Radio Dialogs II:

Radio Dialogs II Arno Schmidt, 2003 As in the first volume published by Green Integer in 1999 this second volume contains dialogic discussions of literary figures performed over German radio from 1953 to 1971 by the great German novelist Here Schmidt discusses again his beloved James Joyce as well as the English writer Bulwer Lytton and the German language authors Schnabel Herder Stifter Frenssen and others One of the most noted of German writers of the 20th century Arno Schmidt died in 1971 He was author of The Egghead Republic Nobadaddy's Children Zettle's Traum forthcoming from Green Integer and The School for Atheists Dialogues II Gilles Deleuze, Claire Parnet, 2006-05-16 Gilles Deleuze 1925 1995 a key figure in post structuralism was Professor of Philosophy at the University of Paris VIII In this book Deleuze examines his philosophical pluralism in a series of discussions with Claire Parnet He describes his own philosophical background relationships and some of the central themes of his work The Complete Review Guide to Contemporary

World Fiction M.A. Orthofer, 2016-04-19 A user friendly reference for English language readers who are eager to explore contemporary fiction from around the world Profiling hundreds of titles and authors from 1945 to today with an emphasis on fiction published in the past two decades this guide introduces the styles trends and genres of the world's literatures from Scandinavian crime thrillers and cutting edge Chinese works to Latin American narco fiction and award winning French novels The book's critical selection of titles defines the arc of a country's literary development Entries illuminate the fiction of individual nations cultures and peoples while concise biographies sketch the careers of noteworthy authors Compiled by M A Orthofer an avid book reviewer and the founder of the literary review site the Complete Review this reference is perfect for readers who wish to expand their reading choices and knowledge of contemporary world fiction A bird's eye view of titles and authors from everywhere a book overfull with reminders of why we love to read international fiction Keep it close by Robert Con Davis Udiano executive director World Literature Today M A Orthofer has done more to bring literature in translation to America than perhaps any other individual This book will introduce more new worlds to you than any other book on the market Tyler Cowen George Mason University A relaxed riverine guide through the main currents of international writing with sections for more than a hundred countries on six continents Karan Mahajan Page Turner blog The New Yorker Radio Fields Lucas Bessire, Daniel Fisher, 2012-11-19 Radio is the most widespread electronic medium in the world today As a form of technology that is both durable and relatively cheap radio remains central to the everyday lives of billions of people around the globe It is used as a call for prayer in Argentina and Appalachia to organize political protest in Mexico and Libya and for wartime communication in Iraq and Afghanistan In urban centers it is played constantly in shopping malls waiting rooms and classrooms Yet despite its omnipresence it remains the media form least studied by anthropologists Radio Fields employs ethnographic methods to reveal the diverse domains in which radio is imagined deployed and understood Drawing on research from six continents the volume demonstrates how the particular capacities and practices of radio provide singular insight into diverse social worlds ranging from aboriginal Australia to urban Zambia Together the contributors address how radio creates distinct possibilities for rethinking such fundamental concepts as culture communication community and collective agency

The Novel: An Alternative History, 1600-1800 Steven Moore, 2013-08-29 Winner of the Christian Gauss Award for excellence in literary scholarship from the Phi Beta Kappa Society Having excavated the world's earliest novels in his previous book literary historian Steven Moore explores in this sequel the remarkable flowering of the novel between the years 1600 and 1800 from Don Quixote to America's first big novel an homage to Cervantes entitled Modern Chivalry This is the period of such classic novels as Tom Jones Candide and Dangerous Liaisons but beyond the dozen or so recognized classics there are hundreds of other interesting novels that appeared then known only to specialists Spanish picaresques French heroic romances massive Chinese novels Japanese graphic novels eccentric English novels and the earliest American novels These minor novels are not only interesting in their own right but also provide the context needed to appreciate why the major novels were major breakthroughs The novel experienced an explosive growth spurt during these centuries as novelists experimented with different forms and genres epistolary novels romances Gothic thrillers novels in verse parodies science fiction episodic road trips and family sagas along with quirky unclassifiable experiments in fiction that resemble contemporary avant garde works As in his previous volume Moore privileges the innovators and outriders those who kept the novel novel In the most comprehensive history of this period ever written Moore examines over 400 novels from around the world in a lively style that is as entertaining as it is informative Though written for a general audience The Novel An Alternative History also provides the scholarly apparatus required by the serious student of the period This sequel like its predecessor is a zestfully encyclopedic avidly opinionated and dazzlingly fresh history of the most elastic of literary forms Booklist
