the dreamstream killing DreamNet users by the score Max alone took action Severing his ties to reality he flung himself headlong into the DreamNet and found himself capable of entering the dreams of any person linked to the Net Max had become the Radical Dreamer and in doing so learned a horrible truth In order to save mankind he must find a way to destroy the DreamNet and sacrifice himself in the process You

Hive Mind existence is made of nothing but minds all packed together in the Cosmic Hive All the minds do is dream individually and collectively and in doing so they generate the world we all experience The fundamental activity of the mind is dreaming Come inside the hive and discover how reality works Elemental Discourses John Sallis, 2018-09-28 John Sallis's thought is oriented to two overarching tasks to bring to light the elemental in nature and to show how the imagination operates at the very center of human experience He undertakes these tasks by analyzing a broad range of phenomena including perception the body the natural world art space and the cosmos In every case Sallis develops an original form of discourse attuned to the specific phenomenon and enacts a thorough reflection on discourse itself in its relation to voice dialogue poetry and translation Sallis's systematic investigations are complemented by his extensive interpretations of canonical figures in the history of philosophy such as Plato Aristotle Kant Schelling and Hegel and by his engagement with the most original thinkers in the areas of phenomenology hermeneutics and deconstruction The Dream and the Deal Jerre Mangione, 1996-11-01 Operating in every state in the union for eight turbulent years the New Deal's Federal Writers Project provided needed jobs for more than 10 000 writers and would be writers among them Saul Bellow Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright and produced some 1 200 published books and pamphlets including the magnificent American Guide Series which gave the nation its first self portrait Nominated for the National Book Award in history The Dream and the Deal is available to a new generation of readers and includes a selected checklist of 400 Writers Project publications

Epistemology Ernest Sosa, 2018-12-04 One of the world's leading epistemologists provides a sophisticated revisionist introduction to the subject In this concise book one of the world's leading epistemologists provides a sophisticated revisionist introduction to the problem of knowledge in Western philosophy Modern and contemporary accounts of epistemology tend to focus on limited questions of knowledge and skepticism such as how we can know the external world other minds the past through memory the future through induction or the world's depth and structure through inference This book steps back for a better view of the more general issues posed by the ancient Greek Pyrrhonists Returning to and illuminating this older broader epistemological tradition Ernest Sosa develops an original account of the subject giving it substance not with Cartesian theology but with science and common sense Descartes is a part of this ancient tradition but he goes beyond it by considering not just whether knowledge is possible in the first place but also how we can properly attain it In Cartesian epistemology Sosa finds a virtue theoretic account one that he extends beyond the Cartesian context Once epistemology is viewed in this light many of its problems can be solved or fall away The result is an important reevaluation of epistemology that will be essential reading for students and teachers The Orphaned Imagination Guinn Batten, 1998 Studies of the English Romantic poets generally portray them either as transcending the workings of capitalism or as working in complicity with an entrepreneurial economy In The Orphaned Imagination Guinn Batten challenges standard accounts of Romantic poetry and argues that Wordsworth Byron Blake Shelley Keats and Coleridge each of whom suffered the loss of a father or father figure at an early age possessed an orphan's special insight into the dynamics and aesthetics of commodity culture and its symptomatic melancholia Building on the theoretical insights of Slavoj Žižek Judith Butler Julia Kristeva and Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Batten interweaves the discourses of psychoanalysis economics biography sexuality melancholy value and exchange to question accepted ideas of how Romantic poetry works She asserts that poetic labor is in fact paradigmatic of the kinds of production and the kinds of desire that capitalist culture renders invisible If symbolic exchange in cash or in words requires the surrender of a beloved object if healthy mourning requires an orphan to work through emotional loss through the consolation of art or a love for the living then the rebellious Romantic poet Batten contends possessed unique insight into the alternative authority of a poetic language that renounced a culture of denial Batten urges that scholars move beyond critical approaches condemning allegedly regressive forms of pleasure recognizing that they too are haunted by melancholic attachments to dead poets as they conduct their work The Orphaned Imagination will interest anyone concerned with the claims of the English Romantic poets to a distinctive valuable form of knowledge and those who may wonder about the power of contemporary theory to illuminate a traditional field      Semiological Reductionism Martin C. Dillon, 1995-01-01 This critical interpretation shows Derridian thought to be permeated by a semiology that reduces all meaning to the signification of signs thus challenging the philosophy of deconstruction at its roots      Australasian Journal of Philosophy, 1926      The Moment Heidrun Frieze, 2001-01-01 This volume addresses from different perspectives the key questions posed by the moment and thereby elucidates the connection between social theory philosophy literary theory and history that are opened by the moment      English Drama Alexander Leggatt, 2014-06-06 The most important period in the history of English drama is revealed in Alexander Leggatt's challenging account The author considers English drama from the beginning of Shakespeare's career to the restoration of Charles II Focusing on Shakespeare and the development of his art he examines all his major contemporaries Jonson Middleton Webster Beaumont Fletcher and Ford He combines close analysis of specific plays with a broader look at trends within drama      The Grotesque in the Fiction of Charles Dickens and Other 19th-century European Novelists Isabelle Hervouet-Farrar, Max Vega-Ritter, 2015-01-12 This book provides an overview of the literary grotesque in 19th century Europe with special emphasis on Charles Dickens whose use of this complex aesthetic category is thus addressed in relation with other 19th century European writers The crossing of geographical boundaries allows an in depth study of the different modes of the grotesque found in 19th century fiction It provides a comprehensive analysis of the reasons behind the extensive use of such a favoured mode of expression Intertextuality and comparative or cultural analysis are thus used here to shed new light on Dickens's influences both given and received as well as to compare and contrast his use of the grotesque with that of key 19th century writers like Hugo Gogol Thackeray Hardy and a few others The essays of this volume examine the various forms taken by the grotesque in 19th century European fiction such as for example the fusion of the familiar and the uncanny or of the terrifying and the comic as well as the figures and narrative techniques best suited for the expression of a novelist's grotesque vision of the world. These essays contribute to an assessment of the links between the grotesque, the gothic and the fantastic and more generally the genres and aesthetic categories which the 19th century grotesque fed on like caricature, the macabre and tragicomedy. They also examine the novelists' grotesque as contributing to the questioning of society in Victorian Britain and 19th century Europe, echoing its raging conflicts and the shocks of scientific progress. This study naturally adopts as its theoretical basis the works of key theorists and critics of the grotesque, namely Victor Hugo, Charles Baudelaire and John Ruskin in the 19th century and Mikhail Bakhtin, Wolfgang Kayser, Geoffrey Harpham and Elisheva Rosen in the 20th century.

One (Un)Like the Other Michael F. Andrews, 2024-09-01. Aims to rethink ethics and transcendence in light of the phenomenology of empathy and social ontology. One (Un)Like the Other responds to the question: What are the conditions of possibility that make genuine knowledge of other persons and therefore love possible? By providing an original interpretive framework for exploring ethics in relation to empathy and transcendence from multiple perspectives in continental philosophy, empathy is described as a trace of what remains essentially and irreducibly other in every act of givenness. The use of the phenomenological method places Einführung theory in its rich historical context, beginning with Husserl and the early phenomenologists and extending to contemporary issues that explore otherness in light of consciousness, gender, embodiment, community, intentionality, emotions, intersubjectivity, values, language and apophatic discourse. The implications of recasting empathy in an interpretive and dialogical model of reciprocity envision new paradigms of understanding ethics as an infinite playing field. No longer subservient to metaphysics and ontology, empathy is described as an act of infinite concern, a hermeneutics of suspicion that transcends epistemological theory and ethical command. Drawing on Husserl, Scheler, Stein, Heidegger, Levinas, Derrida and others, this study presents an examination and expansion of empathy as an encounter with otherness in its most radical and transcendent forms.

Dream of Freedom Koigi wa Wamwere, 1997. Shelley's Radical Stages Dana Van Kooy, 2016-03-31. Dana Van Kooy draws critical attention to Percy Bysshe Shelley as a dramatist and argues that his dramas represent a critical paradigm of romanticism in which history is staged. Reading Shelley's dramas as a series of radical stages, historical reenactments and theatrical reproductions, Van Kooy highlights the cultural significance of the drama and the theatre in shaping and contesting constructions of both the sovereign nation and the global empire in the post-Napoleonic era. This book is about the power of performance to challenge and reformulate cultural memories that were locked in historical narratives and in Britain's theatrical repertoire. It examines each of Shelley's dramas as a specific radical stage that reformulates the familiar cultural performances of war, revolution, slavery and domestic tyranny. Shelley's plays invite audiences to step away from these horrors and to imagine their lives as something other than a tragedy or a melodrama where characters are entrapped in cycles of violence or struck blind or silent by fear. Although Shelley's dramas are few in number, they engage a larger cultural project of aesthetic and political reform that constituted a groundswell of activism that took place during the Romantic period      Dreaming Techniques Serge Kahili King, 2020-10-20 Harness the transformative power of night dreams half awake dreams and daydreams for healing manifestation and insight Examines the types of dreams we have and how to remember and interpret them Offers techniques for using night dreams and liminal dreams to improve our health and well being and for manifesting our dreams in reality Provides techniques for using daydreams for healing insight and creativity Explains how dream techniques can be used to influence the behavior of people things and nature in the waking world Dreams can change our lives in profound and tangible ways In this guide to mastering the art of dreaming Serge Kahili King Ph D explores techniques to harness the power of dreams for healing transformation and changing your experience of reality Drawing on his analysis of more than 5 000 of his own dreams as well as those of students and clients from his almost 50 years of clinical work King examines the types of night dreams we have how to remember them better how to make use of them to improve our health and well being and how to interpret them He explores how dreams are understood in neuroscience and psychology in Native American and Aboriginal cultures in indigenous Senoi dream theory and in India Tibet Hawaii and Africa as well as ancient Egypt Greece and China He examines the power of liminal dreams those experienced in the half awake state before or after sleep for manifestation and self understanding He offers techniques for enhancing the dream experience for both night dreams and liminal dreams along with practical methods to induce lucid conscious dreaming and to create healing thoughtforms King then explores daydreams in depth including fantasy guided imagery meditation visions and remote viewing and provides techniques for using daydreams for healing insight and creativity He divides daydreaming into two categories defining active daydreaming as the scripted dream in which you envision a goal happening and passive daydreaming as allowing ideas and memories to arise spontaneously from the depths of the mind Reflecting on how dreamlike our daily experience is King shows that each of us can use dreams as tools for seeing the world differently and influencing the behavior of people things and nature
